A Victory For Honest Butter.

The debate which was held in the Farmers' National Congress at Sioux Falls, S. D., last week, was one of the most spirited and interesting of the year.

Chas. Y. Knight, secretary of the National Dairy Union, presented a most sweeping indictment against the fraud, under the title, The Truth About Oleomargarine. It was a stunning arrayal of the swindling and law breaking methods of the oleo gang, from the manufacturers to the smallest retail dealer.

Hon. J. Sterling Morton, of Nebraska, ex-secretary of agriculture, was put forward by the oleo interest. But his defense was a most lame and impotent affair. Evidently Mr. Morton felt the truth of the Shakesperean adage, "Thrice armed is he who hath his quarrel just." No man can defend a cheat and counterfeit before an audience of intelligent American farmers and make any headway, no matter how able he is.

The debate lasted a half day and speeches were made against the fraud, by W. D. Hoard, president of the National Dairy Union, and G. L. Flanders, Ass't Commissioner of Agriculture, in New York.

The ringing resolutions adopted the next day in favor of the passage of the Grout bill, without a dissent ing voice, gave evidence that the effort of the National Cattle Growers' Association and its backer, the oleo gang, to capture the congress, had shot wide of the mark.

There is a deeper sentiment than ever among the farmers of the country, that oleomargarine in the semblance of butter, should be taxed to extinction. They are in no humor, either, to brook interference with this purpose, on the part of party leaders.

By way of emphasis and to give assurance that the passage of the resolution was not the result of ephemeral excitement, the convention on a subsequent day elected Mr. Flanders its president for the year, a most fitting complement to an honorable gentlemen and an unrelenting foe of counterfeit butter, and therefore a firm believer in, and advocate of, the Grout Bill.—Hoard's Dairyman.

A short while ago The Cosmopolitan published an article by a well-known writer under the nom de plume of Rafford Pike on "What Women Like in Men," which created wide interest, not only in America, but also in England. The Review of Reviews, of London, said that the article showed "rare sympathy, rare penetration and knowledge of woman's nature." In The Cosmopolitan for October the same author discusses with brilliance and keenness "What Men Like in Women." There are few in all the world who would not care to possess the passports to a man's or a woman's affection, and it is doubtful if truer words were ever written about a problem which has occupied the world from the earliest days of which there is any record than those of this pointed little essay.

Many Italians Discharged.

New York, Oct. 14.—Il Novimento, an Italian paper published in Paterson, N. J., makes the statement that scores of Italians have been discharged from the silk mills in that city since the assassination of the president because of their nationality. The paper stongly protests, and declares that there was nothing in common between the Italians and McKinley's slayer.

To Cross the Atlantic Ocean in a Balloon.

New York, Oct. 14.—The Marseilles correspondent of the World, explaining the attempt of Count Henry de la Vaulx to cross the Mediterranean sea in a balloon from Paris to Central Russia a year ago, the Count has repeatedly declared his belief that it is practicable to cross the Atlantic in this way, and has expressed a hope that he may prove that belief, promising to undertake the trip as soon as he can. This present balloon voyage may be deemed a mere preliminary experiment to something of this sort.

Paragraphs from the Scientific American.

Wireless telegraphy seems to have a great future in the Sahara Desert, as communications can be readily set up between the oases—and there are no wires to steal.

An automobile took fire recently at Springfield, Mass., and the driver, with presence of mind, ran the burning machine to the nearest fire house and asked the firemen to extinguish the flames. The firemen were quite surprised at having a fire brought to their doors.

The first railway systems of the wold were inaugurated in the following years, says The Mechinical Engineer: England, September 27, 1825; Austria, September 30, 1828; France, October 2, 1828; America, December 28, 1629; Belgium, May 3, 1835; Germany, December 7, 1835; Russia, April 4, 1838; Italy, September 4, 1839.

While large shoe factories in Germany have combined, independant shoemakers are seeking to obtain the advantages of production on a large scale without giving up their individuality. A meeting was recently held in Frankfort to discuss the advisability of establishing a central workshop for the local shoe concerns and a committee was appointed to devise a plan. It proposed to start a factory with the most modern machinery where every member can have his work done. This is said to be the first attempt in Germany at a co-operative factory. The work will be pushed and the provincial government will materially assist the new enterprise.

For the prevention of collisions at sea during a fog, Capt. Brinkworth, of Gloucester, England, has designed a novel compass card. The object of his device is that a certain signal should be sounded to denote from what direction the vessel is approaching. He has drawn up a list of signals corresponding to various points of the compass, and when a vessel signals in a certain manner a glance at the card denotes its position and course. The present system of blowing frequent long blasts is extremely unsatisfactory, since it does not signify the course of the approaching vessel. It may be coming end on or broadside. By means of Capt. Brinkworth's compass card each vessel would know the course of the other, and thus be enabled to avoid a collision.

Ha Ting Han Ashore.

