R. D. SANFORD, Attorney Minot, of Marshfield, was in this city last Wednesday on legal business. We hear it stated that Mr. M. isn't as much of a Populist as he thought he was; his fervor for the cause of reform didn't last him from one election to another, and he has gone back to the old love. That's right; be one thing or another.

An accident happened at Lyons' mill near noon yesterday, at which the saw was broken into many pieces—how many is not known. Pieces of the saw scattered everywhere, but luckily hit no person. The damage occurred while the saw was turning at a high speed, the large log settling slightly, thus warping and crushing the saw and causing the pieces of all sizes to fly in all directions.

There will be no "fusion" of the Populists of Coos county with any other party on county affairs. Any effort of parties to force a third or fourth successive nomination for office is anti-populist—the county convention will give us a new and clean ticket, and it will be elected; or if it should sway from its path of duty and principle, and disobey the instructions of the people at their primaries, it will go into "noctuous desuetude" with the author of the expression, Grover the Left.

The G. O. P. primaries at Marshfield last Wednesday were lively and partook of the nature of old methods as practiced in the east these many years. The Coast Mail took sides with the bosses in North Marshfield, and with W. U. Douglas, "a rising young lawyer and Republican," against "the would-be bosses" in South Marshfield. The other fellows, the "would-be bosses," it dubs "the gang, aided by the transient turn-of-minds and tramps." The argument at the North Marshfield meeting was, "that the common voters had become accustomed to have their tickets made out for them, and to vote them straight according to orders." We don't know who was the author of that traim concerning the voters of that party, but he knew what he was talking about.

Populist Primary for Coquille Precinct.

The Populist primary convention assembled at Band Hall last Saturday afternoon. In the absence of Committee-man J. P. Goodman to call the convention to order, D. F. Dean rapped and called time for business. On motion, J. J. Stanley was elected chairman and Geo. O. Leach secretary.

The chair stated the object of the meeting to be the election of 11 delegates to the Populist county convention to meet in Coquille City Wednesday, March 28th.

D. F. Dean stated the additional action of the convention as suggested at the late county central committee meeting on the question of straight party action, or fusion or union with the Democrats or any other party.

A resolution, as follows, was offered: Resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting that we do not fuse as Populists with any party.

A motion and second to adopt was made, and after a pretty free and earnest discussion for the resolution by R. D. Sanford, J. C. Wilson, Joel Patterson, T. A. Walker, Sol Spurgeon, D. F. Dean, J. S. McEwen and J. B. Fox against fusion, and C. A. Gage, Sheriff Gage, J. C. Laird and one or two others for fusion, a standing vote was taken and the resolution against fusion carried. On motion, which carried, providing for ballot for choice of 11 delegates to county convention, those having a majority of all the votes cast to be declared elected, the chair appointed C. A. Gage and D. F. Dean as tellers, the ballot resulting in the election of the following 8 delegates: J. W. Sogg, Jake Foote, Wm. Benham, M. H. Hersey, R. D. Sanford, C. A. Harrington, J. S. McEwen, Joel Patterson.

On motion a second ballot was taken on five who had tied, to add three more to the delegation. The following names were balloted on: J. P. Goodman, G. O. Leach, T. A. Walker, Charles Collier and W. Draue—and resulted in the election of J. P. Goodman, Charles Collier and W. Draue, who were duly declared the choice of the convention.

On motion, the convention adjourned.

At the Dora Populist precinct convention last Saturday G. G. Swan and Leland Minard were elected delegates to the county convention, and decided instructions given against fusion.

That Accidental Shooting.

The accidental killing of Parker Doak, of Bear creek, near Parkersburg, on the morning of the 18th inst., while out deer hunting, was not exactly in detail as we gave it last week, though the main facts were given. The parties out hunting for deer were Parker Doak, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Doak, aged 17 years, John Long (not young Doak's brother), son of Chris Long, about 17 years old, and Warren Bullard, son of R. W. Bullard and about the same age. The shot from young Bullard's gun passed through Doak's body, and his death was instant. Justice Barrows, of Bandon, Monday morning, held an inquest at the residence of Frank Flam, to which place the body was taken by a posse of about 20 persons who went out for it.

THE VERDICT. We, the undersigned, sworn jurors, do find that the deceased, Parker Doak, came to his death from the accidental shot of a gun, on March 18, 1900, in the hands of Warren Bullard, supposing him to be a deer:
