F. Long & Son have the largest retail harness shop in Coquille City and Myrtle Point in the state. These will be stocked up to the full for the spring and summer trade at once, and the prices will be as low as anywhere. Tax notices have been mailed by the sheriff that the taxes of 1899 are now due and payable, and will become delinquent April 1st, after which the matter of tax sales will be considered, possibly to begin as early as June.

The next county superintendent of public schools will enter a 4-year term, the law passed at the last term of the legislature providing for it. Now let all the parties bring forth their best men in the educational interests. I will open a private school in Coquille City on the 3d Monday in March, 1900. Pupils of 1st and 2d grades will be taken. Kindergarten system will be introduced for very young children. Rates, $1 and $1.50 per month.

MISS L. P. FETTER. Prisoner Allen, held in jail on charge of a fearful crime, is now on the "sick" list. He had been, until recently, apparently quite contented and of easy conscience, but as the time draws near for trial he seems to be weakening, or entering a role for some purpose of defeating justice.

Cosos and Curry counties comprise the 7th senatorial and the 6th representative districts and are entitled to a representation of one joint-senator and one joint-representative. Cosos county also is entitled to one representative as the 5th representative district. Officers for these positions will be elected at the coming June election.

A. R. De Fluent, editor of the Journal, Doylestown, Ohio, suffered for a number of years from rheumatism in his right shoulder and side. He says: "My right arm at times was entirely useless. I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and was surprised to receive relief almost immediately. The Pain Balm has been a constant companion of mine ever since and it never fails." For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Bandon Recorder: While you are locking the field over for places to make improvement, do not forget that we want good timber for road improvements, and about the best stick to be placed in that direction, is a good road master, to last for the next two years to come. Remember that if you are bitten by a bad choice, the bite will not heal for two years, while the effect will last longer. This is applicable to each road district.

Large stock of celebrated A. L. Bryan Shoes just received at Hawkins'.

W. T. Brady, a prominent North Fork farmer, was in town last Friday trading.

Charley Collier was up awhile last Thursday, the first after about three weeks of severe sickness.

Frank and Robert Wyman, sons of our old comrade and county citizen, Thomas C. Wyman, of the lighthouse on the bay, were visitors a day or two in this place last week, after a visit to Bandon. The boys are promising and popular young men. They represent their father as quite recovered from an amputation of a leg he suffered two years ago, and as now using an artificial limb very cleverly and helpfully. Comrade Wyman, the father, served in the civil war in the 2d Maine, and is of course now growing old. He met with an accident at the Arago lighthouse, injuring his leg, necessitating, after much suffering, an amputation. He has many acquaintances and friends throughout the county who will be glad to hear he is getting along so well and is in good health.

Sour Stomach

"After I was induced to try CASCARETS, I will never be without them in the house. My liver was in a very bad shape, and my head ached and I had stomach trouble. Now, since taking Cascarets, I feel fine. My wife has also used them with beneficial results for sour stomach." Joe. KNEHLING, Mill Condy St., St. Louis, Mo.

IS THIS YOUR STORY?

"Every morning I have a bad taste in my mouth; my tongue is coated; my head aches and I often feel dizzy. I have no appetite for breakfast and what food I eat distresses me. I have a heavy feeling in my stomach. I am getting so weak that sometimes I tremble and my nerves are all unstrung. I am getting pale and thin. I am as tired in the morning as at night."

What does your doctor say? "You are suffering from impure blood."

What is his remedy? "Ayer's Sarsaparilla."

You must not have constipated bowels if you expect the Sarsaparilla to do its best work. But Ayer's Pills cure constipation.

We have a book on Paleness and Weakness which you may have for the asking.

Write to our Doctors. Perhaps you would like to consult eminent physicians about your condition. Write us freely all the particulars in your case. You will receive a prompt reply.

Address, DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

A nice wedding ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hammack, near Arago, on Sunday, Feb. 25th, at which their charming daughter, Miss Effie May Hammack, was claimed by our young friend, Nile Miller, and Rev. Thos. Barklow officiated as the spokesman. It was a very pleasant affair, participated in only by a few invited relatives as guests and witnesses to the troth. The Herald greets the young couple with sincere well wishes.

ANNUAL SCHOOL MEETING.

J. J. Stanley Elected Director and C. H. Nosler Clerk.

The annual school meeting was held at the schoolhouse yesterday, at 2 p. m., with the usual lack of interest on the part of the citizens. Twenty-one citizens participated out of about 220 legal voters—one out of ten.

In the absence of Chairman Collier, Director I. Hacker presided and called the meeting to order. Clerk C. H. Nosler read the financial statement of the district, which was as follows:

GENERAL FUND. Money received.....$1067.50 Total disbursed..... 974.41

Bal. in treasury.....$ 93.09 BUILDING FUND. The old building sale brought a total of $257.89 during the year, of which $6.80 is still in hands of treasurer.

On motion, the financial statement of the clerk was accepted as read. The clerk reported $600 as yet due the teachers, and a sum of $1332.50 cents (and interest) paid on the building, and probably as much as $150 on other expenditures in town.

SCHOLASTIC CENSUS. The clerk reported the following result of taking the scholastic census, enrollment including between ages of 4 and 20: Males..... 177 Females..... 182

Total..... 359 This is an increase in scholastic population of 54 over last year.

SCHOOL TERM REPORT. No. months of public school "scholars enrolled in the school..... 264 "enrolled under 6 years..... 0 Average daily attendance... 184 Teachers employed (1 male)..... 9 No. scholars not attending..... 5 Value of school building $8009.00 "desks, etc..... 1150.00 "apparatus..... 75.00 Average paid male teacher per month..... 55.00 "paid female teachers per month..... 42.50 Total disbursements for all school purposes.....$1720.36

ELECTION OF DIRECTOR AND CLERK. The chairman then announced the election of a director for a term of three years as the next order of business. Nominations were made of several names, but they as promptly declined. J. J. Stanley was held up, however, by the meeting, a ballot taken, with Clyde Gage and B. F. Lawrence as tellers—J. J. Stanley, 13; R. E. Buck, 3; Mrs. Maury, 1—whereupon the chair announced that Mr. Stanley having received a majority of all the votes cast, was duly elected director. Nominations for clerk were then made, the meeting settling on Prof. C. H. Nosler to succeed himself. A ballot resulted in 15 votes for Mr. Nosler and 1 for Mr. Lamb, whereupon the chair announced the election of Mr. Nosler as clerk.

On motion, adjourned. Treasurer's Notice. NOTICE is hereby given that all County Warrants endorsed prior to June 1, 1894, will be paid on presentation at my office in Coquille City, Coos county, Oregon. No interest will be allowed after February 24, 1900. This 20th day of February, 1900. W. W. HAYES, County Treasurer.
