STRIKERS WIN THEIR POINT.

Union Recognized by San Francisco Employers.

San Francisco, Oct. 3.—The teamsters' and longshoremen's strike was settled late yesterday, the employers conceding recognition of the union. The industrial inactivity which has prevailed in this city for so many months on account of the labor troubles has been dispelled, and today the manufacturing and wholesale districts are assuming their normal condition.

The agreement entered into by the Employers' Association and the strikers late yesterday afternoon will be followed by a general resumption of business throughout the state. Crops will commence to move, the shipping interests will again become active, and the manufacturing will take up the thread of their business where it was broken off at the outset of the strike.

In this city trucks are moving in every direction in ever-increasing number, unaccompanied by the special police guard sworn in to protect the drivers who took the places of strikers. It is expected that before another fortnight has passed the business of the state will have recovered in a great measure from the tieup caused by the strike.

CUP WILL REMAIN.

Columbia Defeated Shamrock in the Third Race.

New York, Oct. 4.—With victory flags floating from her towering masthead and the ends of her spinnakers in honor of her concluding triumph in the cup races of 1901, the gallant sloop Columbia returned to her anchorage tonight under the escort of the entire excursion fleet. She today completed her defense of the honored trophy in another stirring race with Shamrock II over a leeward and windward course of 30 miles, crossing the finish line two seconds behind her antagonist, but winning, on the time allowance conceded by the Lipton boat, by 41 seconds. For the second time she has now successfully foiled the attempt of the Irish knight to wrest from her possession the cup that means the yachting supremacy of the world. And plucky Sir Thomas Lipton, standing on the bridge of the Erin, led his guests in three hearty hurrahs for the successful defender.

"She is the better boat," he said, "and she deserves to be cheered." The series of races just closed will always be memorable as the closest ever sailed for the cup, and Sir Thomas, although defeated, will go home with the satisfaction of knowing that his golden yacht is the ablest foreign boat that ever crossed the Western Ocean. During both series of races not an outward incident has occurred, and Sir Thomas will return to England by far the most popular of all the foreigners who have challenged for the America's trophy.

Messrs. Worthington and McClay, who are connected with the coal prospecting operations at Eckley, were in town Wednesday enroute to Portland.

Wm. Chandler, of this place, received a letter this week from his son Charles, dated at Auckland, New Zealand, to which place the barque Otaga, of which he is second mate, had put in distress on Aug. 21, after a narrow escap from being wrecked in one of the worst storms, according to a clipping from an Auckland paper, that ever visited that section.

Frank Harnish, of Gravel Ford, while in a hurry to reload a shot gun cartridge today, got hold of one that was loaded but the cup of which had been dented by the gun, and thinking it to be an empty shell, attempted to extract the primer when the shell exploded, badly mutilating his left hand. Dr. Roberts is dressing the wound as we go to press and we did not learn the extent of the injury.

Married, at the residence of the bride's parents, in this city, Sunday, Sept. 29, 1901. Leader Barklow and Miss Lucy A. Orr, Rev. J. F. Stevens, of the German Baptist church, performing the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. W. Orr, and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Barklow, and both are well known and popular young people of Myrtle Point.

The editor of this paper strongly endorses the action of General Charles H. Grosvenor, in requiring a certain share of the proceeds from the sale of his book to be set aside for a McKinley Monument Fund. Our readers will see an advertisement of this book in another column of this paper.

The James Sennett Given Up.