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 13.—In a dense fog, the Canadian Pacific steamer Ha Ting from Skagway to Vancouver, went ashore yesterday afternoon at Tucker bay, Jervis island, and is now hard and fart on the rocks. The place is a small rocky islet lying to the northeast of Lasquetti island, at the entrance to Sabine strait, 49 miles nort of Vancouver.

When the steamer went ashore Captain Gosse was on watch, and First Officer Newrotsos was on the bridge with the master of the vessel. The fog at the time was so dense that it was impossible to see 15 feet in any direction. The Ha Ting had on board 170 passengers, of whom 130 were first-class and 40 second-cabin. There was no panic when the steamer struck, and the passengers were soon made aware that no danger was to be apprehended. After examination of the steamer, when it was found that she could not get off the rocks by her own efforts, the captain started Pilot Gunns off to Vancouver in a ship's boat with four men. Gunns rowed down, arriving in Vancouver this afternoon. He met no steamer until his crew had rowed 35 miles of the distance, when a tug picked them up.

Vancouver, B. C. Oct. 13.—The latest reports from the steamer Ha Ting are to the effect that a big hole has been discovered in the steamer's bottom. It is stated that at high tide the stern is under seven feet of water. The passengers have all been landed on adjacent islands.

Epidemic of Bank Robberies in the East.

Galion, O., Oct. 15.—The vault of the Farmers & Citizens bank at Tyro, a small town near here, was wrecked early today by six robbers, who secured the contents and escaped. It is said the vault contained $40,000. A posse and bloodhounds are on the trail of the robbers.

Mount Vernon, O., Oct. 15.—The vault of the bank at Danville, O., was blown open early today by a gang of eight robbers. Five charges of dynamite were used, and the bank building, as well as the vault were wrecked. The explosions aroused the citizens, and a pitched battle took place, during which the thieves took flight. At least one of the robbers was wounded in the fight.

Banker Wolfe says that the robbers got little of value so far as he can now tell.

Mason City, Ia., Oct. 15.—The safe of the bank at Rudd was blown open by dynamite last night, and the robbers got $3500. They escaped on a handcar and took to the woods.

A Typical South African Store.

O. R. Larson, of Bay Villa, Sunday River, Cape Colony, conducts a store typical of South Africa, at wich can be purchased anything from the proverbial "needle to an anchor." This store is situated in a valley nine miles from the nearest railway station and about twenty-five miles from the nearest town. Mr. Larson says: "I am favored with the custom of farmers within a radius of thirty miles, to many of whom I have supplied Chamberlain's remedies. All testify their value in a household where a doctor's advice is almost out of the question. Within one mile of my store the population is perhaps sixty. Of these, within the past twelve months, no less than fourteen have been absolutely cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This must surely be a record." For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Both Has Escaped.

London, Oct. 11.—The wholly unsatisfactory situation in South Africa continues to call out the most severe criticism. Lord Kitchener today wires that General Botha has crossed the Pivaau river, 20 miles north of Vryheld, which means that he has again escaped the British cordon.

General Buller, in a speech this afternoon, complained of the general criticism, especially in the newspapers, of himself. He admitted he had advised General Sir George White that it would possibly be necessary to surrendery Ladysmith, but, bearing in mind all the circumstannces of the case, he was quite prepared to let the public judge of the justifiability of the newspaper attacks.

Effort Has Failed.

New York, Oct. 14.—The Constantinople correspondent of the World cables the following additional points of interest concerning the attempts to rescue Miss Stone.

"The first negotiations with the brigands who kidnaped Miss Stone, the American missionary, and are now holding her for $110,000 ransome, have fallen through, owing to an attempt bv the Bulgarian policce to trap the outlaws. It is believed, however, that Miss Stone and her companion, Mrs. Tsilka, are being well treated.

New York, Oct. 14.—Word comes from Boston, in a special to the World, that Mrs. Stone, mother of Miss Ellen M. Stone, is sinking under the strain of the anxiety concerning her daughter.

Kruger Still Confident.

New York, Oct. 11.—A dispatch to the Times from Berlin says: The second aniversary of the declartion of war with Great Britian by the South African Republic and Orange Free State was selected by local journalists as a suitable opportunity to interview the former President of Transvaal on the situation in South Africa. Mr. Kruger excused himself on the grounds of his poor health, but he possessed the same unalterable faith regarding the issue of the struggle.

Flags at Half-Mast Until Saturday.

Washington, Oct. 14.—The flags on the White House and other executive departments ware still at half-mast today, although 30 days have elapsed since the late President McKinley died. President Roosevelt has decided that the 30 days did not begin until the day of the funeral at Canton, which was September 19, and the flags on all public buildings, military post, consular and diplomatic building will be kept at half-mast until October 19.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.
F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:
BALTIMORE, Md., March 30, 1901.
Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.
About five years ago my right ear began to sing, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.
I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.
I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours.
