Salem Statesman: Hon. John H. Mitchell is out in a long letter, in Sunday's Oregonian, in which he replies to the speech of Senator Simon in the upper house of congress, going over the whole history of the hold-up legislature of 1897.

Gov. T. T. Geer has received a draft for $27,806.85 from the war department, in payment of the claim of the state of Oregon against the federal government, for clothing, supplies and equipments furnished the Second Oregon volunteers, when that regiment was mustered into service and ordered to Manila.

The South African War—Free States Have Not Collapsed.

London, March 20.—The war office has had no news up to this hour, confirming the report of the relief of Mafeking, but George Wyndham, the parliamentary under secretary for war, replying to a private inquiry in the lobby of the house of commons about midnight, smilingly said:

"I think it is all right." The Free States seemingly have not quite collapsed. They are in considerable force around Smithfield, though much dispirited. Koonstadt, where the Boers are concentrating, is thirty miles from Bloemfontein. It is surrounded by a country of hills and jungles.

Manila Bay Hero Commits Suicide.

Charles Eggert, boatswain's mate on the U. S. cruiser Baltimore, blew his brains out with a pistol shot in his room at the Stanley House, 110 Sixteenth street, yesterday afternoon.

Eggert had been without money for some time and was very despondent. Early yesterday afternoon he sent Ray Edwards, a shipmate, down town to sell a vase. Edwards succeeded in obtaining only seventy-five cents, which he gave to Eggert on his return. The sailor seemed greatly disappointed and remarked that he guessed "it was all up." After Edwards left the room he shot himself.

Eggert carried a medal for valiant service in the battle of Manila bay and was a member of the Regular Army and Navy Union.—Examiner.

Against Loans of Brains

Columbus, Ohio, Feb. 27.—Senator Harbaugh is a preacher when at home. He is opposed to the bureau that furnish essays, compositions, sermons, etc., and especially those that supply the required essays and speeches in institutions of learning. He introduced a bill today to make it warm for any person or concern that sells or offers to furnish any such productions to students and pupils. It provides a penalty of from $25 to $50 fine for the first offense and $50 to $100 for the second.

A Confession of the Goebel Assassination.

Frankfort, Ky., March 19.—The news of the alleged confession of F. W. Golden, of Barbourville, in regard to the assassination of Wm. Goebel, produced a sensation here today. Golden was formerly guard at the penitentiary here, under the Republican administration, and is well known. It developed that the police and detectives have been watching his movements since the day of the assassination, on the theory that he knew something about it.

What One Woman Thinks.

Women are born hero-worshippers. The sn all boy does not believe in immolation. The man who saved a pile of money shows a heap of cents. A widow's grief cannot always be measured by its sighs. The cashier is not an object for pity because he spends his life in payin'.

You hear a great deal about lovely old ladies, but no one seems to have anything to say about beautiful old men. The difference between a woman and a chicken is this—a woman is well-dressed when she has her finest feathers on; a well-dressed chicken has all its finest feathers off. The newly-married couple have settled down to married life when the wife no longer objects to her husband reading the newspaper at the breakfast table.

Anti-Trust Law of Texas Is Valid.

Washington, March 19.—The supreme court of the United States today rendered an opinion in the case of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company against the state of Texas, affirming the decision of the court of civil appeals, of Texas. The case involved the constitutionality of the anti-trust law of Texas, which was sustained by today's opinion.

It was charged among other things that the Waters-Pierce Company was a member of the Standard Oil trust, as organized in 1887, and various other allegations were made, but the court did not enter upon a general discussion of trusts, contenting itself with the discussion of the Texas law as applicable to this case. The suit grew out of the charge that the oil company violated the statutes of the state, of 1889 and 1895, against illegal combinations in restraint of trade, thereby incurring a forfeiture of its permit to do business in the state. In rendering the decision Justice McKenna said:

"The statute of 1889 was a condition, upon the plaintiff in error, within the power of the state to impose and whatever its limitations were upon the power of contracting, whatever its discriminations were, they became conditions of the permit, and were accepted with it."

