He expects to go to Arizona hoping to be permanently benefited. Mrs. John Snyder, of the Cental Hotel, Marshfield, came over yesterday and is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hays. The old gentleman having been under the weather for several days, is now improving. Counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve are liable to cause blood poisoning. Leave them alone. The original has the name DeWitt's upon the box and wrapper. It is a harmless and healing salve for skin diseases. Unequaled. R. S. Knowlton. Messrs. Gilkey and Olsen, of the LoneStar saloon, were misinformed in regard to the transfer of the license held by Mr. Gilkey, and now find that the place must be conducted by Mr. G. until a new license is procured. Therefore both of these gentlemen will be in attendance till May.

Onion sets at Kanematz's. For carpet warp all colors go to Hawkins. F. A. Pierce, of Fairview, was in town Saturday. A full selection of garden seeds at R. S. Knowlton's. Have you tried Lewin's cigars? They are all right. Patronize home industry by smoking Lewin's cigars. Call early and leave your orders with the Coos Co. Marble works. Miss Mary Quick has been engaged to teach the Fairview school. Walker, the photographer, takes stamp pictures, 36 for 50c. If you want a genuine shave by a real artist, go to McDonald's. Smokers should use only white label cigars. Lewin makes the finest. We give the Commoner, Bryan's new paper, and the HERALD for $2 per year. When you get right hungry for a smoke, remember Lewin, the cigar maker. Rev. C. A. Stine will fill the pulpit in the M. E. Church, South, Sunday at 7:30 p. m. 500 pair of the Calabread A. L. Bryan shoes to arrive on the next Mandalay for Skeels. The Coos County Marble Co. spend their money at home. Why patronize outside firms. Mr. Rich is building a new and substantial sidewalk by his property opposite the HERALD office. For the best bargain to be had in a dairy and stock ranch, address or call at the HERALD office. A man and wife wanted as helper and house keeper on a dairy ranch. Call at or address the HERALD. Hawkins offer the best goods for the lowest cash prices to be found on the Coquille River. When you want a good smoke, call for a Lewin cigar. You know you are getting a white-labor article. FOR SALE—147 Acres of Land, 4 mile from Norway, Coos county. Known as the McHenry place. Call on HENRY GRADY, Norway, Oregon. See the advertisement of the Roseburg—Myrtle Point Stage-line in another column in this issue. Have you seen those beautiful dinner sets at the I. X. L.? If not, you should go at once and take them in. When you are bilious, use those famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers to cleanse the liver and bowels. They never gripe. R. S. Knowlton. C. M. Neil, the fur buyer, of Myrtle Point, was in town today. He is buying quite a quantity of furs in Coos and Curry counties, and is paying good prices. W. T. Knight, of Riverton, was in town Saturday. The old gentleman has been somewhat under the weather of late, but we hope to see him in his usual health soon. W. Drane, of Paradise valley, writes that they are all well and orders the HERALD sent to Bancroft, that being a move advantage point at which to receive it than Camas valley. Mrs. J. L. Kronenberg, of Parkersburg, came up Friday and visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Kronenberg, of this place, returning Saturday. She had a very pleasant visit, it being Uncle John's birthday. We are now clothing with Bryan's new paper, the Commoner, published at Lincoln, Nebraska. All wishing to read a paper published by this much talked of politician can do so at the cost of 50c. extra with the HERALD, we giving the two papers for $2. The Benton County Flouring Mills Co., of Corvallis, Oregon, having added new machinery, including the new roller process for making flour, is now making equally as good, if not a better article than any mill in Oregon. Try a sack and be convinced. WM. RICH, Agent. A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Sheriff Gallier yesterday forenoon, when S. S. Everston, of Bandon, was joined in holy wedlock with Mrs. Lorraine Caulfield, who had just arrived from Moscow, Idaho. Mrs. P. Nelson, Mrs. George Lorenz and Mrs. E. M. Blackerly, Bandon friends of the groom were invited to witness the ceremony, while Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gallier and the families of Sheriff and Deputy Gallier, of this place were present. Judge Harlocker performed the ceremony. The HERALD joins the many friends of this happy couple in hearty congratulations.

