LOCAL ITEMS.

Additional locals on 2d page. The Herald is prepared to do job printing in the best style.

Candidates should not fail to file their acceptances of nomination with the county clerk.

The Berlin Store is offering $100 premiums to its customers.

Comrade Elliott is better and worse by spells as the weather changes. He is still dangerously sick.

Comrade W. Drane has had a relapse of his late attack of grip, and now has pneumonia and is very sick.

Miss Frankie Owen, of Lampey creek, has spent several days in Coquille visiting. She came up with her father, Rev. T. J. Owen.

J. W. Lueve has the agency for the Cleveland Oil & Paint Co. for this place, and he has a nice line of Paints and Oils. Get his prices. They are right.

Mrs. John Jenkins, Ethan McDuffie, John Fouts and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nosler were admitted to membership in the Christian church last Sunday night.

We have on hand the World Almanac and Encyclopedia for 1900. It should be in every family for the immense amount of information it contains. Only 25 cents.

WANTED—SEVERAL PERSONS FOR District Office Managers in this state to represent me in their own and surrounding counties. Willing to pay yearly $500, payable weekly. Desirable employment with usual opportunities. References exchanged. Enclose self-addressed stamped envelope. S. A. Park, 320 Caxton Building, Chicago.

Comrade G. W. Steele, who had thought of leaving us and moving to Idaho, has changed his mind, bought property in the Spurgeon addition and will abide with us.

Comrade R. F. Shannon, of Bandon, was a delegate to the Republican county convention last week. Comrade Shannon is a veteran from the 35th Pa. infantry of the civil war.

Comrade O. F. Topping was up from Bandon during part of last week. We had not greeted the old vet for a long while. His service in the civil war was in the 8th Ill. cavalry.

Citizens should not fail to register at once. They might want to vote for some candidate or on some one of the constitutional amendments, but for this neglect of registration, disfranchise themselves.

Capt. H. W. Dunham, Populist candidate for sheriff, was up from Bandon a brief visit with his family Sunday and yesterday. Mr. D. was congratulated by many friends, regardless of party lines, and received such assurances as make him very hopeful of success.

5000 Ladies Wanted

At Geo. A. Robinson's Store to purchase those new Dummies, Organ-dies, Lotus Lawns, Warp Welts, Neptune Ducks, Chambrays, Coverts, India Linons, Crashes, Linette Francaise, Silks, Laces, Nettings, All-Over Embroideries, and White Goods of all kinds, etc., etc., just received.

J. H. Matheny, of Myrtle Point, was down at this place yesterday. Mr. M. is the Populist candidate for county commissioner, and besides being personally popular, is qualified, honest, and knows the wants of the people and how to meet them. He will affiliate with no ring and recognize no boss or over-seer. He's just the man for the place.

The Bulletin of this city last Friday changed hands, the late "editor and prop.," B. F. Lawrence, disposing of his interest to our young fellow-citizen and friend, E. E. Johnson, son of Alfred Johnson, proprietor of the large mill above town. Mr. J. is a young man of promise and ability, and of whom we have thought well since our acquaintance, but without experience in the journalistic field; yet with honesty of purpose to honor his calling, and standing aloof from evil influences and forces to prevent his energies, he can succeed and be a power for good. The Herald greets him.

W. R. Darty runs the "lighting express" among the hauling fraternity, and will serve the public promptly and carefully in all business entrusted to him.

Rev. T. J. Owen, Baptist minister, was present to fill his appointment in this city last Sunday, and occupied the pulpit at the Southern Methodist church at night.

FOR SALE—320 acres of good range for stock. 15 acres cleared and good 5 roomed house thereon; spring water. Rare chance. Call at HERALD office for information.

Geo. A. Robinson has just received a large and splendid new stock of goods, and solicits the patronage of the HERALD's readers. Just see some of his prices in today's paper.

The Mast boys—Jim and Will—and Dan Lewis, of the North Fork, utilized the rise in the river the past week and floated a large number of fine logs down to the mills in this section.

