

LOCAL ITEMS.

The fair opens up today. Fruit jars at the Emporium. Binder twine at J. A. Lamb & Co's. Vegetables constantly on hand at Hersey's.

Canning Bro's Thursday night. Don't forget them.

Mrs. Capt. Butler, of Bandon came up yesterday.

Farmers: Buy your binder twine at J. A. Lamb & Co's.

A new line of A. L. Bryan shoes just arrived at the Emporium.

The Wizard Oil Company next Monday night at Masonic hall.

Four head of gentle young cows for sale. R. D. Sanford, Coquille Oregon.

A full line of Mackintoshes and rubber coats just received at the Emporium.

Snow Drift Flour is the best. Results prove our claim. Every sack guaranteed.

N. Lorenz.

C. E. Stine will sell at private, or public sale all his household goods. He intends leaving in a couple of weeks.

Little Miss Minnie Wright was the lucky one in the drawing for the prize sewing machine at the Emporium.

A few salmon are being taken by fishermen on the lower river. It is hoped a large run will come in this season.

Hank Benham, of this city, departed for Eugene Thursday for the purpose of attending school during the winter.

Messrs Wirth, Auton and Wilfried, of the bay side, returned from their trip to Roseburg the latter part of the week.

Oregon Flour 75 cents per sack at G. A. Robinson's, guaranteed to be as good as any Oregon Valley flour or money refunded.

The Emporium has just received a full and fine line of underwear for men, women and children. For bargains, investigate prices.

A delightful rain fell here Saturday night and Sunday morning. We will not be bothered with dust and smoke for some time, if any more this fall.

Mrs. Geo. N. Goodrich, of Cunningham, has our thanks for a beautiful supply of garden sauce furnished from their fine garden one day last week.

Fish Commissioner Brown has succeeded in finding a site to his liking for the purpose, and will proceed to build a salmon hatchery on the Middle Fork, as we understand, in time to take off a "setting" this season.

E. E. Winters, a young attorney of Crescent City, with whom J. W. Leneve became acquainted while detained there last spring, arrived here last Wednesday and took in the fair while he enjoyed a visit with Mr. L.

W. J. Moon, who has been for the most part, a resident of Roseburg for some time past, returned to Coos county last week and is enjoying a real good visit with his parents and brothers at different points in the county. He returns at once.

H. A. Todd, the broom manufacturer of Arago, was in town Thursday, and called at our sanctum and left three of his splendid brooms with which we will try and sweep some around our own door while we are looking well out for our neighbors' premises.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker, son and daughter Otto and Effie, Mrs. Pickens and son Ollie, Mrs. Milledge, the Misses Miller, Maudie and Nondas and Mrs. Ollier Howard, of Dillard's, are at the beach enjoying an outing. Several of the party were up to town yesterday.

Geo. W. Lano, Pevamo, Mich., writes: "Your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the best remedy for indigestion and stomach trouble that I ever used. For years I suffered from dyspepsia, at times compelling me to stay in bed and causing me untold agony. I am completely cured by Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. In recommending it to friends who suffer from indigestion I always offer to pay for it if it fails. Thus far I have never paid." R. S. Knowlton.

The report of the recent official visit of Grand Patriarch, Judge Ryan, Grand Master Nelson and Grand secretary E. E. Shannon, of the I. O. O. F., at this place escaped our columns last week, but was a grand affair, nevertheless. There was no act program, but all went in for a good social time after the routine of the lodge was over. The members of the Rebekah Degree had an elegant repast prepared in the banquet hall, upwards of 150 persons enjoying the delicacies. This was the biggest time in the history of this lodge.

Fruit jars at Leniger's.

Plenty of flour and feed at the Emporium.

New fancy work materials at Mrs. Moon's.

J. P. Tupper, of Bandon was in town yesterday.

Roof paint and paints of all kind at the Emporium.

Hardy Mast of the North Fork came in yesterday.

You will find the R. & G. corset in a variety of styles at Mrs. Moon's.

Go to Walker's the photographer, on Front St. for good pictures.

Canning Bro's have moving pictures never shown in this place before. Be sure and see them.

Jason Maclado, the popular merchant of Myrtle, went to the lower river yesterday for a visit.

All the sick about town are improving nicely, and it seems our typhoid is in an exceedingly mild form.

N. Lorenz.

FOR SALE—A three-year old filly, will make 1200 or 1300 pound animal. Kind and gentle. Apply at the HERALD.

FOR SALE—An Omega hand separator, 600 capacity—good as new. Apply to Z. C. Strang, Address Coquille.

