

REGULAR TRAINS

Table with 3 columns: Leave, Arrive, and Station. Rows include Marshfield, Coquille City, and Myrtle Point.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Additional locals on 2d page. The Herald is prepared to do job printing in the best style.

Wm Ross, a shipbuilder at the bay, came over on yesterday's train.

Jason Raudleman, of Parkersburg, was a visitor in Coquille last week.

Dr. and Mrs. S. L. Leneve returned last Wednesday from a visit to the bay.

Comrade C. D. Elliott is very low and hardly a hope exists that he will recover.

For Garden and Flower Seeds go to The Berlin Store.

Coquille creamery butter will be supplied in this place at Sauderson Bro's grocery.

W. Crane was elected school director in the Riverton district and J. V. Foster clerk.

Attorney A. E. Seaman, of the bay, visited the county seat on legal business yesterday.

J. W. Leneve has the agency for the Cleveland Oil & Paint Co. for this place, and he has a nice line of Paints and Oils.

Uncle Joe Ferry, of Riverton, was a visitor in town last Wednesday. He seems to be almost himself again from the accidental fall he got several months ago.

Work of altering and improving the little church was begun yesterday. B. D. Sanford and son, Oliver, beginning the work. It will make a very pleasant room for service.

Parties named Lovo, timber locators, supposed to be from the east, are prospecting the timber lands in the North Fork section, supposedly for eastern syndicates.

The Fair Store inserts a new ad. on 4th page, making offers of its specialty in the shoe line—the great A. L. Bryan Shoes, without a superior on the market; also bargains in general merchandise.

The Republican precinct conventions will be held tomorrow for the election of delegates to the county convention to meet in Coquille City Thursday, March 29th, at 10 a. m., and to choose precinct officers, including road supervisor.

St. Patrick was remembered by a liberal display of "wearing of the green" in this city last Saturday. Her majesty ordered it for the Irish at home this time, so St. Patrick's friends here were safe and will not be banged for this burst of admiration.

Uncle Henry Randleman, of the lower river, has been frequently in town of late, and sometimes several days in succession. The old gentleman suffers from an injury to his left hand, received 20 years ago. It is almost helpless now, and lost to sense of touch, but threatening his arm.

Rev. J. B. Lister, secretary of the state board of home mission work of the Christian denomination, reached this city and preached Sunday night. He has only made appointments for meetings to include tomorrow evening, from which time he will make any further appointments that he deems authorized.

A. R. De Fluert, editor of the Journal, Doylestown, Ohio, suffered for a number of years from rheumatism in his right shoulder and side. He says: "My right arm at times was entirely useless. I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and was surprised to receive relief almost immediately. The Pain Balm has been a constant companion of mine ever since and it never fails." For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Myrtle Point Enterprise: Because one is elected to an office, that is no reason why he should have a life lease of that office. Some men are now fitting for office in this county who should not be there. They belong to the humble walks of private life when judged by real merit. Yet they seek to hold onto the public pay. They enter into schemes to promote their own ends regardless of the public good. They care nothing for principle. They are "out for the stuff." They want the spoils.

Large stock of celebrated A. L. Bryan Shoes just received at Hawkins'.

Mrs. W. A. Bean, of Riverton, was shopping and visiting in town last Thursday.

A service of immersion will be conducted at the river this afternoon by Rev. Lister.

Andrew Hall, of the bay side, was a visitor in Coquille a day or two last week after a long absence.

Garden, Flower and Grass Seeds at Macy & Moore's. Choice Red Clover, 11c. A new supply soon to arrive.

Mrs. Shepard came up from Bandon last Friday and met her daughter, Mrs. Ora Wickham, from Beaver Hill.

A large assortment of plain and fancy Sailors' and Street Hats are expected by Mrs. Hersey on Wednesday's train.

The steamer Alice Blanchard has been sold by Charles Doe to a company which operates a line of steamers in the Gulf of California.

W. H. Waddington, of Lamprey creek, was up last Thursday. He reports his daughter as being better, and now able to walk out of doors some.

W. R. Darby runs the "lighting express" among the hauling fraternity, and will serve the public promptly and carefully in all business entrusted to him.

FOR SALE—320 acres of good range for stock. 15 acres cleared and good 5-roomed house thereon; spring water. Rare chance. Call at HERALD office for information.

TO THE DEAF—A rich lady, cured of her Deafness and Noise in the Head by Dr. Nicholson's Artificial Ear Drums, gave $10,000 to his Institute, so that deaf people unable to procure the Ear Drums may have them free. Address, No. 8877, The Nicholson Institute, 780, Eighth Avenue, New York.

C. B. Higley, son of our Mr. Higley, and family arrived from Portland last week to take up their residence here. Mr. H. has been several years in the carriage business at Portland.

