Table with 2 columns: Leave and Arrive. Rows include Marshfield, Beaver Hill Junction, Coquille City, and Myrtle Point.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Additional locals on 24 page. House for rent—apply at this office. See Mrs. Moon's new card of millinery goods arrived.

Mrs. Wilkins is baking and selling bread, to be held at Rich's. Large stock of celebrated A. L. Bryan Shoes just received at Hawkins'.

Mrs. Moon wishes those knowing themselves indebted to her to call and settle. She needs the money just now. George Craig, a new-comer from California, lives in the north part of town temporarily and is looking for a ranch to rent.

Hawkins has placed a handsome new showcase in his store, partly finished in myrtle, the handiwork of Comrade G. W. Steele. The steamer Barbara Heister arrived at our wharf from San Francisco yesterday. She used to run to this part, several years ago.

J. T. Nosler has posters out announcing sale of his household goods at public auction, on Front street, next Saturday, at 1 o'clock p. m. Pinkston Laird went over to the bay Friday to take a steamer for Portland. None is his objective point. Chas. Schroeder will go with him.

Geo. Strang, who is in California with his mother Mrs. R. M. Strang, and other members of the family, is in broken health and very ill. He is 18 years old. W. R. Darby runs the "lightning express" among the hauling fraternity, and will serve the public promptly and carefully in all business entrusted to him.

Mrs. Dr. Moore will leave with her little folks next week to visit her parents and friends at Woodburn and other points in Marion and adjoining counties. She will visit several weeks. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Krewson, of Drain, Oregon, father and mother of our Thos. Krewson, who invested in property here some months ago, are on their way to this place for future residence and may be looked for today.

Mrs. Wm. Mansell and little daughter, W. Rich and daughter, Miss Belle, and Stewart Lyon, reached home from the city last Sunday. They came up on the steamer Arcata, arriving on the bay Sunday morning. The Tuttle Temperance House ad. appears in today's HERALD. This place for boarding and lodging, convenient to cars and steamers, and desirable for comfort and pleasantness, is first class. Its patrons will speak its praises.

Mrs. S. P. C. Johnson masted a finger on her left hand last Sunday, crushing it painfully and tearing the nail from its roots. It happened while she was on a spring rocker, her hand hanging down by the side swung too close and the finger was caught between the rocker and pedestal. I consider it not only a pleasure but a duty I owe to my neighbors to tell about the wonderful cure effected in my case by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I was taken very badly with flux and procured a bottle of this remedy. A few doses of it effected a permanent cure. I take pleasure in recommending it to others suffering from that dreadful disease.—J. W. LYSON, Dorr, W. Va. This remedy is sold by R. S. Knowlton. Prof. C. A. Sayre, our optician, who is employed in San Francisco, shipped a trio of the celebrated Belgian rabbits to his son, Clarence, which were received in good shape yesterday. Clarence is conducting the 10-acre ranch near Safford's, west side of the Cunningham creek bottom from this place, and will there try the pioneer rabbitry in Coos county. Their breeding is a fad in California especially, and the stock has to be "blue blooded" if marketable at all. These are assured to be of the best pedigree, coming from a first-class establishment in San Francisco.

Nails $475 per keg at the Fair Store. Simonds' Saws $1 per foot at the Fair Store. May term of circuit court will begin next Monday.

LADIES—Mrs. F. A. White will weave switches for you, if you desire. S. M. Davis, of Coos river, was a passenger to the bay on last Friday's train.

There seems to be no mention of an observance of Memorial Day at this place. Tommy Mehl carries the rail daily between here and Empire City and return.

Miss McGraw commenced a three months' term of school at Eckley on Monday, 23d inst.

FOR SALE—A team, well broke, 4-year old colts. Will weigh 1000 pounds. Good travelers. At Arago. Ed ROBISON.

Don't fail to register, or be denied a vote at this election and that for the president next November. Only to the 15th of May yet, to register.

FOR SALE—Several head of good dairy cows, all of which will soon be fresh. Inquire of A. Anderson, at his farm at foothills opposite Johnson's mill.

Don't forget the Famine Relief entertainment next Saturday night. A good program will be given. Admission—15 and 25 cents; reserved seats, 50 cents.

R. H. Ross, of Bandon, came up last Friday on a visit. He mounted a cayuse at this place and took the road for some duty in the timber section on the North Fork.

TO THE DEAF—A rich lady, cured of her Deafness and Noise in the Head by Dr. Nicholson's Artificial Ear Drums, gave $100.00 to his Institute, so that deaf people unable to procure the Ear Drums may have them free. Address, No. 8877, The Nicholson Institute, 750, Eighth Avenue, New York. (dec 0)

Grandma Robison, living with her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Averill, at Brownsville, was better and recovering when last heard from. Her son, Rock Robison, went out to visit her last week.

