Ralph E. Nosler who has been for some time connected with the tonsorial parlors of M. McDonald, has secured rooms in the building recently vacated by the restaurant and bakery and will hereafter conduct a business of his own. His art and skill are well known to our people and require no recommendation from us.

H. F. Tenuison, of this place, while out hunting with some parties out back of Randolph last week, got separated from the others and lost himself in the woods. There was great anxiety and quite a number of persons turned out in search of him till he found himself, which was on the day following, having spent a night in the woods. He is all right now, however, not as much as suffering a cold from his experience.

Miss Reta Sinclair, daughter of Hon. Walter Sinclair, of this city, had a very narrow escape from injury on the 25th ult. She, with two other young ladies were running up and down on the trunk elevator at St. Helea's Hall, at Portland when they lost control of the machine. The other two girls were plunged to the basement 30 feet below and their ankles badly broken and bruised, but Miss Reta caught to the railing of the 3rd story landing and drew herself up unharmed, a feat upon which she is to be congratulated.

The tract of timber land, recently sold by T. Y. Callaghan to F. A. Kribs is situated on the South Fork of the Coquille adjacent to the North Carolina settlement. It contains 1155 acres and includes some of the choicest and best located cedar claims on the river. With the exception of a few scattered pieces this practically puts all the timber on and tributary to the South Fork in the hands of Minneapolis parties.

There was a hot football game took place at Marshfield Sunday between two teams of that place known as the Bone Crushers and Razorbacks. The result stood 11 to nothing in favor of the Bone Crushers, who were led by Capt. J. W. Quick. The Razorbacks were led by—Krusz, who received a fracture of one wrist, and Charley McKnight got one ankle badly sprained. The people of the bay are very enthusiastic over the game, and seem to be somewhat disappointed at the Coquille not getting up a team to make a good contest with the bay side.

Arthur Ellingson will build the hull at once which will be 35 feet in length and 8 feet beam. This will certainly be a great convenience to the farmers of this branch of the river, as most of the good weather in the fall is used in harvesting crops, and the roads get bad before they can be gotten to market. This will give the people a chance to get all their produce out and their goods in return at all times of the year.

To the Public.

Allow me to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I had a very severe cough and cold and feared I would get pneumonia, but after taking the second dose of this medicine I felt better, three bottles of it cured my cold and the pains in my chest disappeared entirely. I am most respectfully yours for health, Ralph S. Meyers, 64-Thirty-seventh St., Wheeling, W. Va. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Hats for the Lucky Ones.
