Another Indian Reservation to be Opened.

Commissioner of the General Land Office Binger Hermann has ordered Surveyor General Kingsbury of the state of Washington to advertise for bids for the survey of the Quinalt Indian reservation. This land is almost entirely within Chehalis county, although Jefferson comes in for a small corner. It is estimated that there will be approximately 225,000 acres subject to entry under the settlement laws, that will make fine agricultural land. Of the Indians on this reservation who have not severed their tribal relations (including females and children), there probably remains about two hundred, each of whom will receive from the government an allotment of eighty acres. This will leave over two hundred thousand acres for the white man. This land is not subject to entry and doubtless will not be many months as the Indian must first be given an opportunity to select the land for himself and family, the survey will be made and his allotment allowed. Then the usual injunction and time killing tactics of the few disgruntled fellows must be gone through before the president's proclamation will be of any service to the intending settler. However, in its own good time the Olympia land office will have the pleasure of writing up about a hundred dozen entries for Uncle Sam's homebuilders.

As shown by the annual reports of the number of persons of school age, the majority of the counties in the Willamette valley have been losing population for the past few years. It is probable however, that a turn will now be made in the right direction. Good, average crops of all kinds this year prevail throughout the valley. The dairy, stock, poultry and fruit industries are all making substantial growth. Potatoes and hay are now good money-bringers. Satisfactory crops of wheat, hops and prunes in the same year will put a great deal more money in circulation in the valley. There are some who fear that the good crop of wheat this year will tend to retard the movement toward a combined system of stock and grain growing, but we believe the experience of the past few years has been so instructive that a great many farmers will take advantage of this year's good crop of wheat to make a start with some kind of stock.—Rural Northwest.

John Chinaman Paid Price and Was Let In.

Washington Aug. 24.—The Treasury officials have unearthed what they allege is a wide conspiracy in Nogales, Ariz., to admit Chinese to the United States. Thus far the collector at Nogales, William Hoey, and Deputy Chinese Inspector B. F. Joasey, Frank Howz and another Chinaman, who lives at Clifton Ariz., have been arrested. Other arrests will follow. It is charged that the Chinese in large numbers have been permitted to cross the border upon the payment to the collector of anywhere from $50 to $200 apiece. Hoey was appointed about a year and a half ago from Indiana.

Imported Cloths Seized.

Burlington, Vt., Aug. 24.—Thirty-six bales of imported cloth, making nearly a full carload, have arrived in this city from Richmond, Vt., where it was seized by Collector Olin Merrill. The cloth was shipped from Montreal to Holyoke, Mass., and is valued at about $30,000. It is subject to nearly its full value in duties.

The cloth was ingeniously packed in a car of paper stock. The center was made up of the waste, and the bales were placed at the ends, where they were less liable to be detected. No arrests have yet been made.

New York, Aug. 20.—There is a renewed feeling of hopefulness in the war in South Africa will soon be at an end, says a London dispatch to the Tribune. The position is different from that obtaining at any time since the outbreak of hostilities in October, 1899. Natal is clear; Cape Colony, is rid of Krizinger; in the Orange River Colony there is practically little opposition, while in the Transvaal there are not many symptoms of Boer activity. Rumors of important developments are freely current.

Lamprey Creek Coal.
 W. H. Logan was down over Sunday from Lamprey Creek where he is building coalbunkers for J. H. Timon. From him we learned that he would probably complete his work by this evening, while from other sources we get further information as to what is to be found at Mr. Timon's mines and what is being done, etc.

Mr. Timon has two veins of coal opened up; one is 4 1/2 feet in thickness, and the other 6 feet. Both veins have sandrock roof and floor. The first is clean without waste, while the second vein contains six inches of clay. He has five other veins which range from 3 feet 8 inches to 10 feet 4 inches, which he will develop later. He owns 183 acres of coal lands and estimates the coal on the same at two million tons. He has his hill bunker completed and as before stated the river bunkers will soon be built, and Mr. T. expects to be ready to ship coal by the middle of September, and he is confident that he can put the mine now being opened up, on a daily out put of 500 tons inside of one year if shipping facilities would favor it.

He has purchased, of W. R. Panter all the "T" rail and cars used in the Bandon Block Coal mines, which with his Rolling stock will enable him to move coal rapidly.

Mr. Timon has named his mine Bunker Hill, and the village which is springing up there is called Carbondale. He sells employes the lot upon which to build their houses and furnishes lumber with which to build, upon the installment plan, thus any one can own a home, and all his land is thrown open for the use of employes. He has fine bottom land for gardens which are free to employes to raise vegetables, etc., without other outlay than the clearing and enclosing.

Application will be made for the establishment of a postoffice at Carbondale, and it is suggested that you keep your eye upon this new place and watch it grow. Two more new houses are under course of construction there at the present writing.—Bandon Recorder.

C. A. Vaughn and wife, of La-pout, Iowa, arrived at this place Saturday for a visit with Mr. Vaughn's sister, Mrs. J. R. Benson. They had not met for twelve years.

J. W. Sears returned Thursday from an extended visit to Indiana and other eastern states. He says that while he had a most enjoyable visit with relatives whom he had not seen for fifty years, the extremes of cold and heat are so great that nothing would induce him to remain there. He was accompanied on his return to this place by a nephew, W. B. Sears, and his wife, who, if the change proves beneficial to his health, will locate here. Jack says Coos county is good enough for him.

The steamer Islander, from Skagway for Vancouver, B. C. struck an iceberg when off Douglas Island and went down with about sixty souls. Among the passengers on the ill-fated ship were A. J. Walker, formerly of this place, and his wife, who were going from Skagway to Wrangell. Allan's many friends here will be pleased to learn that they were among the saved, although Al was spilled from a lifeboat by the parting of the days and was in the water about half an hour before picked up, his father, W. H. Walker, having received a letter to this effect yesterday. After arranging some matters at Wrangell, in connection with his duties as Deputy Inspector of Customs, Mr. Walker and his wife will proceed to this place for a visit with his parents.

The supreme court has rendered a decision in an Astoria case that an incorporated city cannot escape responsibilities through a clause in the charter which provides that the city should not be held liable for damages resulting from defective streets and sidewalks.—Ex.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, in and for the County of Coos.
 Nettie Whipple Plaintiff
 vs.
 S. D. Whipple Defendant.
 To S. D. Whipple, the above-named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby notified that you are required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit in which Nettie Whipple is plaintiff and you, the said S. D. Whipple, are defendant, within six weeks from the 17th day of August, 1901, the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail to appear and answer on or before the 17th day of September, 1901, the same being the last day prescribed in the order for publication, a judgment will be taken against you for want thereof and the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in her complaint, a succinct statement of which is as follows: That the marriage contract now existing between plaintiff and defendant be dissolved and for her costs and disbursements in this suit.

Service of this summons is made by publication in pursuance of an order made by L. Harlocker, County Judge for Coos County, Oregon, dated the 5th day of August, 1901, and directing publication of the same in the Coquille City Herald, a newspaper published at Coquille City, Coos county, Oregon, once a week for a period of six weeks.
 A. J. SHERWOOD,
 Attorney for Plaintiff.