Our young friend, Sam Nosler, who is dairy ranching on the Paxson place, north of town, lost two cows within the past few days, one from poison weed and one from getting fast under a log.

TO THE DEAF—A rich lady, cured of her Deafness and Noise in the Head by Dr. Nicholson's Artificial Ear Drums, gave $10,000 to his Institute, so that deaf people unable to procure the Ear Drums may have them free. Address, No. 877, The Nicholson Institute, 789, Eighth Avenue, New York. [See ad]

Louis Heller has been down for several days from the North Fork, representing Heller & Marine and Tom Johnson in receiving logs from their logging camps, which were disposed of to Lyons. They had about 360 logs.

FOR SALE—In Bandon, one of the choicest locations, a pleasant home, new, unique in style, and with a splendid view of the town and ocean. Sheltered from the north winds. For particulars, apply at the HERALD.

Miss Pearl Fetter, teacher, yesterday gave her school temporarily in charge of our young friend Oliver Wilson, while she treats herself for an attack of grip. She is better, and hopes to resume her duties in the schoolroom in a short while.

George Martin came down from the North Fork last Saturday to see his widow and the children. His daughter Lillian had met with an accident on the 18th ult. She was on horseback going up Cunningham, and was thrown from her horse, which stepped on her, hurting her right knee.

I now have on hand an immense stock of Dairy, Fruit and Stock farms; small places near town ranging from 5 to 40 acres, improved, and unimproved. Vacant lots; fine assortment of improved homes in town, and all at prices as low, or lower than you can buy from owners. R. D. SANFORD.

In almost every neighborhood there is some one whose life has been saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or who has been cured of chronic diarrhoea by the use of that medicine. Such persons make a point of telling of their experience, and standing aloof from evil influences and forces to prevent his energies, he can succeed and be a power for good. The Herald greets him.

COOS BAY NEWS. S. H. Hazard contemplates becoming a resident of Marshfield in the near future.

S. H. Davis met with an accident at John Yoskam's camp, on the isthmus, yesterday, his arm being badly bruised.

The steam schooner Rival, which arrived Saturday, is loading at the railroad depot with lumber from Johnson's mill.

The steamer Del Norte reported 26 feet of water on the bar when she crossed in Friday evening, and the steamer Rival, which crossed in at half tide Saturday reports 24 feet the shoalest water found.

J. H. Timon, who is opening a mine on the isthmus, close to Marshfield, was in town Saturday evening. We are pleased to learn from him that he has tunneled through the slide or "horse" and struck the coal in solid form. He is more than pleased with the present prospects (the vein being five feet of good hard coal with a moderate pitch) and anticipates big returns.

Next in order came a hearing of the committee in reference to the building of a Baptist church. The committee reported progress, some money paid in and a location considered. As other locations were mentioned, the committee was instructed to examine the other lots offered for sale and report at the next meeting.

Jonathan Quick, chairman of the committee, will receive contributions for the church building at any time.

Owing to the age and infirmities of Deacon Hayter, Jonathan Quick and B. R. Myatt were appointed deacons to assist in the line of duty in that office.

[Myrtle Point Enterprise.] H. Hartley, of the South Fork, has bought the share in the schooner Mizpah belonging to Esau Prewett and advertised for sale, and will join the party going to Cape Nome on the schooner.

Wm. Hunt, the Coquille photographer, has purchased a lot near the M. E. Church, South, and will soon begin the construction of a residence thereon and will again become a resident of our town.

Ben Harrison, accompanied by F. J. Lorenz, of Weaver, Cal., went up to the Harrison mine Tuesday. Mr. Lorenz is a mining man of considerable experience and will investigate the mines in the Sixes county.

Miss Florence Smith of Marshfield has been engaged as principal of the spring school at this place, while Miss Nellie Dement has been awarded the intermediate department and Miss Josie Beyers of Summer the primary. School will begin April 16th.

Carpenters have been busy the past two weeks remodeling the Sugar Loaf creamery, getting it in order for the season's run. An addition of 24x30 feet has been put onto the old building which adds materially to the convenience of the creamery. W. H. Erdie, the manager, informs us that new machinery has been ordered and will be in place by April 15th, when he will begin operations.

