This age demands men who have convictions. Where shall we find them? said the orator in a burst of eloquence. "In jail," came the answer from the back of the hall.

Earthquake Causes Havoc in Southern California.

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 25.—The towns of San Jacinto and Hemet, in Riverside county, were badly shaken by an earthquake at 4:25 this morning. No lives were lost so far as known, but several persons were injured. In San Jacinto not a brick house or block escaped injury. Nearly all of the business portion is in ruins. The new Southern California hospital caved in. It was not occupied. At Hemet the Hemet company's wall is partly down. The front wall fell flat. The rear of the large Johnson block also toppled over. Hemet's new hotel is a ruin. The damage at these places cannot be estimated now. Communication by wire is interrupted.

The Herald has received a telegram from San Bernardino stating that six Indians were killed at Hemet by falling walls during the earthquake. The Santa Fe railroad's report is to the effect that no lives were lost.

AT SAN DIEGO. Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 25.—The most severe earthquake ever felt in Los Angeles came at 4:27 this morning. No great damage is reported. There were two shocks, the first being the most prolonged. The shock lasted about 12 seconds, the undulations being from north to south.

AT SAN JACINTO. San Jacinto, Cal., Dec. 26.—This little city is the scene of desolation today. The people are beginning to recover from the shock of the earthquake which centered here on Christmas morning and destroyed every brick building in the place.

At the Saboba Indian reservation near here, a dance had been held the night before, and large quantities of whiskey were consumed by the Indians which had sent most of them into a drunken slumber before the shock came. A number of squaws had huddled together in the old adobe building and were sleeping off the effects of the liquor. The heavy walls fell in upon them. Six were killed outright and two died later, while a score more are badly injured. Those killed were horribly crushed.

I am a farmer located near Stony Brook, one of the most malarious districts in this State, and was bothered with malaria for years, at times so I could not work, and was always very constipated as well. For years I had malaria so bad in the spring, when engaged in plowing, that I could do nothing but shake. I must have taken about a barrel of quinine pills besides dozens of other remedies, but never obtained any permanent benefit. Last fall, in peacetime, I had a most serious attack of chills and then commenced to take Ripans Tablets, upon a friend's advice, and the first box made me all right and I have never been without them since. I take one Tabule each morning and night and sometimes when I feel more than usually exhausted I take three in a day. They have kept my stomach sweet, my bowels regular and I have not had the least touch of malaria nor splitting headache since I commenced using them. I know also that I sleep better and wake up more refreshed than formerly. I don't know how many complaints Ripans Tablets will help, but I do know they will cure any one in the condition I was and I would not be without them at any price. I honestly consider them the cheapest-priced medicine in the world, as they are also the most beneficial and the most convenient to take. I am twenty-seven years of age and have worked hard all my life, the same as most farmers, both early and late and in all kinds of weather, and I have never enjoyed such good health as I have since last fall; in fact, my neighbors have all remarked my improved condition and have said, "Say, John, what are you doing to look so healthy?"
