 A. E. Seaman, the attorney of Marshfield, returned from up the river the last of the week where he had been to bid on the Hoover saw and shingle mill which was sold at chattel mortgage sale last week. His bid took the mill.
 Judge Harlocker received word from the superintendent of the "insane asylum at Salem to the effect that William Panter from this county, had escaped from that institution on the 29th. of September and that no trace of him could be found.
 Top Neal, of Curry county, went to the bay by yesterday's train en route to San Francisco where he goes for medical treatment. He is suffering severely with lung trouble. We hope he may be greatly benefited and return to health and usefulness.
 F. M. Stewart, of our Marble Works, went to the bay yesterday to do some cemetery work for Messrs. Bonebrake, Granby and Kerr. He was accompanied by our townsman and mason, E. A. Howey, who will assist in the capping work.
 When you wake up with a bad taste in your mouth, go at once to R. S. Knowlton's drug store and get a free-sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. One or two doses will make you well. They also cure biliousness, sick headache and constipation.
 On Thursday evening of last week the Christian Endeavor Society of this place held a business session at the home of our townsman, Alfred Johnson, and after the disposition of the business matters, an exceedingly pleasant social evening was spent by those present.
 Misses Blanch Bates and Elsie Wirth returned yesterday from a visit of several weeks in the Port Orford section, which they enjoyed very much. Miss Bates will go to San Francisco on the first Alliance, but will return in a few weeks and visit her old Coos county friends more extensively.
 J. H. Roberts, of the Roberts Wrecking and Salvage Co., of Portland, returned Friday from a second visit to the scene of the stranded Baroda, this time accompanied by Capt. W. Burns, of Belfast, England, who is one of the principal owners of the Baroda and also an expert in such cases, and it is their purpose to go ahead with the work of floating this vessel in the near future. Owing to the rocky formation of a portion of the beach between where the vessel lies and the mouth of the Coquille the idea of bringing her up the coast has been abandoned, and she will be taken direct from the beach to the open sea and thence to Coos bay where she will be prepared for sea again. This is a big undertaking, but there is no question but this company can remove her if it is possible at all, as they have demonstrated their ability on former occasions.

 F. P. Mergell, of this place, who went up to Fishtrap last week and was helping Mr. Morgan take care of the crop, ect., on the J. J. Lamb place returned home somewhat indisposed. We presume he will be all right in a short time.
 F. E. Clayton, of the broom-handle mill below Bandon, was up to town Friday. He informs us that they have the new tubes in their boiler, having done the work themselves, and have their saw-mill running in good shape.
 There is considerable complaint about persons running deer with dogs in open violation of law, comes from different quarters of the county, and if it is not stopped there will be reports made and the offenders will find themselves in the toils.
 The excitement incident to traveling and change of food and water often brings on diarrhoea, and for this reason no one should leave home without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.
 A letter received by J. S. Kanematz from our former townsman, and superintendent of the county farm, A. B. Tozer, informs us that Mr. T. is in the grocery business at Ashland, this state, with a Mr. Wise, and with prospects good before them.
 160 acres for sale. 3 of a mile from river. Enough red cedar to cut 1,000,000 shingles, good grazing and fruit land with fine bottom land garden of about 3 acres, and 100 young fruit trees set, few bearing. Fine coal on place. Would take good team as part pay, and give time on part. Inquire of the Herald.
 The following is the list of passengers arriving at Bandon by the last Mandalay from San Francisco: Mrs. W. J. Fairman and two children, Capt. W. Burns, of Glasgow, England, one of the owners of the stranded Baroda, V. Wakeman, Miss Ellen Ellingson, of Bear creek, and F. E. Palmer, of the Bandon Woolen mill. There were 300 tons of freight for our merchants.