The Best in the World. We believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best in the world. A few weeks ago we suffered with a severe cold and a troublesome cough, and having read their advertisements in our own and other papers we purchased a bottle to see if it would effect us. It cured us before the bottle was more than half used. It is the best medicine out for colds and coughs.—The Herald, Andersonville, Ind. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

WILL ARRIVE—THIS WEEK! The complete line of Spring and Summer Goods yet presented to the people of this valley—at Hawkins' Store.

Shirt Waists, Skirts, Collars, Ties, Braids, etc., for the ladies. Furnishing goods complete, for gentlemen.

To Sell or Exchange for Property in Coos county.

Miss Sara Lee, of Riverton, who has been visiting at Forbestown, Cal., since September, arrived at the bay yesterday on the Arcata, reaching this place this morning by the train, and in company of her father who received her at the bay, continuing homeward per steamer Dispatch. She spent the fall and winter with her sister and brother-in-law, Dr. F. G. Kelly, former residents in this county, and who visit their relatives living at Riverton this summer. She is accompanied by Master Lloyd Kelly, the doctor's youngest son.

Exchange: A railroad project, which means much for the northwest coast section of California, was incorporated at Reno, Nevada, last month, and the fact has just been made public. February 5th last there was incorporated at Reno the California and Northern Railway Company, which is to build a broad-gauge line ninety miles in length from Eureka in Humboldt county to Crescent City in Del Norte county. The capital stock is $2,500,000. In the event of the completion of this road, it will evidently be but a short period of time until it will be extended north along the coast from Crescent City to connect with the Coos Bay-Roseburg line; and, possibly, still further north, to Astoria.

Eureka Harness Oil is the best preservative of new leather and the best renovator of old leather. It oils, softens, blackens and protects. Use.

THE BAPTIST BROTHERS. A special business meeting of the First Baptist church of Coquille City was called last Saturday, and met at the Christian church in the afternoon. The first order of business considered was hearing a trial sermon by William H. Nosler, with a view to granting him a license to preach. Mr. Nosler spoke for half an hour from 2d Timothy, 3, 16, upon which he gave a plain and acceptable explanation of the scripture text. Rev. Owen responded with the charge and plainly and forcibly outlined the position of both candidate and church. A license was granted to Mr. Nosler.

Next in order came a hearing of the committee in reference to the building of a Baptist church. The committee reported progress, some money paid in and a location considered. As other locations were mentioned, the committee was instructed to examine the other lots offered for sale and report at the next meeting.

Jonathan Quick, chairman of the committee, will receive contributions for the church building at any time.

CONSTITIATION. "I have gone 14 days at a time without a movement of the bowels, not being able to move them except by using hot water injections. Chronic constipation for several years placed me in this terrible condition; during that time I did everything I heard of but never found any relief, and was in my case until I began using CASCARETS. I now have from one to three passages a day, and if I wish I would give $100.00 for each movement; it is such a relief." ATHERL L. BENT, 100 Russell St., Detroit, Mich.

Democrat County Convention. The Democrats of Coos county held their nominating convention in this city last Wednesday, at Masonic hall, with a good representation, J. J. Lamb, chairman of county committee, calling the same to order at 11 a. m. A. J. Sherwood and J. T. Hall were chosen secretaries. During the action of a committee on credentials, a committee of conference was also appointed, consisting of S. H. Hazard, D. J. Lowe and A. J. Sherwood, to bear the compliments of the convention to the Populists and solicit favorable action from the latter for uniting the parties in the coming campaign as at the last. A recess was taken to give the committees time to report.

AFTERNOON SESSION. On reassembling the reports of the two committees were made, on motion received and the committee discharged.

A committee from the Populist convention reported the action of the latter as against union, or fusion, and retired.

The convention then proceeded to make nominations, with this result: Joint Senator—Dr. K. A. Leep, of Myrtle Point.

Representative—J. W. Mast, of Lee. County Commissioner—B. C. Shull, of Myrtle Point.
