The Eleventh Annual Reunion of Coos County Pioneer Society.

Coquille City, Or., August 14th, 1901.

This reunion is held on this 14th day of August, instead of on the 15th, the regular day by order of the president, this being regular train day, so as to give the people of Coos bay and the people from the upper river the benefit of railroad transportation.

The reunion was held in the Collier grove near the depot and the steamer landing.

The meeting was called to order by Isaiah Hacker, the president of the association, who briefly explained the object of the meeting. We were then highly entertained by the Coquille Choral Society with a beautiful song "Let the Hills and Valles Resound."

The president then introduced the Rev. C. A. Stine, who offered a very appropriate prayer for the occasion.

We then listened to a beautiful solo, by Miss Rhinehart.

Hon. Walter Sinclair was then introduced by the president, who delivered the address of welcome.

The president then introduced and had read the following letter from Mrs. Esther M. Lockhart, which speaks for its self:

Marshfield, Or., Aug. 13th 1901.
 MR. I. HACKER, President Pioneer Association, Coquille City, Oregon.

My Dear Friend:

Once more another year has rolled its brief course away and brought again the day of our pioneer reunion. Until almost the last moment, I had hoped to be present on this happy occasion, and help to greet with voice and hand the friends of long ago, but failing health will not allow me this expected pleasure.

It is indeed a deprivation for me to remain away from this reunion, but I shall be with you in spirit, though absent in body.

In imagination, I shall look over the assembly and see there some co-workers with me in the early days, whose heads are blanched like my own, with the frosts of many winters.

During the last year, two of our honored members have answered the call, "Come up Higher," but their places here will not easily be filled. Hoping that your meeting will be a pleasant and profitable one, and that we may all meet again next year, I remain,

Yours Sincerely,
 ESTHER M. LOCKHART.

The Choral Society then rendered a nice piece of music, "Freedom's Banner."

Judge J. Henry Schroeder was introduced, and responded to the address of welcome, in a very happy manner.

Then another song by the Choral Society, "The Whip-poor-will," was rendered, which carried the minds of the old pioneers back to their child-hood days.

The president announced, that there had been five deaths in our society during the last twelve months, and he appointed committees of condolence in each case, with instructions to report in the afternoon, if possible.

The whole congregation was then asked to stand and join in singing that familiar old song "America." Whereupon, the meeting was adjourned for dinner, which had been generously provided and spread upon tables on the ground, by the citizens of Coquille, in honor of the pioneers, and of which all was bountifully served.

At 3 o'clock p. m. the president called the meeting to order and introduced Mrs. Kaykendall of Eugene, Oregon, who gave a talk on the importance of organizing a Cabin of Native daughters of Oregon Pioneers and requested all who wished to become members of such to give their names some time during this afternoon.

The committees of condolence which had been appointed in the morning then offered their reports which consisted of resolutions of respect upon the five members who had passed away since the last meeting of the association, who were Mrs. William Volkmar, of Myrtle Point; Capt. W. H. Harris, of Myrtle Point; Dr. S. L. Leneve, of Coquille; Joseph Collier, of Coquille, and S. H. Hazard, of Marshfield, which reports and resolutions were adopted in full.

On motion duly seconded, it was resolved that our next annual reunion be at Marshfield.

The president appointed the following-named persons a committee to make nominations for officers of the society for the ensuing year, to-wit: J. Henry Schroeder, Charles Hilborn and Charles Eckhoff.

The last above committee made the following report:

"We, your committee on nominations, respectfully recommend the following-named persons for the respective offices for the following year: S. B. Cathcart, president; I. Hacker, 1st vice-president; Mrs. E. M. Lockhart, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. Ada Egenhoff, secretary; B. F. Ross, treasurer; Dr. C. W. Tower, historian and W. D. L. F. Smith, marshal. Said report was upon motion duly adopted, and the above-named persons declared the officers of the society for the ensuing year.

The secretary was then instructed to notify the offices elect of their election.

The following-named persons gave their names and became members of the society, to-wit: M. G. Pohl, arrived in 1859; Shad Hudson, arrived in Oregon in 1847 and in Coos county in 1875; Edwin F. Schroeder, native born, 1868; E. W. Hermann, native born, 1864; Mrs. Alice Hite, native born, 1872; Mrs. A. F. Linegar, native born, 1875; Mrs. S. Gallier, native born, 1862; Mrs. J. C. Moorman, native born, 1874; Mrs. L. J. Paxson, arrived in 1865; J. H. Noster, arrived in 1870; Mrs. Henrietta Noster, arrived in Oregon in 1875.

The following resolutions were offered and adopted, to-wit:

Resolved, that thanks are due our officers for the proficient manner in conducting this annual reunion.

Resolved, that the Coos County Pioneer and Historical Society, tender thanks to the people of Coquille City, for their hospitable welcome at this our Eleventh Annual Reunion.

Resolved, also that we tender our thanks to the Coquille Choral Society for their interesting entertainment.

There being no further business to transact, the meeting adjourned until 8 o'clock p. m. to meet at the court house.

