Gurley Book who went to Portland on the tug Brick and proceeded as far with Hark Dunham as Seattle, returned by yesterday's train. He reports having had a long talk with Will Copley, whom we reported dead two or three weeks ago, which proves our information to have been a mistake. The young man who wrote the word to Mrs. C. had been with Mr. Copley at the hospital in Seattle, and could not be heard from any more, and the supposition is that he heard that to be the fact since he had seen Mr. C., but was wrongly informed. Mr. Copley had quite a serious time, first being kicked by a horse the result of which was the breaking of three ribs, and soon after recovering from this he had a foot badly smashed up, from which he was still suffering when Gurley talked to him.

The G. A. R. Encampment of Coos county will be held this year at Myrtle Point on August 7th, 8th, and 9th by order of District Commander Roberts. All should keep this in mind and do their parts to make it a rousing success in every particular. Younger folks should not hold back for the old soldiers to lead in a matter of this kind, but should lead out in what they can do to keep this worthy organization in tact. We little realize how rapidly the time is coming when there will be no need for this organization and, in the face of this fact, no one can afford to allow an opportunity to go by without making an effort to help swell the crowd and intensify the interest in these yearly reunions.