FOR SALE—Two good Horses, true to pull. Weigh about 950 lb each; 8 years old. Also a set of harness, nearly new. Call on or address, JONATHAN QUICK, Coquille City, Or.

Macy & Moore are doing more than improving the residence property adjacent to the Pharmacy building—they are putting up another store, to front on Taylor street, and will make a warehouse out of the old building in the rear. Prosperity is on.

The Woodmen gave a farewell reception at their hall last Wednesday evening in honor of Bert Tuttle, Charley Schroeder and another or two of its members, who are about to depart for other fields of employment. A splendid social time was had and a superb service of refreshments for the large crowd in attendance.

Willard Wright, well remembered by the earlier settlers of this valley, and son of Wm. Wright the pioneer surveyor of this county, spent several days in this vicinity lately, taking Friday's train for Marshfield. He will go up the coast route to reach the railroad for his home at Grants Pass, where he conducts an assay office as a business.

5000 Ladies Wanted At Geo. A. Robinson's Store to purchase those new Dainties, Ornaments, Lotus Lawns, Warp Welts, Neptune Ducks, Chambrays, Coverts, India Linens, Crashes, Linette Frenchese, Silks, Laces, Nettings, All-Over Embroideries, and White Goods of all kinds, etc., etc., just received.

A fire at Empire City last Friday night totally destroyed the house occupied by Capt. Peterson of the life-saving station on Coos bay. We have learned but little of the particulars. The property belonged to our townsman, J. J. Lamb, and was worth at the present valuation of property at Empire at this time, about $500. There was no insurance. We did not learn the cause of the fire, nor what loss was suffered by Capt. Peterson and family.

Mrs. B. E. Lyster, of Gardiner, Oregon, visited in Coquille City for several days lately. The lady is the daughter of Rev. Mr. Wells, a Baptist minister who died and was buried at this place a few years ago, and the wife of Mr. Lyster who is closing the estate of the late Senator Al Reed, of Gardiner. Mrs. Lyster came to see to the care of her father's grave, and met several kind friends among our people.

Lazy Liver

"I have been troubled a great deal with a torpid liver, which produces constipation. I found CASCARETS to be all you claim for them, and secured such relief the first trial that I purchased another supply and was completely cured. I shall only be too glad to recommend CASCARETS whenever the opportunity is presented." J. A. SMITH, 2009 Susquehanna Ave., Philadelphia, Pa.

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good, Do Good. Never Sicken, Weakens, or Grievs. 25c. Do. CURE CONSTIPATION. Sells Everywhere. No-To-Bac Sold and guaranteed by all drug stores to CURE Tobacco Habit.

WANTED—A lot of choice Myrtle lumber. Enquire for particulars of MACY & MOORE.

Fine home—good house of 6 rooms, two nice lots, most eligibly located, for sale cheap. Apply at this office.

J. P. Goodman yesterday sold his 15-acre place below town and neighbor to C. Romander to A. Gotsche for $350.

Ed Robison, the hay-baler, while working at Scrap Lamb's last week, broke a spring and had to send to the city for a duplicate.

Miss Emma Bryan, of Bandon, spent a few days of the past week, and Sunday in this city as organist at the services conducted by her father.

The second quarterly conference for the Bandon circuit, M. E. church, South, will be held at Bandon, May 4th, 5th and 6th. E. L. FITCH, P. E.

The train brought several carloads of goods from the bay yesterday, two steamers—the Arcata and Del Norte—both coming in from San Francisco Sunday.

FOR SALE—320 acres of good range for stock, 15 acres cleared and good 5-roomed house thereon; spring water. Rare chance. Call at HERALD office for information. *4]

FOR SALE—200 acres—120 in bottom—sufficient for 25 or 30 dairy cows; 2 miles northwest of town, on rail and wagon roads to Marshfield. Call at premises. *4] R. G. McQUIGG.

In the Portland "court notes" in the Oregonian last Friday, we see "a default judgment was rendered in the case of the Cleveland Oil & Paint Manufacturing Co. against R. A. Graham for $300, balance due for goods sold."

A full pardon was last Thursday granted to John C. Manning, who was received at the penitentiary from Coos county in May, 1895, on a sentence of 5 years for arson. He served his sentence in full and had been discharged, and the official pardon restores him to citizenship.

Improvements were made in the Southern Methodist church last week, particularly in dispensing with the small platform, as a pulpit, raising it and occupying the full width of the church; formerly within the railing and including the "amen" corner space. The choir will occupy a portion, and the platform is now high enough for the children's services.

