Underground Wireless Telegraphy.

Having been present at the experiments conducted by Messrs. Armstrong and Orling in the transmission of electrical energy without wires, I shall attempt, with your leave, to present a few reflections on them. Whereas the Marconi system works through the air, the "Armori" system, as it is called, sends its radiations most frequently the ground or through the water; and these radiations have conveyed the exact inflections of the human voice and have proved to be powerful enough to direct the course of a torpedo. The "Armoral" system professes to have two advantages over the Marconi system; the first is that it is better for land use, and the second is that in the conveyance of meseages it provides for a secrecy as yet not secured in practice by Marconi Messages, open as they are to all the world and to his receivers.

What we may look forward to from this discovery? I do not pretend that the Armstrong-Orlinfi inventions are yet in a pratical working state I am no anthusist about fieding discoveries. I know their nigh rate of mortality. But no man who has heard as I did the articulate human voices rise through a long spike, devoid of wires, which had been thrust into the ground can doubt that here we have the beginnings of an important change. This then, is what we may look forward to. Some day men and women will carry a wireless telephone as commonly as today we carry a card case or camera. We shall switch ourselves on, to the underground radiations through the medium of our walking sticks or our boots. We shall then tune up our receiver to tone No. 39,451, of whatever may be the lawfully registered wireless telephone number of him to whom we would speak. We shall hear no distracting buzzing and wranglings, no echoes, too little faint, of other people's business or dinners. Tone No. 39,451 will go about his business undisturbed. —London Spectator.

Life-saving Service.

Washington, Nov. 26.—The annual report of the Superintendent of the Life-Saving for the year 1901 shows the smallest loss of life from vessels suffering disaster since the generals extension of the service. The average number of lives lost annually during the entire period of its establishment, 25 years, was 37, one life having been lost in every 13 casualties, while the number lost in during the past year was 17, or one in every 43 casualties. From documented vessels the number lost was only seven, one to every 54 casualties. The number of casualties to documented vessels was 377. There were on board these vessels 2846 persons. The estimated value of the vessels involved in disaster was $5,361,420, and of their cargoes $2,090,580. Of this amount, $6,403,035 was saved and $948,966 lost. The number of vessels lost was 43. In addition to the foregoing, there were during the year 393 casualties to small craft (undocumented,) on board of which were 927 persons, of whom 10 were lost. The crews saved, or assisted to save, 422 vessels, valued with their cargoes at $4,139,019, and rendered assistance of minor importance to 548 other vessels in distress, desides warning from danger 231 vessels. The cost of the maintenance of the service was $1,540,013.

The General Superintendent again urgently calls attention to the inadequate compensation of District Superintendents whom he believes to be the poorest-paid officers under the Government, considering serious and exacting nature of their duties and the extent of their fiscal responsibilities. Their salaries range from $1000 to $1800 per annum, and they are required to furnish bonds ranging from $10,000 to $50,000 in amount. He recommends that their pay be raised to $2500 a year.

The Gathmann gun, that was stated as a universal peacemaker because of its destroying qualities, has proven an utter failure. Another case of over-advance advertising.

Algiers Drydock Completes a Long Sea Voyage.

The greatest steel drydocks in the world has arrived at Algiers, La., after a long voyage at sea. The tow of the monster began Wednesday, October 16, when the tugs Samson and Taurus pulled it out of Sparrows Point, Baltimore, Then the Samson cut its cable and the Orion took the Samson's place as assistant. This drydock was built for the government. The destination is Algeria, La., opposite New Orleans. There it will be used by Uncle Sam for docking the battle-ships of this country's Navy. The distance of the tow was 2000 miles. The crews of the tugs and the dock number 64 men.

The dock is 525 by 126 feet. A walk around the structure is equal to one mile. Six thousand tons of steel and 1000 tons of machinery constitute the equipment in the main of this dock. The plates, a half-inch thick, are fastened by 1,232,800 rivals. The sides of the dock are 55 feet high and 400 feet long. The structure was built by the Maryland Steel Coupany. When it was pulled out from Sparrows Point 6516 tons of water were in the hold. This weight wound fill the biggest ocean liner to her loading marks; but it sinks the dock only 6½ feet.

Health and Beauty.

A poor complexion is usually the result of a torpid liver or irregular action of the bowels. Unless nature's refuse is carried off it will surely cause impure blood, Pimptes, boils and other eruptions follow. This is nature's method of throwing off the poisons which the bowels failed to remove. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are world famous for remedying this condition. They stimulate the liver and promote regular and healthy action of the bowels but never cause griping, cramps or distress. Safe pills. R. S. Knowlton.

Dead now Number 29.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 27.—At noon today the men who are searching the ruins of the penberthy Injector Company's plant, which was wrecked yesterday by a boiler explosion, still had before them a pile of debris about 60 by 40 feet, which had not been hauled over and inspected. It is expected that in this heap of wreckage some of the 11 employes not at present accounted for will be located. The corrected list of dead number 29.

