J. A. Gass Accidentally Killed.

The following is the context of a letter received by Henry Lorenz, of this place, yesterday, which doubtless refers to Julius A. Gass, recently connected with the Central Meat Market here:
 "A man whose name is supposed to be J. A. Gass, was struck by a passenger train of the S. P. Co. at Millbrae, in the county of San Mateo yesterday morning (Mar. 6.) and instantly killed. Only clue on his person as to his identity was a receipt of E. T. Kruse, 207, Front St., S. F. for $3.50 for freight and transfer charges on a box shipped by steamer Mandalay from Coquille, Or., to San Francisco, dated Feb. 8th. I wrote Kruse who telephones me he does not know the man, but that he shipped from Coquille Feb. 8th, and that you may be able to give me information as to his identity. Trusting you may be able to do so, I am
 Yours, respectfully
 E. E. CUNNINGHAM,
 Justice of the Peace and acting coroner.

Farewell Party.

Mrs. Jack Grimes gave a farewell party Thursday evening, in honor of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Leneve, who is about to depart to her future home in California. Many friends were present to wish Mr. and Mrs. Leneve a pleasant voyage and prosperity in their new locality.—Coast Mail.

A Pleasant Surprise.

An exceedingly pleasant surprise was given in honor of Grandpa and Grandma Leneve Friday evening at the residence of Emil Lewin, near the Odd Fellow's hall, being the final reunion of relatives before the departure of these old and highly respected people, as well as J. W. Leneve and family, for future residence in California. It was a very pleasant affair, and participated in only by relatives, of whom there were twenty-five present as follows: Dr. and Mrs. Leneve, N. W. Leneve, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Leneve, Rena Leneve, John Leneve, Rose Leneve, Allen Leneve, Ed. Leneve, Daisy Leneve, Georgia Leneve, Hugh Leneve, Lonsen Leneve, W. C. Rose, Jennie Rose, George Robinson, Annie Robinson, E. Lewin, Nery Lewin, Otilla Leneve, M. Way, Maranda Way, Lillie Way, Mrs. T. Lewis, Volita Leneve.

Death of Mrs. Orville A. Miller.

Mrs. Orville A. Miller, beloved wife of William T. Miller of Fishtrap creek, died at their home on Saturday, February 21, 1901. Deceased was 59 years, 6 months 22 days. This couple were married in Cole county, Missouri, September 17, 1871, and moved to Oregon soon afterward, living in Jackson county two years and then moved to this county where they have lived since, forming many friends and acquaintances. The interment took place at the Fishtrap cemetery the funeral services being conducted by Rev. Thomas Barklow of the German Baptist church of which church she was an honored and loved member. Deceased was a sister of G. T. R. C. Price, Frank and Tenn Robinson, well and favorably known throughout the country.

Mrs. Jack Grimes, of Marshfield, has been somewhat unwell concerning her husband who has been up at Cape Nome for more than a year past, but recently received two letters, one of which had been delayed, which dispels Mrs. G's worry and makes Jack's friends feel better. He is at Nome City, employed at gold wages in the machine shops of the Alaska Transfer Co., and is in no way exposed to the severe weather or hardships. He tells of Capt. Bob Dunham being there and getting along all right. He says Chas. Fox is there, and tells of the death of his wife, but does not give the full particulars. It seems Mr. and Mrs. Fox went off for a week's trip and unfortunately, Charley returned with wife's corpse, which he has had embalmed and will bring to Marshfield for burial. Jack says the temperature is down to 37 degrees below, and that the ocean is frozen as far out as the eye can reach.

The principle underlying public libraries is that education is an evolution from infancy to old age, and when the period of regular schooling has passed the people must be provided with facilities for continuing their reading tastes; and it is right and desirable that the public shall pay for the schools, it is also right and desirable that they shall provide the facilities for enlightenment.—R. W. Woodburn in Science Times.

Council Proceedings.

The city council held a meeting Saturday evening, transacting the following business:

Resignation of B. E. Nosler as a member of the council accepted and J. J. Curren appointed in his stead.

