A Physician Testifies.

"I have taken Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and have never used anything in my life that did me the good that did," says County Physician Geo. W. Scroggins of Hall County, Ga. "Being a physician I have prescribed it and found it to give the best results." If the food you eat remains undigested in your stomach it decays there and poisons the system. You can prevent this by dieting but that means starvation. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. You need suffer from neither dyspepsia nor starvation. The worst cases quickly cure. Never fails. R. S. Knowlton.

Gay Soper, a wayward little chap of fourteen of Camas valley, who ran away from home and came down to this valley recently, and who had been working for B. C. Shull, of the South Fork, took one of Mr. S's best horses, bringing it down this way offering it for sale. Several persons refused to buy the animal, suspecting something wrong. However, he succeeded in driving a dicker with J. D. Myers, of Rinck creek, selling the horse for $30, and struck out down the river. In the meantime the sheriff got onto his trail, and T. A. Walker overhauled him at Bandon the last of the week. The sheriff conferred with the boys father who asked to have him brought back home which Sheriff Steve Gallier did as he was going out to Salem with G. W. James, recently adjudged insane. It seems that the boy is now under conviction of a term at the reform school for larceny in a postoffice, but was allowed to go on his own recognizance and betrayed the trust, and soon found more trouble.

The last issue of the Port Orford Tribune contains an extended account of the suicide of Arthur W. Upton, son of Hon. J. H. Upton, of Curry county. The following we take from that paper:

The news of the death of Arthur Upton, by suicide at Honekong, comes as a great surprise to the people of northern Curry, where he was well known, and is a sad blow to the aged parents, who had built high hopes upon the future of their promising son, whom they had given every possible advantage within their means. Arthur was a bright, energetic young man, with a cheerful disposition, and natural intelligence and ability averaging far above the ordinary. He left here with the world before him full of promise, and bright prospects for a prosperous and happy life. Hence his untimely and tragic death is sad news for his friends, and an overwhelming sorrow for the old folks at home, who have so long been waiting and watching for another letter from Arthur. In their deep grief they have the sincere sympathy of all.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will cure any case. Cuts, burns, bruises and all other wounds are also quickly cured by it. Beware of counterfeits. R. S. Knowlton.

On Dec. 1st, the Hotel Coquille changes ownership and management. John Carren, the present owner, retires, to devote himself exclusively to his meat packing business, which, because of its continuous increase, demands his entire attention; while J. P. Tupper, of Bandon, the new owner, assumes the management. Mr. Tupper needs no introduction to the residents of Coos county, or the travelling public. Coming to Coos in 1869, a continuous residence of 32 years, 14 of which have been spent in the hotel business, he has brought him a wide circle of acquaintanceship, while, as landlord at Bandon, successively, of the Ocean House and Tupper House, his genial manner, uniform courtesy and unfailing attention to the promotion of the comfort of his guests, have made him many warm personal friends.

Mr. Tupper comes to Coquille with a strong faith in its future growth and ample means to enlarge and improve his property in accordance with the growing needs of the town. He aims to make Hotel Coquille second to none in the county and a hostelry for Coquillites to feel justly proud of. His long experience and successful management of other hotels, amply justifies his aim, and is the surest guarantee of its future realization.

B. F. Tupper, son of J. P. Tupper, who will take the practical management in hand, has grown up in the hotel business and is thoroughly fitted both by education and experience to perform the duties devolving upon him, with credit to himself and satisfaction to the public; while his wife, an ideal hostess, with her interesting family will prove a desirable social acquisition.

The HERALD joins the numerous friends of the Tupper family in wishing them the highest success.
