Koch's New Discovery.

New York, July 23.—Professor Koch, of Berlin, will announce, says a Herald dispatch from London, his discovery that bovine tuberculosis is not transmissible to the human system. The famous bacteriologist in an interview authorized the statement that he has demonstrated that meat and milk tuberculosis infected cattle may be consumed with absolute impunity.

Dr. Allen F. Haight, of Chicago, the official representative of the American Medical Association, says: "If I had not heard Professor Koch quietly announce his discovery in private conversation, it would have seemed to me absolutely incredible. I can only say that Dr. Koch is too profound a student and has too much reputation at stake to promulgate such a proposition unless convinced of its soundness beyond the shadow of a doubt. If he is able to demonstrate theoretically his claim, the sanitary systems of the world will be shaken to the very roots. The word revolution but faintly expresses what the discovery will precipitate."

English experts talked of the theory with mingled astonishment and contempt, and asserted that the German professor would encounter stubborn debate and learned disproof of his "mad idea."

Dr. Reynolds, Health Commissioner of Chicago, when informed of Professor Koch's theory, said:

"The discovery is certainly of the highest importance, especially in regard to milk. As far as meat is concerned, I never believed it contained elements of danger when cooked, and therefore the announcement has comparatively less significance for the civilized people of the world. As to milk taken in its natural state, it is a different proposition. While probably nobody is desirous of drinking the milk of tuberculous cows, yet a great boon would be assured if it can be consumed with impunity. The discovery will also have a practical result in simplifying the work of milk inspection, although not altogether rendering this unnecessary."

Ashland "Dry" Now.

Ashland, July 26.—After a few processes in the recorder's court and a hearing upon a writ of error in the circuit court, the saloon men appear to be completely knocked out, and have suddenly decamped. Ashland is now in fact, as well as in name, a "dry town."

When the circuit court's decision was rendered Mayor Neil went to the saloon men and demanded $500 to $1000 from each, upon payment of which they were assured all further prosecutions would cease, provided there was no more illicit selling of liquors. He claimed to have a string of cases against them, and conviction meant fines amounting to about all their possessions. They were to take the proposals of the Mayor under prompt advisement but availed themselves of the opportunity to get out on the first train for California. Some of them are sojourning in San Francisco and the others are summering at Hornbrook, a small town over the Siskiyou, just across the state line. Meantime their attorney has filed notice of appeal to the State Supreme Court.

We are in receipt of a letter from H. R. Coleman, Philadelphia, Pa., who has become interested in this state through the Oregon exhibits at the Pan-American Exposition. What Oregon needs most is her many natural advantages and resources more thoroughly advertised. In his letter Mr. Coleman says: "The Oregon exhibit at the Pan-American Exposition, Buffalo, is simply wonderful. To obtain what one can, consider reliable information from particular localities of this state, is well nigh impossible. I shall like reliable information of Coos and Josephine counties."

Mrs. M. O. Hawkins, of this place, visited at Myrtle Point last week.

Jason Randleman, of Norway, was down last week and while he was feeling about all right, he was a little sore over a fall he received last Tuesday afternoon while putting some hay in his barn. He fell about twelve feet striking on his back on a floor.

H. J. and W. J. Henry, of New Whatcom, Washington, arrived in town last week looking at the country. While they are of no relation of our townspeople, J. S. Henry and family, they are acquaintances, having come from the same section, and enjoyed a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nosler, of Eugene, arrived here by private conveyance Saturday. Mrs. N. is enjoying a visit with her mother, Mrs. Ballack, of Cunningham creek. They will be here a week or so enjoying the sea breeze of Coos county. We were exceedingly glad to see these friends with us again.

N. B. McMichael, a brother of Mrs. Myron Wickham was in town yesterday as he was passing through moving Mr. Hall and family from Josephine county, Oregon, to northern California by the coast route. While his visit with his sister was necessarily short, it was very much enjoyed by both, and he expects to return at some future time and remain for a while with us.

F. E. Herrick, accompanied by his two sons, Ralph and Leslie, of Eureka, California, are making quite a tour of Coos county by private rig, having driven up the coast. The former and the latter came over by yesterday's train and took in this section while Ralph drove from Empire to Bandon, preparatory to returning. Mr. Herrick likes the looks of our section very much, and while he does not anticipate moving up at once, he may interest himself in this section later on.

Miss Eva Hall had the misfortune to get thrown from a horse one day last week, and while her injuries were not of a permanent character, she will not be able to conduct her school for several days. It seems she was returning home from school on horseback with her little sister riding behind her, when the horse became frightened and in her effort to manage the animal broke the bridle with the above result. She fell on one hip which received a severe bruise, but there were no bones broken and she hopes to be able to resume her labor in the school room in a short time. Her little sister was not hurt at all.