School Clerk Nosler in taking the Scholastic census finds that our school district contains 428 persons between the ages of four and twenty. FOR SALE—A fine business location on Front street, Coquille City, Oregon—one of the best—dirt cheap. Call or address the HERALD. The steamer Argo and two schooners sailed from the Coquille Sunday, while three schooners came in over the bar. This begins to look like business. FOR SALE—A fine little river bottom place, one and half miles from town, on river bank. Fair buildings, good orchard, small fruits, etc. Call at the HERALD office. AN IDEAL STOCK FARM—436 acres, 45 head of cattle, 20 cows to come in in the spring, 3 of a mile from school and boatlanding. For particulars call at or address the HERALD. Meadames Grimes and Paterson, of Marshfield, sister and cousin respectively of Mrs. J. W. Leneve, are in town making Mrs. L. a final visit before her departure for California. Lewie Wirth, of the popular Wirth fruit and berry farm, of Coos river, was over to this place several days last week on business and pleasure. The HERALD acknowledges a pleasant call. Miss Maggie Rogers went to the bay to take the steamer Del Norte for Humboldt, California, where she goes to visit friends and relatives at her former home. She will be gone several weeks. Their promptness and their pleasant effects make DeWitt's Little Early Risers most popular little pills wherever they are known. They are simply perfect for liver and bowel troubles. R. S. Knowlton. Dr. W. C. Culin, of this place received some very beautiful and rare evergreens with which to adorn his place of residence. They are a Norfolk pine, a Morton Bay pine and a Monkey Puzzle. They are beauties. LOST—A ladies' bangle stick pin with three small coins—one United States half dime and two Canadian five cent pieces. Anyone leaving the same at this office will confer a great favor on one of our townslads. About fifty persons met at the Masonic hall yesterday evening and took part in a very enjoyable whist party and social in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Leneve, given under the auspices of the membership of the Fraternal Aid Association of which they are members. A grand time was enjoyed and all in attendance will remember the event with pleasure long after Mr. and Mrs. Leneve have gone to California. Prof. Tervilly of Lonsaening, M.I., suffered terribly from neuralgia of the stomach and indigestion for thirteen years and after the doctors failed to cure him they fed him on morphine. A friend advised the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and after taking a few bottles of it he says, "It has cured me entirely. I can't say too much for Kodol Dyspepsia Cure." It digests what you eat. R. S. Knowlton. The annual school meeting was held in the public school building in this place yesterday, and J. J. Lamb was elected director for three years, and D. P. Strang was elected director to fill the unexpired term of J. H. James who resigned. The board now consists of J. J. Stanley, D. P. Strang and J. J. Lamb. Prof. M. O. Hawkins was elected clerk for the ensuing year. The financial report of Clerk Nosler was accepted and ordered filed. The census report of the outgoing clerk showed the scholastic population of this district to be 425, an increase of 65 over last year. With the present board at the helm, we may congratulate ourselves on having the brightest of prospects before us so far as school matters are concerned, for the coming year.

See the beautiful Stereoscopic Views of Ernest Stauff at Lorenz's store. Seaman, the Attorney, of Marshfield, went to Bandon today on legal business. A good girl is wanted by Mrs. Jas. Trowella, of Riverton, to do housework. H. C. Luttrell, of the South Fork, was in town yesterday. He would like to rent a good ranch. M. R. Lee, of Bandon, paid us a short visit on his way from Myrtle Point to Bandon yesterday. Mrs. Moon is quite over her little ill spell of last week and is able to cater to the ladies who wish goods in her line. The infant of Mr. and Mrs. Ashburn, of this place, which was very ill the last of the week, is much better. The Order—a small lodge button of the Fourth of Washington. Owner can obtain the same by calling at the HERALD office. Our friend, Z. T. Johnson, of Myrtle Point, the real estate man, was in town today and halloed in at our office as he passed by. In the steamer Favorite failed to make her regular trip Thursday. A gasket blew out of her steam fittings, and she laid over for repairs. Mr. Wm. Strahan, former section boss on this division of our railroad, now of the upper river, was in town yesterday, greeting many friends. WANTED—To trade four nice lots in Bandon for a team of horses. Horses must be young and not weigh less than 1200 pounds. Inquire at this office. C. M. Skeels, our merchant, is moving from the Elliott residence to the apartments over the store building occupied by his stock of general merchandise. Mrs. C. A. Doane, of Beaver Hill, went over to Marshfield Thursday to see her mother. Mrs. Thurside, and her brother Frank, both of whom are sick. See that you get the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve when you ask for it. The genuine is a certain cure for piles sores and skin diseases. R. S. Knowlton. Albert Long who recently returned from Portland, we are informed, has closed a deal with bay parties, releasing all leases and rights to the building now occupied by the harness shop, and that the room will be used as a saloon. A surveying party consisting of County surveyor Cutheart Alfred Johnson, Dave Albert, E. E. Johnson, Dave Carey, W. H. Thomas, Geo. Pike and Dave Perkins went to the lower river the latter part of the week and run the lines of same timber lines of Dave Perkins for which Mr. Johnson, our sawmill man are dickering. The stomach controls the situation. Those who are hearty and strong are those who can eat and digest plenty of food. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and allows you to eat all the good food you want. If you suffer from indigestion, heartburn, belching or any other stomach trouble, this preparation can't help but do you good. The most sensitive stomachs can take it. R. S. Knowlton. Myrtle Point has had quite a building boom in the past few months, there having been a number of good houses completed and more in contemplation. There is lumber on the ground for a large and commodious addition to the Guerita Hotel, also for a large warehouse at the rear of S. E. Johnson's store, and Dr. K. A. Leep is making preparations for building a large business building, the new personage of the M. E. Church, South, has been completed and E. C. Green's billiard hall is about completed. L. W. Deyoe has the lots cleared and the plans laid for a ladies dwelling in a very nice location in Park addition. John Banowitz is building a large barn, and Mr. Chas. Adams has just finished a hall 30x60 which is occupied by the I. O. O. F. above and will be used as a business house below. This speaks well for our sister town. They were beheaded. Pekin, Feb. 29.—Chih Sio, former grand secretary, and Hsu Chen Yih, (son of the notorious Hsu Tung) were publicly beheaded today. The street in which the execution took place was guarded by French, German and American troops. The condemned official were taken to the ground in carts, escorted by a company of Japanese infantry.