A. H. McCarty was in town the past week in the interest of the parties who are to put in the electric light plant at Coquille. They propose, if a sufficient number of lights will be taken here, to extend their wires from Coquille for lighting this place. The proposition of lighting the city in this manner was brought before the city council at a special meeting Monday night and was taken under advisement until their next regular meeting, April 2d.

S. C. Giles is in receipt of a letter from Wm. Page written aboard the schooner Mizpah, Amapala, Honduras, dated Feb. 10. Mr. Page reports low winds and a very slow trip south, being out 47 days from San Francisco. The letter stated that they would be out of that port in a few days and expect to make a quick trip back. The schooner is now due in San Francisco and will probably arrive there in a few days.

S. S. Everson's Private Opinion.

ED. HERALD: By the way, some people talk and some editors write, it would appear, as if they thought the United States was some tight little island like England, where opportunities for development and domestic expansion are exhausted, and which per force must find additional territory to accommodate the overflow of a superabundant population. Such people would do well to take a trip down south, or "out west," and expand their ideas a little. They would there find that there is still room within the United States to carve out an empire, with vast natural resources and limitless opportunities for development. England being so small is compelled to expand externally; but the United States will do better to expand internally by the development of its own resources. It is estimated by good authority that the war for the conquest of the Philippine islands has cost the United States up to January 1st about $300,000,000; while to complete the conquest will require an expenditure of about $200,000,000 more—making $500,000,000 in all.

If, instead of expending this vast sum in the stupid blunder of a war for the conquest of something which will never be a dollar's worth of value to the American people as a whole, this money had been spent in building irrigation systems in the west, as suggested in a recent issue of your paper, and as demanded by the people, it would have been expansion worth while. Or if it had been spent in constructing good roads throughout the nation, such expansion would have been in the end worth billions of dollars to our own people. Such a vast sum would have gone far towards making good roads throughout the nation, and would at least have made good post roads, or a good rural mail delivery system. Such expansion would also have employed a vast army of men in a much more useful and noble occupation than killing off a people struggling as our forefathers did for their liberties.

It would also have tended to relieve the pressure upon the labor market, put a lot of money in circulation in the United States that is now sent to subsidize the Filipinos. Sixty thousand men were sent to the Philippines who would have been at home consuming our own products instead of those furnished by Great Britain and other countries, and to that extent manufactures and commerce would be increased and employment given to more people.

I believe in the expansion of the quantity of money in circulation to keep pace with our expanding industries and commerce, so that growth and progress shall not be impeded. These kinds of expansion would have brought expansion of real enduring prosperity, which in turn would have brought additional comfort and happiness to scores of millions of plain, honest working people and the world at large, and would have pleased everybody except a lot of greedy fixed-income favorites and military satraps seeking jobs and plotting to kill and rob for their kind of glory.

S. S. EVERSON.

Marshfield Sun: We have it from good authority that the timber rangers in Coos county are here in the interest of the Northern Pacific railroad company. This company has located in the past year over 40,000 acres of land in Douglas and Lane counties, and has filed 50 contests against timber applications in the latter county. Over 600 applications for land patents have been filed in the U. S. land office in Roseburg since January 1st, so if any in Coos county is desirous of locating on vacant land now is the time to act before it is too late.

In the various public institutions of the District of Columbia, 2600 colored people are employed, who draw an annual compensation of about $1,000,000.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble. Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries. It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble. If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail Home of Swamp-Root, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. HYSTERIA is purely a nervous disorder and all the symptoms are of nervous origin. Many women afflicted with hysteria continue to suffer because they think that there is no cure for them.

HERE ARE YOUR SYMPTOMS:

1. FLUTTERING OF THE EYELIDS AND TINGLING SENSATION ABOUT THE EYES. Hysteria will relieve this almost immediately.

2. TREMBLING OF THE LIPS.—This is due to the affection of the facial nerves. Hysteria will restore the nerves to healthy condition, and the trembling will disappear.

3. LUMP IN THE THROAT.—This symptom usually precedes a crying spell. The lump in the throat is a nervous symptom which Hysteria will cause to disappear.

4. PALPITATION OF THE HEART.—The heart becomes weakened as the nerves are and beats irregularly and weakly. Hysteria will strengthen the heart muscle and cause the beats to become strong and regular.