 Get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets at R. S. Knowlton's drug store. They are easier to take and more pleasant in effect than pills. Then their use is not followed by constipation as is often the case with pills. Regular size, 25c. per box.
 The Marshfield boys have re-organized their football team and expect to contribute same to the interests of our winter sports and amusements. It is probable a match game will be arranged for between this team and that of Eureka, California.
 W. P. Zimmermann, of the Zimmermann-Wells Machinery Co., of Portland, solicited orders among our logging people last week with good success. This company is putting out some especially fine machinery for logging purposes, of which some of our people took advantage.
 If you want to buy a farm or other property in the Coquille valley, our advice may save you more than the commission, though you had to pay it your self, which is seldom the case. You will find us posted on locations and environments. R. D. Sanford.
 Messrs. Young & Albee, the Fishtrap shinglemill men, came to town Friday to remove their engine just received from Portland from the car and arrange it for transportation to the mill. We hope to see these gentlemen turning out shingles at a rapid rate in the very near future.
 Capt. Hans Reed, of Marshfield, came over yesterday with a crew of ten men who will proceed to get on the keel and keelsons of the new vessel which will be built in his yard at that place at once. The timbers will be 20x24 inches, two 110 feet each, and one 96 and one 86 feet in length. The timbers will be gotten out at the camp of John Buckley just north of town, and floated to Lyons' mill to be loaded onto the cars. It will take good trees to get these timbers from, as they must be perfectly sound and entirely free from pitch rings, etc.
 We have just received "The Manufacturers' Directory" of Seattle, Washington, a neat little pocket book of reference, containing a full and complete list of commodities manufactured, and by whom, in Seattle and vicinity, published by the Manufacturers' Association, of that place. These lists will be furnished free to anyone applying for the same to the Manufacturers' Association, 218 Second Ave. South, Seattle, Wash. It would be a good idea for all dealers to look well over this list before ordering elsewhere and always patronize Pacific coast institutions as much as possible.

If you wish to rent a house, call at the Herald office.
 Uncle Fred Scheiter, of Empire, went to Bandon Friday.
 Capt. Racleff, of Myrtle Point, was a visitor to our city on Friday.

 The large residence of J. W. Nosler, east of the Herald office is for rent. Apply at the new store in the Odd Fellows' building.
 Rev. C. A. Stockwell of the M. E. church, who takes the Myrtle Point charge for the ensuing year, arrived last week and held services Sunday.
 Do you suffer from piles? If so do not turn to surgery for relief. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will act more quickly, surely and safely, saving you the expense and danger of an operation. R. S. Knowlton.
 A trespass case, Davis vs. McDunnatt, from Tenmile, was tried before Justice Cecil in this place yesterday, Judge Hyde, of Marshfield, being on a visit up in Washington. The case was settled before coming to trial, the defendant paying the costs.
 W. L. Mast, of this place, who is setting poles for Mr. Morse, our electric light man, between the plant at Johnson's Mill and Myrtle Point, is within a mile or so of that place, and wiring that town and other preparations are being made to have electric lights going there in the near future.
 The James Bro's, have decided to have their engine built at Coos bay, and have placed an order with the Marshfield Iron Foundry to do the work. The machine will be built according to orders and will be an improvement on the first, being heavier and of good material. This is a great convenience to be able to have work of this kind done at home, and this fact should never be lost sight of by those with work to be done.
 F. W. Wright, of the Capt. Butler place near Arago, was in town yesterday and informed us that he is very well pleased with his start already made in the chicken industry. Although he was late getting here he has 240 chicks hatched after his arrival here which are doing well, by another year he will have a fine flock of full blood brown Leghorn for layers beside a number of fancy fowls of different kind.
 The steamer Welcome carried an excursion party to Lamprey Creek on Friday evening where a large crowd gathered and enjoyed the "light fantastic" till the "wee sma hours" of the following morning. The dance was given in the hall recently erected by George Colvin and Will Toller. There was a good crowd and a very enjoyable time was had by all who attended. It seems that place is getting somewhat metropolitan, sporting a hall for amusements, ect., but it is all right. With the assurance given by the mine of Mr. Timon at that point, such things are bound to follow.
Stricken With Paralysis.
 Henderson Grimett, of this place, was stricken with partial paralysis and completely lost the use of one arm and side. After being treated by an eminent physician for quite a while without relief, my wife recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and after using two bottles of it he is almost entirely cured.—Geo. R. McDonald, Man, Logan county, W. Va. Several other very remarkable cures of partial paralysis have been effected by the use of this liniment. It is most widely known, however, as a cure for rheumatism, sprains and bruises. Sold by R. S. Knowlton.
