My ball parlor and dining room will be large enough so that when thrown all together we can seat a congregation of 150 people to hear a full gospel unobscured."

—Ashland Record.

Colonel Holt, who has been holding a series of temperance lectures in this city the past week, concluded yesterday evening with his famous lecture "Lights and Shadows of City Life," with a good crowd and deep interest manifested. The Colonel went to Bandon this morning where he will lecture for several days. Next Saturday evening there will be a banquet given by the ladies of the W. C. T. U. which has been organized during these lectures with a membership of ninety-odd. The Colonel will be present at this banquet. There were about 280 signed the pledge during this temperance revival.

Sensible people want good value for their money invested. That's right and while you have seen few ads of ours lately, we have not been dead, or sleeping, but securing contracts on genuine Bargains in a wide range of Real Estate, ready to offer you in season at prices as low and in some cases, lower than from first hands. We want your business and like to sell you bargains. That helps pull more business, and beats flaming ads. Let us know your wants fairly, if you expect us to do you good service. A'torney A. M. Crawford, of Roseburg, who attended circuit court at this place last week, went to Marshfield after court adjourned and got Miss Hattie Watson, daughter of Judge D. L. Watson, whom he took to Roseburg for a visit with her many friends there.

Mrs. Howell offers a handsome reward to any one returning to her a favorite goose which was captured and carried from her home on Monday May 6, by a cunning Fox. Neither the Fox nor its victim has been heard of since the Dispatch passed Bandon on the morning of the above mentioned day, and naturally no little anxiety is felt as Foxes have always evinced more or less fondness for sleepy and unsuspecting geese and we have reason to believe that this case is no exception.

There are quite a number of houses in town taking on a neat summer dress in the form of a coat of paint. The beautiful residence of A. J. Sherwood is taking on an imposing appearance, and the Dr. Owen residence is being repainted and fitted up in style to accommodate the family of Dr. Stranga, who are expected in a few days. Were it not for our recollection of the old adage about glass windows and stones we might mention several others who should do the same.

Rev. S. S. White of Eastern Oregon has accepted a call to supply the pulpits of the Presbyterian churches of Myrtle Point, Willowdale and Coquille and is expected to enter upon the discharge of his duties at Myrtle Point on Sunday June 2nd. Mr. White is said to be a young man of about 30 years of age, unmarried, and of pleasing appearance, a good speaker, an earnest devout man and the churches to which he comes are being congratulated by the presbytery in general on securing so good a man for pastor. His first sermon in Coquille will be preached on Sunday June 9th.

Death of Alton Martindale

As we mentioned in our last issue concerning Mrs. W. C. Benham being called to Camas Valley to the bedside of her father, she arrived in time to see her father yet alive, but he was very low, and while he was able to recognize her, he was unable to talk to her, and passed quietly away in a short time. Alton Martindale was born in Indiana, but moved to Illinois while a child. In '49 he came to California as a miner but came to Oregon a short time later, being one of Oregon's early pioneers and respected citizen. He helped to survey the city of Portland when it was first laid out as a town. He leaves a wife, two daughters and four sons two mourn his death. The family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

The Baseball Game.

The first of the series of games to be played under the auspices of the Coos County Baseball League this season took place at Myrtle Point Sunday. There was a big crowd, upwards of sixty persons coming up from Bandon by the Dispatch, about one hundred and seventy from Marshfield by train and about 50 from this place, besides the throng from the nearer by precincts, composed the enthusiastic crowd which enjoyed the game. The grounds were in fine condition and the weather was all that could be asked; not a bright and oppressive sun, but just enough high fog or ocean spray to make it cool and fresh. The players were all in good trim and played with a will.

While the Myrtle Point boys made a good fight the Marshfield team proved to be too much for them, carrying away the laurels 25 to 9.

The next league game will take place on Sunday May 19th at Coquille between Myrtle Point and Coquille teams.