The Populist primary conventions will be held next Saturday. So, also, the Democratic primaries, and both county conventions will be held in this place on Wednesday of next week.

Rev. W. Horsfall conducted services at St. James church last Sunday morning and evening. Many flowers had been placed by ladies of the church, Saturday, which imparted an air of beauty and cheerfulness.

Maj. Brown went to the lower river section last Wednesday, and will visit his old friends, the Thrifts. If his health does not improve on the coast, he will take the steamer at Port Orford and go to the city.

An accident happened at Lyons' mill near noon yesterday, at which the saw was broken into many pieces—how many is not known. Pieces of the saw scattered everywhere, but luckily hit no person. The damage occurred while the saw was turning at a high speed, the large log settling slightly, thus warping and crushing the saw and causing the pieces of all sizes to fly in all directions.

Myrtle Point Enterprise: Geo. Folsom and family, James Devault and family, Bert Blackburn and wife, Mrs. Lulu Marshall and David Blush, of Stillwater, Oklahoma, arrived at this place Wednesday. They expressed themselves as delighted with our climate and town and will locate permanently here. They inform us that other parties will also soon come to this county from Oklahoma to locate.

A colony of 15 people arrived in Coos county from Oklahoma last Wednesday, and began prospecting at Myrtle Point. These people come to personally look for homes, and upon their favorable decision, we understand, others will act. Two of the party, C. A. Blackburn and Dave Bloesche, came to Coquille, and continued their trip to the lower river Friday to Bandon. Mr. Blackburn is a plasterer by trade, but is qualified to fill other positions. Extend a helping hand and encouragement to them.

Arrivals by the Homer, March 13, from Portland: C. A. Blackburn and wife, Mrs. Lou Marshall, Mrs. John Goul, Mrs. J. E. Dow, W. C. Milton, A. Kingston, G. W. Blake, Fannie Warner, Miss J. Jeffers, Mrs. M. Blake, C. O. Young, Mrs. Young, C. B. Young, C. E. Higley, M. Caldwell, Geo. Hitchcock, Geo. Folsom, Ella Folsom, Bert Folsom, Ernest Folsom, Fred Folsom, J. A. Devault, J. C. Devault, H. J. Devault, M. Carran, Martia Wallace, F. L. Niedhammer, Leata Parker, Miss Curtis, Miss McCoy. Steerage—D. J. Bloesche, P. Hagerlund.

Men's fine Gloves, and entirely new line of Tecks and Bows at Hawkins'.

Buy $7 worth of goods (flour and sugar excepted), and get free a fine prize at the Fair Sore.

Rev. R. Ennis, of Bandon, reports that Mrs. Ennis is very low with a second attack of grip.

It is claimed that eastern men are obtaining control of all the valuable timber lands in Oregon.

Our second-hand dealer, Bert Tuttle, buys old iron, copper, brass, rubber, etc., for which he will pay the highest cash price.

ED. HERALD: I wish to express my heartfelt thanks to my many friends for the kindness shown me during my late illness.

GRANDMA ROBINSON.

Nineteen school teachers are employed in LaGrande. The four male teachers are paid an average of $76 per month, but the female teachers get but $44.

J. H. Timon, the rustling Riverton coal operator, has opened mines on the bay, closer to larger shipping facilities, and moved over last week to develop his work there.

Alfred Johnson, one of Coos county's best and most promising young men, came over from the bay Friday and will take a clerical position in the sheriff's office. Mr. Johnson is a school teacher.

Myrtle Point Enterprise: Prof. M. O. Hawkins closed the winter term of private school at this place today. Prof. Hawkins is an able instructor and we have had a large and interesting school under his management.

A Vannoy has just returned from a month's visit in Josephine county. He reports a pleasant visit with relatives and friends, and that they have had a most delightful winter, with most promising outlook for fruit and cereal crops. Besides, the mining prospects are booming.

I now have on hand an immense stock of Dairy, Fruit and Stock farms; small places near town ranging from 5 to 40 acres, improved and unimproved. Vacant lots; fine assortment of improved homes in town, and all at prices as low, or lower than you can buy from owners.

R. D. SANFORD.

NEW FIRM.—W. Drane has associated with himself G. E. Spurbek, of Douglas county, in the blacksmithing and wagonmaking business, at the old stand. The latter comes highly recommended in all kinds of blacksmithing, manufacturing and repairing, with horseshoeing as a specialty. Drane & Spurbek solicit your work, guaranteeing satisfaction.

Mrs. J. F. Wilson, of Fishtrap, was in town last Friday to have the physician's attendance upon a little son who is crippled from some hip complaint. Mrs. Wilson is visited with sad afflictions of late. A few weeks ago her husband died; and last Tuesday she got word of the death of her son Walter, in California, at the age of about 17 years; now her baby boy is threatened with being a cripple for life, and she herself is close to motherhood again. We understand her neighbors are good and very kindly disposed, and it is to be hoped others will assist whenever they can.

