The lower end of the rodder stin of the steamer Favorite gave way on Sunday afternoon on her up trip, and she was compelled to lay up for repairs yesterday and today. Peter Nelson, the heavy blacksmith at Bandon, is making the repairs. Mr. N. is all right when it comes to work of this nature.
While we did not have the pleasure of an interview with F. S. Samuels, the representative of the J. D. Spreckels Bro's Co. while on his tour of inspection in Coos county, we give that of Bro. Bennett of the Coos Bay News in another column, which gives an idea of the feeling of this company toward our people and section.
J. D. Byers, who is canvassing for memberships in the Northwest Library Association visited a great number of our residents last week with fair success. This is an exceedingly cheap as well as a reliable institution through which to obtain books of all kinds. If you anticipate purchasing any quantity of books in the future it would pay to secure a membership.
E. J. Krewson is progressing nicely with his brick manufacturing, having quite a number in the kiln. From present indications, he will have a splendid lot of brick, which is going to be a good thing for our town. There is no question but that if a good and cheap article of brick can be produced in this section a number of brick buildings would be put up here which would lessen the dangers by fire in our town.

C. M. SKEELS,

At the Christian church next Sunday evening. Subject, "How We Got Our Bible." This is a subject that interests everyone, both believers and unbelievers. The Bible, whether we believe it or not, is the most influential book of the age. It is not a modern product. How did we get it? You are invited to attend this lecture. Morning theme: "Why Should we Pray When God Knows What we Need?" At the evening services a duetto "Ashamed of Jesus."
Edly Clinton was on our streets sporting a pair of crutches again last week, this time occasioned by an ugly cut on the shin from an ax, received at the camp of his father last Tuesday afternoon.
Dr. B. F. Parsons, the oculist, goes to Marshfield today to make that place a professional visit. Mr. Parsons' acquaintance is his recommendation. He has a number of customers on the bay who know his work. He will be found at the Central.

Uncle Shad Hudson and J. W. McConnell started for the mines Saturday morning. Mr. Hudson took with him a lot of quartz location notices recently printed at the HERALD office in strict conformity with the late mining laws of Oregon. Locaters will do well in the future to look more closely as to the forms etc., in leasing claims in order to avert legal complications in the future. These blanks are kept on sale at this office.
WANTED—ACTIVE MAN OF GOOD character to deliver and collect in Oregon for old established manufacturing wholesale house, $900 a year, sure pay. Bonuses more than experience required. For references, any bank in any city. Single self-addressed stamped envelope. Manufacturers, Third Floor, 334 Dearborn St. Chicago.
The Mandalay having on board the new large locomotive for our railroad put into Coos bay instead of Coquille on her arrival from San Francisco this trip, from the fact that the landing of this large machine was easier done on the bay than at any point on the river. The draw bridge across Coal Bank slough near Marshfield afforded a very convenient place for this purpose. This is another stride in advance for our railroad company. The new engine will be put in order and will then take the place of No. 2, which is still in the shop for a thorough overhauling.
