He carried a gun but the calibre was rather small for Bandonians. Lee Goodman, of this place, went to Marshfield last week for the purpose of canvassing for his gasoline lamps, and succeeded in placing several in that place. J. S. Kanematz, the assayer, would like as many specimens of Coos county ores as he can get. If you have any for which you have no particular use, let him take them. Mesdames Welsh and Whipple who recently moved their bakery to the Nasburg building on Front street has enlarged their business and now furnish first-class meals on the restaurant style. When you want a physic that is mild and gentle, easy to take and pleasant in effect use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Price, 25 cents. Samples free. Every box guaranteed. For sale by R. S. Knowlton. Will Darby returned Sunday from his visit to his parents at Seio. He tells us health is very good in that section and that prices are reasonable on all products except sheep and goats, they being clear out of sight. S. H. Hazard, the attorney, was over from Marshfield Friday, winding up what business he could before leaving for Salem where he will attend the coming session of supreme court. He expects to start today or tomorrow. C. S. Elliott, foreman of the McCann mill near Bandon, is up for the purpose of assisting his brothers-in-law, the Claytons in moving the machinery from the broomhandle factory at this place to their new sight on Four-mile. Uncle Frank Ross, of Marshfield, was over to the county seat yesterday on business and greeting old friends. He renewed relationships with the HERALD and made arrangements to form acquaintances with Mr. Bryan through the Commoner. We are now clubbing with Bryan's new paper, the Commoner, published at Lincoln, Nebraska. All wishing to read a paper published by this much talked of politician can do so at the cost of 50cts. extra with the HERALD, we giving the two papers for $2. Mrs. C. T. Cessa, of Riverton, went to Beaver Hill Friday. Mr. Cessa came up this far, but returned on account of pressing business. He is engaged opening the new mine on the place of Alex Urquhart at Riverton, which promises to be a large and fine vein.

For a fresh, hot meals at all times, call on Mesdames Walsh & Whipple, Front street, Coquille City. Have you seen those beautiful dinner sets at the I. X. L.? If not, you should go at once and take them in. Hillis Short is now the operator behind the block in the Central meat market since Mr. Gass resigned that position. I have a swap bargain in 3 nice lots near the Academy. Must be sold. R. D. Sanford, Agent. Uncle Jerry Haynes returned to his Coos City home Friday after a trip to Myrtle Point to look after his interests in that section. Grandma Sage is quite ill of la grippe. At her age—87 years—the grip is quite a serious trouble. We hope to see her up in a few days. FOR SALE—200 acres—120 in bottom—sufficient for 25 or 30 dairy cows; 2 miles northwest of town, on rail and wagon roads to Marshfield. Call at premises. R. G. McQUINN. We are informed as we go to press of the death of Quincy Davis the young man of Marshfield, who was so seriously injured by a fall from the track with some cars loaded with rock at the government jetty at the bay. This is extremely sad and his aged parents have the heart-felt sympathy of the entire community. C. Romander, across from town, sold his place to S. Banning last week and will depart for San Francisco by the Mandalay. We are sorry to lose Mr. Romander and his estimable wife, but glad to have good and interesting people take their places. Mr. R. will go to San Francisco where he and a brother own and operate a large creamery. An Entertainment under the auspices of the Epworth League of the M. E. Church South, at the Masonic Hall next Saturday evening, Feb. 9th consisting of recitation address quartets, solos, and songs, also music by the orchestra followed by an oyster supper. The public are cordially invited to come and have a good time. Price of admission 25 and 15 cents. COMMITTEE. Uncle B. H. Harrison, near Myrtle Point, was in town the last of the week. During our conversation with him he informed us that while his claim is very rich in gold, it is so fine he will have to adopt some process to save the dust other than the ordinary way. He expects to get some good person interested with him and put in the necessary machinery and will then be able to make a grand clean up. The Mandalay will be here in two or three days. Hustle up all the freight for her you can. We should do all possible to keep her with us. She is becoming quite a favorite as a passenger steamer. Following is her list down: A. M. Sumner and wife, R. S. Laughhead and wife, G. Clark, J. L. Thompson, R. W. Lundy, Anna Patten, Mrs. E. M. Lyons, Miss Josie Lyons, Miss J. Denby, Geo. Heninger and wife.