Mrs. Ruth G. Sweet, the lady evangelist who has been spending several weeks at Christian effort in the North Fork neighborhood, came to this place last Friday. Her daughter, Miss Ruth, is with her as a helper. Mrs. S. attended the Epworth League meeting at the Southern Methodist church last Friday evening and spoke to the League, upon invitation. Saturday she attended the regular monthly covenant meeting of the Baptists at the Christiana church, and Sunday morning preached for Rev. Mr. Owen to a good and appreciative audience. The HERALD sanctum had the honor of a call from both Mrs. S. and daughter, whom we hope will protract their stay in our midst.

A pleasant wedding anniversary was celebrated in this city at the Tuttle House last Wednesday evening, at which Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Tuttle were the honored guests. It was the 20th anniversary, and besides a family reunion, there was a host of friends and neighbors present to pass a social evening and greet this clever, popular and most worthy couple. Social converse, whist and refreshments entertained, making the evening a most enjoyable one. In the whist game, Mr. C. Romander and sister, Miss Romander, took first prize, while Mrs. Al Balch and J. W. Leneve "won" the other. The HERALD greets Mr. and Mrs. Tuttle with sincere well wishes for many happy anniversary returns.

(Myrtle Point Enterprise). Assessor J. S. Lawrence was in town this week making the 1900 assessment.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cribbins, of the Middle Fork, died last Sunday. The remains were buried Monday, Rev. S. E. Decker conducting the funeral services.

Dr. S. L. Roberts has purchased the two lots adjoining J. A. Mickel's property on Spruce street of L. Gant and will soon begin the construction of a new business house to be used by him for a drug store.

Married—at Roseburg, March 7, 1900, Chas. Wharton and Miss Edna Hodson, Rev. J. A. Townsend, officiating. Miss Hodson formerly resided at this place and has many friends here who wish the young couple a prosperous and happy future.

John Giles Saturday received information from San Francisco parties that the schooner Mizpah had arrived at Amapella, Honduras, on February 8. She is now due at San Francisco on her return, and is expected to arrive in the river in time to sail for Cape Nome about April 15.

B. C. Lehmonowsky left by Wednesday's train for San Francisco, where he goes to purchase supplies and outfits for the party which is going to Cape Nome from this place on the schooner Mizpah next month. He will remain in the city until the Mizpah returns from her southern trip and is loaded.

D. Grant Beal, who has been in Alaska for the past year, was in town today on his return to Marshfield. Mr. Beal was at Lake Benneit last summer, but in the winter prospected in different localities on the sea coast, but found nothing worth returning for and expects to remain in Coos this summer.

Will Lundy yesterday received a package of cigars which had been sent him at Dawson for a Christmas present in 1898. They were mailed at this place by C. E. Huling in November, 1898, and according to the postmarks were in Dawson for about six months while Will was there, but were not delivered, and after being gone about 18 months were returned to this place.

One of those pleasant events that is calculated to make life's pathway easier, was perpetrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Greene, in this city, last Friday evening, the occasion being a party given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Hawkins and Miss Florence Robbins. The evening was pleasantly spent in parlor games and at a late hour a fine lunch was served, after which the guests departed for their several homes. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Steward, Misses Bertha Prey, Lulu Walker, Kate Braden, Bertha Braden, Annie Guerin, Nellie Dement, Eunice Dement, Winnie Dement, Mollie Caldwell, Laura Wise, Daisy Giles, Alta Dodge, Daisy Dodge, Kate Roberts, Mildred Cooper, Letta Cooper, Della Endicott, Bertha Barklow, Messrs L. A. Braden, C. E. Huling, Ray Dement, G. M. Short, W. C. Guerin, Chas. Guerin, George Steward, Dick Buell, J. C. Roberts.

J. W. Krewson and family, of Drain, will return soon to this place for permanent residence.

Ethan McDuffee and Noah Leneve have taken a contract to paint the courthouses roof, work on which will begin at once.

Prof. and Mrs. M. O. Hawkins have returned from Myrtle Point to their home at this place. Prof. H. closed a large and successful private school at Myrtle Point last Friday, which term began at the close of a very prosperous six-months' term of the public school.

Owing to work of alterations going on at the little church and not yet completed, Rev. R. Ennis, Presbyterian, will occupy the pulpit at the Southern Methodist church next Sunday, morning and evening. Rev. Mr. Fitch will be absent at an appointment elsewhere.

Road Supervisor Flanders has a heavy piece of work of road-repairing on hand. The locality is known as the "Pigg lane," on the Myrtle Point and Bandon road, all of which has to be planked, and in fact low-bridged, by driving piles and planking. He has finished about 120 feet, and has 200 feet yet of very heavy work to construct.

