R. A. Graham was booked for another visit to the bay last week, but as usual, failed. He would hardly recognize our conditions since his Jamison raid. The improvements and prosperous conditions in view now are legitimate and gaining the confidence and support of the people.

J. T. Houser, the practical dairyman and rancher who has charge of the Flanagan & Bennett island ranch on the lower river, visited on the bay a few days ago, and last Wednesday returned through this place with his family for residence on the place. Mr. Houser gets a ton of milk a day, which he separates and our Coquille creamery does the churning.

Last Friday's train brought an immense amount of new goods, machinery and general freight via the bay for this valley. The new engine and machinery for the steamer "Favorite"—White-Moomaw-Snyder boat, just launched a few weeks ago, and measured by Deputy Customs Inspector Tower last week—arrived, as also an engine, boilers, etc., for the Dement creamery near Myrtle Point. The new boats will now soon be ready for the swim.

NOTICE—No grinding will be done at the Minard mill, on the North Fork, from now till the new plant is in; and no sawing from and after July 1st, until due notice is given. L. S. MINARD.

Our equinoctial storm, which set in last Thursday morning, hardly merits the designation. It came as a very gentle, refreshing rain. Many localities east have been visited with electrical storms, cloud-bursts and floods, particularly in the Mississippi valley.

"Myrtle Creek News," in Roseburg Review: Rev. W. R. Hanson, of Myrtle Point, preached the funeral of Mrs. Betsy Strong in the Methodist church at this place, Sunday morning, to one of the largest crowds ever gathered on such an occasion in this section.

W. T. C. Spencer, now in charge of the Stockman place, has been very busy the past month getting out the Lyons contract for shingle-belts. There are about 50 cords yet. He is looking for E. N. Cory, of Indiana, one of the owners, to arrange for the further occupancy and management of the place.

The district convention of Women of Woodcraft met in Roseburg last Wednesday. They met that morning in the Native Son's hall and were called to order by head manager, Mrs. Annie Hawkins, of Toledo, and Mrs. Josephine D. Crocker, was chosen temporary clerk. Miss Lou J. Schroeder, of Coquille, was on the resolutions committee.

Miss Floe Boyria left yesterday via Roseburg on trip to Portland, where she will make her home with her brother Ed and family. The young lady, we understand, will go into a millinery establishment and prepare herself in a knowledge of that business. The HERALD very much regrets the loss to our society of one so widely and favorably known, but joins in good wishes for her health and welfare.

R. H. Mast and family moved to this place last Saturday, and temporarily occupied rooms at the academy building. Mr. M. is an efficient deputy county clerk, and we should be pleased to have himself and family prepare to abide with us for a longer time than a guaranteed official term.

W. F. Kennedy, the blacksmith, who has been operating the establishment connected with J. C. Wilson's machine shop, yesterday bought the blacksmithing portion and will own and operate it now in his own name. Mr. K. is a good workman, and hopes to merit the patronage of the public in his line.

Willison's Australian Aerolites, which has been playing for some time along the coast of California and Oregon, will exhibit at Coquille City in their own tent, at the foot of Front street, next Friday and Saturday, June 29th and 30th. The performances consist of circus work, such as acrobats, gymnasts, sweet singers, thrilling trapeze acts, wire walking, contortions, dances, Japanese breaking-ladder acts, etc. Adults, 50c; children, 25c.

Last Thursday evening City Marshal Goodman arrested C. L. Moon on a complaint made before Justice W. C. Chase, for assault and battery, but owing to the intoxicated condition of defendant, the case was continued until Friday morning at 9 o'clock. At the hour set, witnesses who had been subpoenaed duly appeared, and Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Sinclair was present to prosecute. However, defendant entered a plea of guilty, as charged, and was assessed fine and costs in the amount of $50.

J. C. Huguley, of San Jose, Cal., who recently visited this place and bought the broomhandle and shingle-mill plant from the Lyons estate, returned last Wednesday— a little later than the date set, owing to sickness—and will proceed at once to put things at work. He has disposed of the shingle-mill machinery to W. H. Schroeder, of Arago, which will be removed, and his manager of the broomhandle business will be on at once, and will proceed to renovate and put into action the broomhandle factory to its fullest capacity and as a permanent fixture.

The district convention of the Woodmen of the World was held at Medford last week. Neighbor Bolton, of Ashland, was president, and Neighbor Parker, of Medford, clerk. About 50 delegates were present in person out of the 77 composing the convention. The principal business of the convention was the election of two delegates to the head camp, W. C. Sanderson, of Bandon, and H. H. Veatch, of Cottage Grove, after a spirited contest. The reduction of the per capita tax from 15 to 10 cents a month and the reduction of head officers' salaries, especially that of banker, were recommended. The next biennial convention will be held at Grants Pass.

Willie Schroeder, the business hustler at Arago, has bought the shingle-mill machinery at this place from Mr. Huguley, late purchaser from the Lyons estate, and will shortly move it to Halls creek. At that place Wallace Hamack will officiate, placing the machinery and running the business.

Paint and paper materials for the Presbyterian church were received Monday of last week, and Tuesday morning the contractors, Leneve & Straug, proceeded to push the finishing work on that edifice. The seats are received and being placed by James Byers, assisted by Mr. Fish, who did the construction work.

S. Rice, aged 67 years, living at the northwest edge of town, desires to testify to the merits of R. O. Kirkpatrick's liniment. He tells us he was taken down with rheumatism a few days ago, so bad as not to be able to walk, and hardly to move. On the second application of the liniment he recognized the good effects of the medicine, and on continuing it he recovered, till in three or four days afterward he was nearly well, and now is entirely free.

Mr. Marsters, who is to take charge of the marble works at this place, is about due with his family from Roseburg. The firm has been represented in this county by F. A. Tozier, as solicitor, whose work and contracts have been so extensive and satisfactory that a branch of the works will be established here. This will afford an opportunity to our people to patronize home enterprise and build up home industries.

FINE FARM AND HOME FOR SALE—Farm containing 350 acres, about 30 acres in cultivation, about 30 in grass and clover (about 1/2 cleared) and 3 acres in orchard. About 80 acres on tract in bottom land; balance heavily timbered of the best timber, worth many times the value of the land. House of 7 rooms, and as good water as can be found in North America right at home; other necessary buildings in fair condition. Plenty of land for two good settlements.