At 8 o'clock the president stated, that it had been the custom of this society to have an evening session after the regular business had been transacted to relate some of their pioneer reminiscences of early history in Coos county, and called upon Judge J. H. Noster "to start the ball rolling," and his talk was followed by B. F. Ross, J. B. Dully, J. J. Lamb, M. G. Pohl, Chas. Eckhoff, Chas. Hilborn, J. W. Mast, J. H. Schroeder and others, which were highly entertaining and enjoyed by the large audience present.

The treasurer of the society, B. F. Ross, reported funds on hand prior to this meeting, $20.80 in hands of Mrs. Ross former secretary, 3.50

From J. J. Lamb, present sec. 8.50

Total, $34.50

The meeting then adjourned to meet at Marshfield one year hence.

J. J. LAMB, Secretary.
 ISALAH HACKER, President.

Coquille Lodge No. -- of the A. O. U. W. was organized at the Masonic hall last Saturday night, with 44 charter members, by Deputy Grand Master H. D. Wagon, assisted by S. B. Cathcart, J. W. Krewson, E. A. Howey and Dr. J. W. Strange. The Lodge is composed of the very best material obtainable and starts out under the most favorable circumstances. All well informed persons in fraternal insurance, societies know that the Workmen is the oldest and most firmly established of all societies. It has passed the experimental stage and is now the most perfect system of assessments which its experience has taught to be the most wise. We bespeak for the new lodge a successful future, and predict good results to the town by having it located here. The officers of the lodge elected and installed were: Alfred Johnson, jr., P. M. W.; J. J. Stanley, M. W.; S. J. Lyons, Foreman; J. M. Hunter, Overseer; G. F. Henninger, Recorder; B. E. Noster, Financier; G. W. White, Receiver; W. H. Mansell, Guide; Chas. McCoy, I. W.; W. S. Jess, O. W.; Walter Colin, M. D. Physician; Trustees, W. H. Lyons, H. T. Schweers and E. M. Gallier.

On his return home after reaching this place from Myrtle Point Saturday evening, Captain Otis Willard found his house lying in ashes and what of his household goods had been saved piled on the river bank. It seems that as Mrs. Willard built her fire to start supper, that the roof took fire from the cooking stove in some manner, and the persons present were unable to handle the fire and the building was soon in ashes. The greater portion of their goods, however, were saved. The trunk of Chief Engineer Fox and Mate Simmons, were up stairs and, with their contents destroyed.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, in and for the County of Coos.
 Nettie Whipple Plaintiff vs.
 S. D. Whipple Defendant.
 Suit in equity for Divorce.

To S. D. Whipple, the above named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby notified that you are required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit in which Nettie Whipple is plaintiff and you, the said S. D. Whipple, are defendant, within six weeks from the 6th day of August, 1901, the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail to appear and answer on or before the 17th day of September, 1901, the same being the last day prescribed in the rules for publication, a judgment will be taken against you for want thereof and the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in her complaint, a succinct statement of which is as follows: That the marriage contract now existing between plaintiff and defendant is dissolved and for her costs and disbursements in this suit.

Service of this summons is made by publication in pursuance of an order made by the Honorable Court Judge for Coos County, Oregon, dated the 5th day of August, 1901, and directing publication of the same in the Coquille City Herald, a newspaper published at Coquille City, Coos county, Oregon, once a week for a period of six weeks.

Life in the County.

The Pittsburgh Commercial Gazette comments with rare good sense upon this subject. After calling attention to the scarcity of farm laborers: "It is a subject for regret, not only upon the ground that agricultural interests are hurt, but it is distinctly unfortunate for a large class of skilled workmen in the various cities that the advantages and opportunities of farm work are not more generally sought. Work of all classes in the cities is performed in the main by specialists. This is growing to be the case more and more each year in every department of professional, commercial and mechanical labor. In the cities only the people with a well-acquired trade or profession stand a chance in the competitions of life. Yet there is in every city a vast number of men who are earning a precarious living by doing the hardest sort of menial labor. Their families are compelled to live in narrow, squalid streets, and their children are being reared in an atmosphere that tends to produce moral depravity. In the agricultural districts there are places for these people which, compared with their present conditions, are positive Edens. They would have to toil, but it is toil under conditions of health and moral cleanliness that compensate a thousand times over for the exertion."

The next question naturally is, why do these laborers not make a change that would be so beneficial to them and their families? There are several reasons. First, they do not realize these advantages. The country wages look low to them.

The city papers do not educate them as to the real advantages of country life; on the contrary, they are apt to poke fun at everything from the country and to magnify the city's advantages. Then, city laborers are like all other classes of people, they prefer to drift along rather than change, always hoping for something to turn up that will lend them a "steady job" at good wages. But probably the greatest hindrance of all is the gregarious tendency of humanity. They prefer the city, where society of some kind is always to be found, to the isolation of the farm. There seems to be no cure for this. While a good many city people have turned to the country of late years, the laborers have not formed a large proportion of them. — National Stockman.