J. W. Leneve filed his resignation which was laid over till next meeting for consideration.

A petition signed by 39 persons, asking that the ordinance regulating the liquor traffic conform to the statutes of the state of Oregon, which petition was tabled.

Civil Engineer Nicholson having been engaged to make survey and estimates on constructing water system, A. G. Balch was appointed to accompany him and assist in the work.

Ordinance No. 9, with all amendments thereto, which pertained to the regulating of the liquor traffic, was repealed.

Bills of J. A. Lamb & Co. for supplies for water system for $35 85 allowed.

Norway Items.

Miss Ethel Dunlap visited at Johnson's mill over Sunday.

Miss Flora McCloskey is engaged to teach the Arago school the coming term.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the debating club did not meet Saturday evening.

Mr. John Lamb and sister, Miss Mary, of Fishtrap, came up Saturday to attend literary, and remained to visit with friends a few days.

Miss May Schroeder of Johnson mill spent Sunday with old friends in this place.

Messrs. E. Williams and G. S. Davis took a trip to Grayed Ford last week in quest of milk-cows. They succeeded in purchasing nine head from Mr. Hammerlof of that place.

Mr. W. T. Brady of Gravel Ford was in town Saturday. He informed us that he has rented his farm to Mr. Chas. Holt, and contemplates traveling with his family, for their health. They will go to Eastern Oregon before returning to this place.

At the annual schoolmeeting in this place, Mr. O. S. Davis was elected director and Mr. E. L. Cornan elected clerk, to succeed himself. The enumeration showed an enrollment of sixty-six pupils between the ages of 4 and 20. Miss Minnie McCloskey was chosen teacher again.

Norway will be left behind in improvements, although perhaps they are not so extensive as in some places. Mr. H. L. Carl is having a building erected for the engine which he wishes to remove from its present position in the old Hoover mill. Mr. Price Robinson is building an addition to his barn, and Roy McCloskey has improved his father's residence by a paling fence around the yard.

THIRTY THREE.

(Merrill Point Enterprise.)
 Under the charter the city election will be held on the first Monday in April.

The Crescent band will give a grand ball in the opera hall Saturday night, Mar. 16th. An excursion boat will be run from Coquille, returning Sunday morning. Tickets for the ball, 50 cents.

The school census as taken by clerk E. A. Roberts shows the school population of this district to be 252—120 females and 112 males. The number is not as large this year as last, as a new district was set off from this one.

Riverton Pick-Ups.

Mrs. E. Rose and daughter Marie were visiting here on Sunday last.

Miss Nina Tomenson has been a guest at the Riverton Hotel for the past week.

C. Danielson of the lower river has been suffering with the inflammatory rheumatism for over two weeks. He is now able to sit up.

Grandma Willard was visiting her relatives here last week.

Miss Sylvia Donk, of Bear creek, made us a pleasant call on Sunday last.

Ira Metcalf and family have moved into the Eda Nosler house.

Henry Pullen and family, of Beaver Hill, will move into Riverton on Monday next.

Frank Stillwell and wife has rented the Schroeder house and will soon move into it.

DONA ANNA.

It is very hard to stand idly by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor.

An Albany (N. Y.) dairyman called at a drug store there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in, he left word for him to come at once on his return. He also bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few hours he returned, saying the doctor need not come, as the child was much better. The druggist, Mr. Otto Scholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country. J. S. Kanematz's

Judge Bellinger yesterday rendered a decision in the matter of the Benvor-Hill Coal company, a bankrupt corporation, on an application in behalf of the sheriff of Coos county for an allowance of a claim of $769.99, and for the payment of a priority out of the bankrupt estate. The court said: "If this was a case where the claim was for an expenditure that the trustee would have been compelled to make himself I should not hesitate to give it priority but there is no good reason why the expense of an attachment, levied to secure a debt, should have preference over a debt arising out of the payment of money, or to the transfer of property to the bankrupt, made also in good faith, and which may represent or constitute property of the bankrupt levied upon under the attachment. The application of the payment of the sheriff's claim as priority of the bankrupt's estate is denied."—Oregonian.
