We learn that Mr. Ericson, the photographer, has purchased the gallery of Mr. Stratford, of Marshfield, and will move to that point this week. FOR SALE—Seven choice calves and two tons of good hay, at the Quick place on Lampey creek. Call on or address T. J. Owen Coquille City. W. H. Waddington, of Lampey creek, called on us yesterday and placed on our desk samples of strawberries fresh from the patch. The berries are well formed, large in size, one measuring only a small fraction under two inches in length, and the flavor reminded one of May or June fruit. E. L. Arnold, formerly a sojourner and miner in Coos county, now of Douglas, was in town yesterday, returning from Bandon homeward. He is making preparations to do some mining in southern Douglas, speaking very hopeful of his prospect. We sincerely hope he may succeed beyond his most hopeful expectations. Having purchased the team and business interest of J. P. Messer in the teaming and transfer business heretofore conducted by us, I will hereafter conduct the same alone in our usual prompt manner. Will deliver the mill wood at the usual price and do a general hauling business. WILL MANSELL. "I wish to express my thanks to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, for having put on the market such a wonderful medicine," says W. W. Massingill, of Beaumont, Texas. There are many thousands of mothers whose children have been saved from attacks of dysentery and cholera infantum who must also feel thankful. It is for sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Hayter, of Arago, was in town yesterday. The Ladies of the M. E. church will give a chicken dinner Election day. Dancers should not forget the social dance on the night of the 13th. Still e Riddle, the cattle buyer of Douglas county, was in town today. The steamer Reta carries passengers to the dance at this place on the night of the 13th free. See those nice vegetables at M. H. Hersey's. If you purchase them they will be delivered free. Chas. Houser, of the Middle Fork, was in town last week, dickering with Johnson, the sawmill man. 120 acres of timber land to sell at a great sacrifice. R. D. SANFORD, Coquille, Or.

A protracted meeting will be held at the Christian church, beginning the 4th Sunday in this month. Mrs. Capt. Levi Snyder, of the lower river, was in town Saturday, returning from a visit up the river with her parents. L. M. Stroug, the popular teacher, who has just finished a term of school in the Backleff district, made us a pleasant call yesterday. Geo. Martin will start with his stage for Roseburg Thursday. All wishing to make the trip will do well to see Mr. Martin and secure a seat. DEMOCRATS, ATTENTION! There will be a Democratic club organized at the Masonic hall next Thursday night. Come out and do your whole duty as a Democrat. Surveyor Cathcart went to Gravel Ford yesterday to do some surveying for Messrs. Devault and Folsome, the latter having purchased a portion of the farmers place. Ericson, the photographer, went to Bandon today. He spent on the HERALD force en route. He will take charge of the gallery lately purchased at Marshfield the last of the week. A 20x40 foot addition is being built onto the Odd Fellows' building at the south side. It will be the same height as the main building and an imposing square front put on the whole structure. A. G. Aiken passed through this place Saturday en route to Roseburg to see his brother, David Aiken, of Douglas county, who is lying very low, having suffered a stroke of paralysis. He was accompanied from this place by his niece, Miss Ray Collier. Mrs. Geo. P. Topping, of Bandon, visited her mother at this place, and sister, Mrs. Nelson Smith, of Fishtrap, during circuit, and remained to be present at the wedding of her sister, Miss Thénie, to M. D. Cutlip, of Coos river, which took place Wednesday. Rev. C. A. Hyatt, pastor in charge of the work of the M. E. Church, South, of this place, arrived with his wife by Martin's stage Saturday, and we find they are a fine young couple, and we hope may be able to accomplish much good and extend the influence of the church. A quite wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. S. E. Wilkins, of this place last Wednesday, when M. D. Cutlip, of Coos river and Miss Thénie Wilkins, were united in holy wedlock in the presence of members of the family and a few friends, Rev. E. L. Fitch performing the ceremony. Attachee of our office were among the guests and fully appreciated and enjoyed the pleasant affair as well as the bountiful supply of wedding cake served. The happy couple departed by north bound train immediately after the ceremony for the home of Mr. C. The HERALD joins their many friends in hearty congratulations and well wishes. Some two weeks ago Mr. Chandler, manager of Coos-Bay-Roseburg railroad had a survey made, and has since made the necessary purchase of grounds for a depot site, and yesterday morning No. 1 brought a special over with a crew of men and the work of clearing the grounds commenced in good earnest by the railroad men, however, our townsman and hotel keeper, John Curran, was given the contract and put men to work at noon. The building will be put up at farther end of the cut at the Allen Collier place, a beautiful site and conveniently located. This will be a great convenience, as the building heretofore used has been inadequate and a new, large and commodious depot will be daily appreciated by our townspeople and shippers as well traveling public.

A full line of Bicycle fixtures at Pettit's harness shop. J. N. Summerlin, of Lee was a business visitor in town on Thursday. Repairing, oiling and cleaning harness done at Pettit's. Prices reasonable. Z. I. Siglin, the stock raiser of the isthmus, had business in our town Thursday. The Millinery goods of Mesdames Pike & Sugg have arrived. Call and see them. Uncle Sol Spurgeon, who fainted falling in the fireplace one night two or three weeks ago, is still in a very enfeebled condition. George Pettit has purchased the stock of harness from F. Long & Son and will carry a complete stock of everything in the harness line. FOR SALE—200 acres—120 in bottom—sufficient for 25 or 30 dairy cows; 2 miles northwest of town, on rail and wagon roads to Marshfield. Call at premises. R. G. McQUIGG. Joseph and John Lorenz, nephews of our townsman, N. Lorenz, are up from Trinity county, California, and will look into some of the mining prospects of Coos county. These gentlemen are thorough miners and will no doubt be able to find something that will interest them when they have looked well over our mining districts. They are at present enjoying a genuine visit with Mr. L. and family.

Our old friend, Lonnie Dickson, arrived from his Cape Nome trip by Martin's Stage Saturday. Like so many having about the same experience, Lonnie comes home satisfied there are other places more desirable in which to seek fortunes than the Nome country.