The wrecking steamer Brunswick which took E. Heuckendorf and crew to Behring Sea, the scene of the stranded James Sennett on Unimak island, returned to Coos bay last Wednesday, bringing back only the vessel's rigging, the scheme of floating her having been abandoned. We enjoyed an exceedingly pleasant visit Friday and Saturday from our old friend and former townsman, Hans Christensen who was mate on the Sennett at the time she went ashore, and who told us a very interesting story of his experience during the time he was left in charge of the vessel until relieved by the arrival of the Brunswick. It was on the 7th of August that the Sennett went ashore, and her captain returned, leaving Mr. Christensen with the rest of the crew in charge. A letter was written to him to have the crew, except himself and two more men come down on a revenue cutter which was there at the time of the writing, but the day before he received the letter, the boat had come away, thus leaving him with a large crew of men and not much provisions. However, it was not very long before another steamer came along and he got an opportunity to send away all the men he did not need, but was unable to add much to his stores from her, so he was compelled to remain there with a very small variety of edibles till the arrival of the Brunswick. The island upon which they were stranded is about one hundred miles in length by fifty in width, and totally uninhabited by people, but while they were there a band of Indians came over to the island to hunt for moose, and when they had good luck hunting they gave the boys a nice lot of the venison. It also happened to be in the berry season and they were able to find an abundance of moss and strawberries which added greatly to their comfort.

Upon the arrival of the Brunswick it was soon determined that it would be impossible to float her and the crew set to work to strip her of all that could be removed, which amounted to about $22,000 in value. This rigging will be used to rig a new vessel built to suit it, the contract for which Capt. Hans Reed has secured, and the keel and other timbers are being gotten out at Buckley's camp at the north end of town.

(Hudson Recorder.)

The salmon catch was quite large on Monday night and Tuesday, the number of fish delivered to the cannery on Tuesday being about 4000.

W. H. and J. E. Peck, left here Monday, for the mines, near the Zumwalt place on Sixes river. They took along quite an outfit of stoves, provisions and supplies generally. V. R. Buckingham took them down.

Elbert Dyer caught three bear last week near his sawmill, on the Fisher place. The lot consisted of an old one and two cubs. They were caught in a trap during three successive nights, the mother bear being the last one caught.

A small panther has been seen on two or three occasions, during the past three weeks, in the woods a mile or so south of Rosa's mill. It has done no damage so far except to deplete some of the poultry yards for residents in that vicinity.

Now that our electric lights are an assured fact which adds a very important industry to our list, our people should not be slow to come to the front and throw all patronage possible into the support of this institution. Why go wild over an oil well, when the machinery and money put into its development would put in an electric plant which gives a light much more satisfactory. The danger of explosions is averted, the nuisance of the oil lamps with its smoky, greasy orders and the endless amount of care and bother is done away with, and no doubt but the dangers by fire reduced to a minimum. For the present, our town will use for street lighting the thirty-two candle-power incandescent light for which negotiations are now being made with Mr. Morse.

C. M. Phelps, Forestdale, Vt., says his child was completely cured of a bad case of eczema by the use of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of all counterfeits. It instantly relieves piles. R. S. Knowlton.

Miss Belle Eckhoff Dead.

Yesterday's train bore the body of Miss Belle Eckhoff from Myrtle Point to Marshfield for burial, she having died on Sunday at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Baker, of the South Fork above Myrtle Point. Miss Belle was a daughter of the old and respected pioneers, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eckhoff, of Yarrow. We are unable to learn her age, and the time of her death, and the exact circumstances, but as has been previously mentioned, she was suffering from typhoid, but was thought to be improving. This is a case wherein another of Coos county's bright and highly respected young native daughters has been cut down in the flower of her youth to the regret of many sorrowing relatives and friends. The sympathy of the whole of our people go out for these bereaved parents, brother and sisters.

Chas. Farrier, of Langlois, Curry county, was in town last Saturday and Sunday renewing old acquaintances. It will be remembered that Mr. Farrier was one of the boys belonging to the squad organized by our townsman, J. S. Kanematz, during the late Spanish-American war, and made a part of Separate Company K, Oregon National Guards. The company under Capt. Smith tendered its volunteer services to the government at that time, but there being no urgency then, it failed to see active service and was disbanded a few years later. Mr. F. has since been traveling through Washington and Idaho seeking employment in labor fields. He reports Isom Cox, Jim Haft and Clinton Malehorn, all of whom belonged to the same militia company (and are remembered by us) well and residing now at Druryville, their former home.

Jacob Croy returned Saturday from his visit out at Phoenix, this state, accompanied by his daughter Mrs. Harrington, his son George, and Mrs. H's little boy. The old gentleman is looking well and seems to be pleased to be among his many old friends, all of whom were glad to see them back again.