The hall given last Saturday night was a magnificent affair and a success in every way. The gallant Knights spared no pains or expense to make it an enjoyable occasion, hence the attendance was large and the pleasures of the evening our continuous record. A special train came in from the bay side, and steamers from both upper and lower river, bringing visiting Knights and friends.

MARRIED.—In Coquille City, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fry, March 7, 1900, by Rev. E. L. Fitch, New Hall of Marshfield, and Miss Dora Wasson, of Eckler.

BORN.—On Catching creek, March 10, 1900, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dye, a daughter.

PILES

"I suffered the torture of the damned with protruding piles brought on by constipation with which I was afflicted for twenty years. I ran across your CASCARETS in the town of Newell, Ia., and never found anything to equal them. To-day I am entirely free from piles and feel like a new man."

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good, Do Good, Never Sicken, Weaken, or Grip. CURE CONSTIPATION. No-TO-BAC Sold and guaranteed by all druggists to CURE TOBACCO HABIT.

"First Methodist Episcopal Church of Coquille City."

Such seems to be the title of the organization effected in this city through the ministerial work of Rev. C. M. Bryan, preacher in charge, and just completed.

The following is the list of officers and members of the new organization:

Trustees—Thomas Eckels, Thos. Krewson, Chas. H. Butler, A. P. Macy and Peter Nichols.

Stewards—Ida Macy, Mary Buskirk, Eva Butler and Myrtle Fox.

Leaders—Alva Westgate and Charles Self.

Chase, Norman Macy, Ella Wright, Maudie Wright, James Conger, Chas. A. Hanson.

Rev. C. M. Bryan, pastor.

The board of trustees has filed articles of incorporation and are about to secure lots for construction of a church building and parsonage.

A Large Furniture Factory

Is the next enterprise in order, and the HERALD greets it as one of the needed and promising profitable enterprises of this section. Our townsman, Thomas Krewson, and brother-in-law L. L. Lantz, of Drain, both practical wood workers, the latter an expert in cabinet work, have formed a co-partnership and secured engine, planer, shaper and other high-grade machinery for all-round wood work, which they will receive via Portland by the middle of April. They will for the present put up a building 34x50 feet with basement, to which they will add from time to time as business warrants, on Hall street, near his father's property. They will have a dry kiln large enough for their own use and for other contractors' and builders. They will also do wagon woodwork and undertaking—in fact run an extensive wood manufacturing establishment.

Death from Accidental Shooting.

Parker Doak, a younger brother and Warren Ballard, neighbor, and sons respectively of J. A. Doak and Robert W. Ballard of near Parkersburg, went out hunting on Four-mile Sunday morning.

As we understand it, Parker Doak was on one side of the creek and young Ballard on the other, when the latter's gun went off, the contents penetrating the head of Parker Doak, killing him instantly.

The boy who was killed was about 17 years old. The body reached home Sunday night about 12 o'clock.

The sad affair seems to have been purely an accident, as the boys were war-n friends. Mr. Doak, the father, we learn, was up at Myrtle Point and hard to reach within a reasonable time. This is one of the saddest events which has occurred in this valley, and brings a gloom and heart-aches to two families and a wide circle of friends.

An inquest was to be held, but the facts will be too late for this issue.

Presbyterian Conference.

Ministerial and other official delegates of the Presbyterian churches of Coos and Curry counties held a conference in this city yesterday at the parlors of the Tuttle Hotel.

Rev. Dr. Holt, synodical missionary, failed to reach, owing to the condition of the road between Roseburg and Myrtle Point.

There were present, Rev. Gillespie, of Marshfield, Rev. Foster, of Myrtle Point, and Rev. Ennis, of Bandon; also Elders Cooper and Adams, of Myrtle Point, James Byers, of Willowdale, W. S. Perry, of Coquille City, and Mrs. Isabella Yager, of Bandon.

Several questions came up, the most important being a suggested regrouping of the churches for ministerial work, but the proposition was rejected and the work left as it has existed for some time past, except that Rev. Foster will divide time with Willowdale and Myrtle Point. Curry county, too, was left as an independent field, with headquarters at Port Orford.

It is understood, too, that Rev. George Gillespie has resigned the charge at Marshfield, and will take the Curry county work.

Albany Democrat: J. G. Hoberg, a former Albany man, is now a resident of Baker City, where he has been prospecting. He is interested in some mines, for which $10,000 was recently refused.

[The Mr. Hoberg named above is a brother of our Rev. and besides is a very proper person to strike prosperity, and we hope it is all true, and more, if possible.—ED. HERALD.]

J. W. Sugg struck Coquille City 19 years ago yesterday. The old baseball field included the block now occupied by Grampls and Henry Collier, T. A. Walker, D. F. Dean and Capt. Daubman, and there were no residences across Second street; the schoolhouse was where Messer's stable is now, and where preaching services were held. A dense timber covered all beyond.