Third quarterly conference of the Methodist Episcopal church (for Bandon and Coquille City) will be held in this place next Saturday and Sunday. Preaching and business meeting will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday. (No service Saturday night, owing to the India Famine Fund entertainment). Rev. C. A. Stine will preach at the morning services Sunday, at which communion will be observed. Preaching Sunday night also by the pastor, Rev. C. M. Bryan. Sunday school at 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

G. W. White, a prominent attorney and capitalist from Portland, who recently prospected this locality for business investment, left last Wednesday for Portland to close up some matters there and return in about a fortnight with his family. Mr. W. will open "The Coquille Valley Bank," for which he filed articles of incorporation with County Clerk Hazard the day before. Mr. White has associated with him J. J. Lamb and L. Harlocker. The capital stock is placed at $50,000—500 shares at $100 per share. Mr. White is an intelligent and pleasant gentleman, and comes to our city with the best of recommendations as to moral character and standing, and as a business man of enterprise, capital and experience. His family, too, consists of educated, refined and charming people—wife, sons and daughters—for whom we bespeak a sincere and honest welcome and the kindest social environments.

If you are indebted to the HERALD you are requested to call and settle the same, as we need the money at once.

Frank Rogers, of the bay, Friday, 20th ult., purchased a head of fine beef cattle from J. A. Haines and Guarin Bro's, of Eckley, for Coos bay parties.

The Woodmen have purchased the organ used in the Southern Methodist church, the latter intending to procure a new instrument, concerning which Rev. Fitch is holding correspondence.

Prof. W. H. Bunch has purchased the farm of M. A. Epperson, consisting of 320 acres of land, consideration $1500. Mr. Epperson will move to the Middle Fork, where he has bought railroad land.

Capt. H. W. Dunham and family have returned to their home at this place from Bandon. Capt. Dunham has resigned his position at the jetty work and assumes that of engineer on the government dredger which is to work on this river.

Two new churchhouses are progressing as places of worship—Presbyterian and M. E.—and the Baptist brethren, also, will begin soon to put up a house of worship, the preparatory work being in hand now. These completed will give our town seven church edifices.

Hans Christensen, some years since a resident here and in the furniture business, dropped in on yesterday's train from the bay to see our town in pants. Mr. C. has taken in many sections of the country, from Mexico to Alaska, since he left here, and, we believe, makes this trip direct from San Francisco.

I now have on hand an immense stock of Dairy, Fruit and Stock farms; small places near town ranging from 5 to 40 acres, improved, and unimproved. Vacant lots; fine assortment of improved homes in town, and all at prices as low, or lower than you can buy from owners. *4]

R. D. SANFORD. The Eckley correspondent of the Myrtle Point Enterprise: Robert Harrison, who has just arrived from Rasty Pass, informs us that from one thousand pounds of quartz crushed from their new find, the St. Patrick, about one-half a mile south of the Mountain Daisy, on Rasty Gulch, yielded over $72. This was crushed by their arrastra which has just been put in running order.

WHY Has Flour dropped 15 cts on each sack, or 60 cts on the barrel? And why do you get 4 more lbs of Sugar for $1 than you did two months ago? And in fact why are most everything in the Grocery line cheaper than two months ago? Answer—Because J. W. Leneve cut the prices at his new store, and others follow. * Myrtle Point Enterprise: Thos. Rookard, an aged and well known resident of this valley, died at his home at Enchanted Prairie, Wednesday, April 25, 1900. The deceased has resided in this county for a number of years and was an honest and upright man, well thought of by all. The funeral services were conducted today by Rev. S. E. Decker and the remains laid to rest in the cemetery at Enchanted Prairie.

Myrtle Point Enterprise: Andrew J. Andrews, an old and esteemed resident of this valley, died at his home near this city Sunday, April 25, 1900, at the age of 77 years. He was born in Columbia county, Ohio, and at an early age went to California, and in 1875 moved to Coos county and located on Sugar-Loaf, near this place, where he resided until his death. The funeral services were conducted Monday by Rev. James Moore and the remains were interred in the Myrtle Point cemetery.

Coquille City Election. Took place yesterday, and was quiet, yet interesting, because of the question of prohibition being shied into the ring—usually an issue that arouses earnest contention. The total vote cast was 191, and the result as follows: City Recorder—citizens' and prohibition nominee—W. C. Chase, 107 votes. City Marshal—Lee Goodman, citizens', 100; L. G. Simmons, prohibition, 53. City Council—citizens' nominees, A. G. Bales, 100, J. P. Goodman, 81; L. Hacker, 87, J. A. Jacobson, 81; J. W. Leneve, 97; prohibition, B. H. Burns, 82, Thos. Krewson, 50, D. J. Strang, 55, F. A. White, 47, A. J. Wilson, 56. Bales, Leneve and Hacker, citizens', and Burns, prohibition, are elected, and the next two highest—Goodman and Jacobson, citizens'—are a tie.