T. J. McNamer, representing a prominent drygoods establishment of Portland, is in town taking orders.

R. D. Sanford, Coquill, Oregon, offers 160 acres, stock land, part improved, 40 acres bottom, at $12 per acre.

The Rev. Charles Baily, Baptist evangelist, began a series of meetings in the South Methodist church yesterday evening.

A few telephone poles and a small amount of road plank were destroyed by fire near the creamery above town last week.

Sanchez Hays, is the name of the leading cigar now in town and the Lily confectionary has a nice supply in stock. Try one.

M. O. Hawkins sells the Mason fruit jars at prices that would jar you. Pints, quarts and half gallons. Prepare your fruit for the winter.

Dr. Goble the Optician will be at Hotel Coquille, in Coquille City, Monday and Tuesday Sept. 9th and 10th. Glasses fitted. Examination free.

$1300 will buy a 40 acre ranch, only a few miles from town. Mostly bottom land, fine water, better look this up.

R. D. SANFORD Agent, Coquille Oregon

Patrick McCreery, long a resident of Curry county, met sudden death by walking off a dock at Crescent city, Cal., recently, in which accident his neck was broken.

Choice canning or drying prunes at 50 cents per bushel F. O. B. at Coquille City, French (Petite) from Sept. 1st to 15th, Italian from Sept. 19th to 25th. Order early. R. D. Sanford.

Messrs. Hacker, Nasburg and Hirst have sold their Umpqua tract of timber land, consisting of 10,000 acres to a Minnesota firm who expect to build a large mill in the near future.

Mrs. J. Denholm and daughter Christie of Bandon, returned from Myrtle Point the middle of last week whither they had accompanied Miss Jennie Denholm on her way to Oregon City where she goes to attend high school.

George Collier started for Roseburg yesterday morning, for the purpose of taking out Miss Hamilton, of that place, who has been visiting the family of Judge D. L. Watson for several weeks, and Miss Icy March, who goes to Medford to spend the winter.

T. F. Lewis, of Bandon, went to the bay yesterday where he will go on the Brunswick as engineer as she makes her trip to Alaska with E. Henckendorff's wrecking crew to make an attempt to float the James Senate, which is stranded in Alaskan waters.

The tug Reliance came up from San Francisco to the scene of the stranded bark Baloda, bringing a representative of the underwriters who took in the situation, but did not express his opinion in regard to what would be done.

Many physicians are now prescribing Kodol Dyspepsia Cure regularly having found that it is the best prescription they can write because it is the one prescription which contains the elements necessary to digest not only some kind but all kinds and it therefore cures indigestion and dyspepsia no matter what its cause. R. S. Knowlton.

Mason's fruit jars at Hawkins's.

Mrs. Hastings Butter, the best in the market, at Hawkins's.

Baptist revival meeting in progress at the South Methodist church.

Be sure and see the Wizard Oil Company at Masonic hall next week.

Miss Belle Rich went over to Coos river yesterday to visit till Friday.

Judge Schroeder was in town last week and made our office a pleasant call.

Drygoods, groceries, boots and shoes at Lenege's, successor to Sanderson Bros.

The little girl of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Nosler, is improving nicely, being able to be wheeled out in the fresh air.

J. H. Magill, of the North Fork, has been about town for several days. He has not been well for several weeks.

James Armstrong and John Ham-brook, of the lower river, passed through town yesterday, returning from the fair.

Ladies: Now is the time to get your suits made at Mrs. Moon's. Avoid the rush in September. Fall styles are now in.

Don't Pay two prices for your dress hangings and finishings, while Hawkins Store offers the best lines for the least money.

FOR SALE: Eight cows, one two-year-old heifer and six calves. Enquire of or address R. G. McQuigg, Coquille City.

Sermon to children at Prashy-terian church next Sabbath, morning, subject, A Boy who Helped Jesus. Evening subject, The Law and the Gospel Contrasted.

Uncle Bird Vowell brought us a stalk of corn of his own raising in his garden here in town. It is a fine specimen above 10 feet high and developing two large ears.

A letter from Mrs. J. W. Nosler informs us that they are all through to their respective destinations and had a delightful trip, all enjoying themselves immensely all the way through.

Why pay rent and loss all, when you can buy a cheap house and lot from R. D. Sanford for $200 by paying $50. down, and $19 per month without interest and own a home in 15 months.

D. A. Phillips, of Condon, Gilliam county, is in Coos county with his family looking for a suitable location after selling out a band of six or eight span of good horses he brought down with him.

At the Christian Church next Sunday morning the sermon will be on "What is That in Thine Hand?" At the evening service the pastor will give a Chalk-talk on "Religions of the Bible."