5. SINKING FEELING IN THE PIT OF THE STOMACH.—This occurs often and is very annoying. It is due to the action of the weakened nerves of the stomach. Hysteria will strengthen the nerves, and the sinking feeling will not recur.

Women, this is for you. Remember that Hysteria cures men and women. It will relieve you of all the above symptoms and you can be cured. Doctors have afforded you some relief, but they have not cured. Take Hysteria. You can get Hysteria of your druggist for 25c per package, or 5 packages for $1.00. If your druggist does not keep it, send direct to the Hysteria Remedy Company, 2100 Market Street, San Francisco or Los Angeles, California. A Word to Populists—Let the Convention Represent the People.

MR. EDITOR: For some time past it has been plainly observable, by one who is often on the ground, that some of our public servants have been paying more attention to planning how they may subvert the will of the people and perpetuate themselves or friends in office, than they have to looking out for the interests of their constituents. Any one must have realized this who was an unbiased observer at the Populist primary on Saturday last, to see how well they had some of the boys drilled who attend their "kindergarten" down on the street, where soft things are molded like dough to help carry out their plans, and peacocks and only soft drinks are dispensed to tickle the fancies and appetites of those dear children, who would otherwise go to the Devil if they were not worked into something valuable in this way.

While at the primary the ostensible main issue that was discussed was, "Fusion, or no fusion." Or to put it plain, shall we stand in and give away to our enemies part of the nominations with the hope that they will give us their votes on election day to perpetuate those in office who think they have a life-lease on the offices and control the people and make them servants to the ones who have held the public tent so long that they hate to let go.

Again, it was argued at the primary that if we don't stand in with the Democrats, whose wire workers are always willing to stand in with any party who will give them a share of the spoils when they are not strong enough to take them by force of votes alone, who in the latter case laugh us to scorn and say the Republicans may elect their men.

Those who would give away principle for selfish purposes, with the hopes of perpetuating themselves or some of their friends in office when they can exchange deputyship and clerkship around between them, to the end that all may be accommodated in one way or another, ought to realize that while they may scheme themselves or friends into nominations, yet they will not be able to control the voters on election day, and if they had heads on them as long as horses, ought to see that it would be much better to step down and out gracefully and preserve what reputation they have enjoyed heretofore, rather than be voted out as schemers and wily politicians, as well as hated by the Democrats who now profess to so DEARLY LOVE THEM.

In conclusion, let the straight Populists put up none but the very best men, and those who are not scheming for office, and all good men in all parties will give them support on election day. And if the Republicans or Democrats can put up a better one, and elect him, we are not harmed.

No Fusion.

He would not, with peremptory tone, assert the nose upon his face his own.—Copper.

We do not correct the man we hang; we correct others by him.—Montague.

Second Time on Earth

No Bolls Nor Carbuncles Now—A Good Blood Medicino.

"I became convinced of the merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla when I took it myself as a blood purifier. So, when my husband had boils and carbuncles I urged him to take Hood's and the result was that when he had used but one bottle the boils had nearly all disappeared. He continued the use of the medicine and after taking two bottles he was completely cured, and, as he expressed it, felt as if he was on earth for the second time. He has never had any boils since. We take Hood's as a spring medicine and gladly recommend it." Mrs. A. E. STAYSA, Yonkers, N. Y.

Scrofula from Birth.

"I have found Hood's to be the greatest blood purifier I ever took, and I have tried many medicines. I was a sufferer with scrofula from birth. My eyes were so badly affected I would be almost blind for a week at a time. My neck began to swell so that I could not breathe freely. Medicines failed to do me any good until I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. Today I have excellent health and my eyes give me very little trouble. I owe it all to Hood's, which I recommend to all suffering from any disease of the blood." Miss KETTIE McCURTRE, Silver Creek, Ky.

That Tired Feeling.

"I cannot say too much for Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for that tired and worn out feeling one has in the spring. As a strength builder and appetite creator it has no equal." Mrs. L. B. WOODARD, 285 Ballou Street, Woonsocket, R. I.