A never failing cure for cuts, burns, scalds, ulcers wounds and sores is De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. A most soothing and healing remedy for all skin affections. Accept only the genuine. R. S. Knowlton.

Jame Hatcher and daughter, Miss Ollie, made our office a very pleasant call this morning, the latter presenting us with a beautiful bouquet of cut flowers, too numerous to mention separately, for which she has our thanks.

J. P. Jacobson, who purchased the Kerrigan place over a year ago, but makes his home in Humboldt county, Cal., yet, come up by Friday's Alliance and will look after business interests here until her return from Portland when he will return home.

George Wimer and S. S. Morey arrived in this Valley the latter part of the week from Waldo, Josephine county, where they have been working for some time in the mines. Mr. Morey is a stranger in this section, while Mr. Wimer returns to familiar scenes and many friends, having lived in Coos county for several years on a former occasion, and expects to try farming or dairying in this valley once more.

C. H. Fry, of near town, started for Roseburg this morning taking Rev. C. A. Hyatt, of the M. E. Church South, and family, who will locate somewhere in this state, also Rev. M. O. Brink, of the M. E. church, and family who will go to California, the pastor transferring to the conference of that state. These two gentlemen and their estimable wives have made many friends during the year they have spent among us who regret their leaving and whose best wishes go with them wherever they go.

Our young friend, E. M. Kay, of Riverton, who has been down in Humboldt county, California, for for a time, returned last week. He tells of real interesting scenes being enacted recently among persons who take part in strike matters. The Steamer Eureka which was forced to obtain a union crew before she could leave San Francisco, was prevented from landing at Eureka by non-union men for that reason. This seems almost next to be "between the devil and the deep sea." The dairymen of that section have been compelled to ship their butter by vessels running to southern California ports, passing San Francisco by on account of the strike.

Attorney L. A. Roberts was in town today.

Jas. D. Clinton, of Arago, was in town last week.

John Shuck, of Gravel Ford, was in town yesterday.

Mrs. A. A. Leach has returned from her trip down the river.

Some good second-hand doors cheap—Call at the Tuttle Hotel 2nd Johnson's Mill started up yesterday morning after a rest of several days.

Go to Hersey's for your edibles. Hersey keeps all kind of vegetables on hand.

Joe Laird is bringing in some fine peaches from Looking Glass which he sells in this valley.

The Vandeville feature of Canning Bro's show is all right. You will miss it if you don't see this show.

Johnnie Roberts, of the Myrtle Point Enterprise, came down this morning, having business with the HERALD.

At Masonic Hall Thursday night—Canning Bro's Moving Picture and Vaudeville show. Admission, 15, 25 and 35.

Miss Tony Piltz, of Portland, who has been visiting Mr. Boyrie's for several weeks, returned to her home Saturday.

Quite a number of persons came over from Marshfield by yesterday morning's train, having stayed till the fair was over.

Have you tried "Liquid Electricity?" It is one of the finest liniments out. Will Oddy is selling it in this section.

Remember that a week from yesterday the Wizard Oil Company will begin an engagement of several nights at Masonic Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Vaughn, of Iowa, who are here visiting Mrs. Benson, of Myrtle Point, went to Bandon to take in the sights.

Fred Leniger, successor to Sanderson Bros., invites his friends and the public generally to come in and see his stock and get prices.

Those who have subscribed to the new road down the river are urged to pay the same within a day or so, as delay may defeat the road.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. James started for Saver, Polk county, where they will visit for a month with a brother of Mr. James. We wish them a pleasant trip.

Dr. J. W. Strange will start for Curry county on September 12th to be absent for three weeks. During that time his Coquille office will be closed.

Elder H. N. Black, of Sunner, came over the first of this week to be in attendance at Mrs. Baily's protracted meetings which began yesterday evening.

You will miss it if you buy a farm before consulting R. D. Sanford, the agent, who has some of the choicest properties and will make it an object for you to deal with him.

A buggy cushion found on the Myrtle Point Coquille road by Jesse McQuigg has been left at this office for its owner, who will describe and take the same.

Mrs. J. T. Jenkins and all her children, except the eldest, Miss Allie, return from Hoquiam, Washington, Sunday afternoon, having come in by way of Roseburg. They are delighted to be home again.

Norris Silver, Forth Stratford, N. H.: "I purchased a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure when suffering with a cough doctors told me was incurable. One bottle relieved me, the second and third almost cured. To-day I am a well man." R. S. Knowlton.

Mrs. R. E. Buck returned from a visit of several days to Bandon yesterday. While there she visited the stranded Baloda while there, and she informs us that she sits high and dry at low tide, one being able to walk all around her, but at high tide she still moves some with the swell. It is hoped she may be floated yet.

The Wizard Oil Company, one of the best theatrical troupes which has ever visited this section, and while ostensibly advertising the popular remedy Wizard Oil, will begin performances which will last for several days, next Monday evening. The advertising scheme enables them to give a first class show for a very low admission fee. Come out and hear them.

Messrs. Mead and Dempsey returned from their trip down the river the latter part of the week and were in town a couple of days. Mr. Dempsey found friends in the Johnson family, of this place, he having been raised at Manistee, Michigan, where Mr. Johnson's lived many years. Mrs. Albert and Alfred Johnson, Jr., having been playmates of his older brother, however Johnny was young when they removed from there and does not remember much about them, nevertheless, Mr. J's folks were pleased to see him and have a talk over familiar scenes and old friends.

BORN.

Flynn—Near Fairview, August 23, 1901, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Flynn, a daughter.

THE ROAD TO PROSPERITY

IS TO TRADE AT THE

EMPORIUM

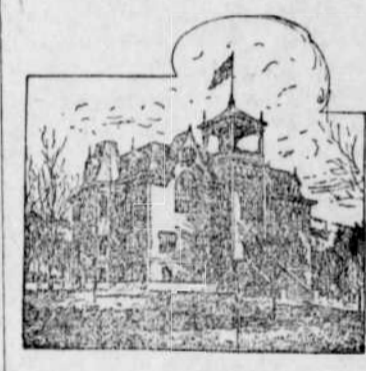

There shall be no twisting of the Truth to make you buy at the EMPORIUM.

No Cheap John advertised goods Used as leaders to decieve. Little Talk Necessary to Sell Our Goods.

That our Prices are right is Conceded by all. Our Aim is Quick Sales and Small Profits. Our Line is Strong in DRYGOODS, SHOES, GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, TOBACCOES, PAINTS and OILS, SHELF HARDWARE, NAILS, DECORATED CROCKERY, WALL PAPER, GLASSWARE, Etc.

C. M. SKEELS,

Southern Oregon State Normal SCHOOL, ASHLAND, OREGON.

Strong Academic Course. Professional training of the highest excellence. First-Class Training Department. Well Equipped Laboratories. Demand for Trained Teachers Exceeds the Supply. Graduates Easily Secure Good Positions. Beautiful Location. Most Desirable Climate in the Northwest. Expenses from $120 to $150 per year. Fall Term begins September 5th. W. M. CLAYTON, Pres.

Write for Catalogue.

J. A. LAMB & CO.,

Hardware, Stoves, Tin and Agate ware, Doors and Windows, Lime and Cement, Agricultural Implements, Paints and Oils, GALSS. Best Goods - Lowest Prices.

NOTICE.

All persons that signed the subscription for Coquille Riverton and Lampey creek road are notified to pay in their subscription by Sept. 7th.

For Sale.

A first-class Estey Oregon. Inquire of C. A. Stine. Will sell cheap.

At a Bargain.

Wagon, harness and team. Horses will weigh about 1300 each, 8 years old, gentle and true, single or double. 11 head of calves, 4 yearling steers, 2 No. 1 milch cows 13 year old shorthorn bull. Address J. E. Fitzgerald, Coquille City, Or., or call at Lampey creek.

Mrs. J. S. Coke visited her daughter, Mrs. Judge Harlocker, at this place from Friday till yesterday, when she returned to Marshfield. She had also been up to the farm at Brewster, coming in with Neva Harry last week.

The Oregonian.

Takes the market news of San Francisco by wire prints it daily and distributes it in Coos county 24 hours ahead of the Bay City papers. It also serves the arrival and departure of vessels at all Pacific coast ports. For this part of the country its columns "Domestic and Foreign ports," is the best shipping guide. Besides giving the movements of steam vessels between San Francisco, Coquille river, Coos Bay and Portland, it notes the arrival and departure of sailing schooners at and for their ports. The Oregonian is the only Morning Daily coming in here which advertises Coos county abroad. The Weekly Oregonian gives all the news of our state and 54 columns of general telegraphic news of the world each week. It will be sent in connection with the HERALD for only $2 per year. Here is your chance for County, State and National News. Anyone wishing Kirkpatrick's famous liniment will always find it at Rich's grocery store.

LEVI STRAUSS & CO'S ENGINEER'S OVERALLS

Every Garment Guaranteed. Factory, San Francisco, Cal.