The following we clip from the Los Angeles Tribune. Mr. Rife will be remembered by many of this city as the son of Mrs. T. G. Eckles and brother of Mrs. J. O. Goodloe, who recently moved to Redlands, California:

Yesterday morning at 10 o'clock Miss Lelia W. Speer and James L. Rife were married by Rev. G. L. Lambert at the home of the bride's brother, L. E. Speer, No. 1649 Temple street. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Rife left for Mt. Lowe and this evening will be given a reception at the home of the groom's parents in Redlands. Mr. and Mrs. Rife will reside in Long Beach.

Of Benefit to You.

D. S. Mitchell, Fulford, Md.; "During a long illness I was troubled with bed sores, was advised to to try DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve and did so with wonderful results. I was perfectly curdd. It is the best salve on the market." Sure cure for piles, sores, burns. Beware of counterfeits.

The Modern Woodmen of the World are talking of erecting a two-story brick block in Ashland, and are now hunting an eligible location. There will be room for two stores on the ground floor and the lodge room will occupy the second story.

A magazine publisher has bought a Washington daily peper. He will now be able to study the controversy about the invasion of the magazine field by the daily paper from both ends and the middle; also to blow in a bunch of magazine-acquired cash.

The Cosmopolitan has endeavored to make itself known by timely contributions to all important controversies. Frank Moss, so well known in the Lexow and Mazet investigations, contributes "Misgovernment and Corruption: A Warning to Patriots" to the November issue. This considers a serious difficulty in a way that will be found interesting not only to New Yorkers, but to residents of every part the United States.

Reliable and Gentle.

"A pill's a pill," says the saw. But there are pills and pill. You want a pill which is certain, thorough and gentle. Mustn't gripe. DeWitt's Little Early Risers fill the bill. Purely vegetable. Do not force but assist the bowels to act. Strengthen and invigorate. Small and easy to take. R. S. Knowlton.

City Wins Liquor Cases.

Salem, Or., Nov. 25—The Oregon Supreme Court at Salem, today rendered a very important decision. In what is known as the Ashland saloon cases, that of Jesse Houck and Joseph Dame, appellants, versus the City of Ashland, respondent, the Supreme Court affirmed the decision of the Circuit Court of Jackson county, in upholding the authority of the city of Ashland under its charter to decide whether or not liquor saloons may be licenses.

This was the test of one of the well-known Ashland saloon cases, in which the appellants were convicted in Justice Berry's Court of the city of Ashland, upon the charge of selling intoxicating liquor within the city limits of Ashland, without a license, and were sentenced today by the Recorder for a violation of the city ordinances.

Death of Hugh Fieds.

The following clipping we take from a valle paper, and the subject of the sketch was an uncle of Mrs. J. Wes Nosler, of this place, whom she with the other members of her family, visited last summer:

Hugh Fields, former president of the Brownsville woolen mills, "sheep king" of Eastern Oregon, a pioneer of 1845, died yesterday morning at the home of W. R. Bishop, East Eleventh and East Mill street. He arrived from Heppner last Friday, and went at once to the home of his long-time friend Mr. Bishop. He was then quite ill. He grew worse till the end. Mr. Feilds was 73 years old. Few men were more widely or more favorably known. His property interests have been very extensive at Brownsville, and at and around Heppner. He was the owner of many thousands of sheep. A friend who had known him for many years and who is familiar with his transactions said that Mr. Fields was a great benefactor. More men, he said, had received their start through his aid and advice than perhaps from any other one man in the state. A wife and daughter, Mrs. Walter Rehan, the latter of Pendleton, survive him.

Last evening a brief forneral service was conducted at Dunning's undertaking parlors, East Sixth and East Alder streets, by W. R. Bishop, who had been a close friend of the deceased for the past 40 years. This morning the body will be shipped to Brownsville for burial.

The Southern Oregon Oil Company's drill continues its good work at the well east of town and has been making excellent progress since the new steel jars were attached to the drilling machinery last week. At noon today the drill had penetrated the various straits to a depth of 1370 feet and all the promising indications, seepages of oil with paraffine base, etc. have continued and the management is in strong faith of soon striking the oil stands that carry the "mother lode" of the greasy fluid.—Ashland Tidings.

An Evangelist's Story.

"I suffered for years with a bronchial or lung trouble and tried various remedies but did not obtain permanent relief until I commenced using One Minute Cough Cure," writes Rev. James Kirkman, evangelist of Belle River, Ill. "I have no hesitation in recommending it to all sufferers from maladies of this kind." One Minute Cough Cure affords immediate relief for coughs, colds and all kinds of throat and lung troubles. For croup it is unequalled. Absolutely safe. Very pleasant to take, never fails and is really a favorite with the children. They like it. R. S. Knowlton.

It is now generally known and understood that Drunkenness is a desease and no weakness. Sufferers may now cure themselves at home without publicity or loss of time from business by this wonderful "Home Gold Cure," which has been perfected after many years of close study and treatment of inebriates. The faithful use according to directions of this wonderful discovery is positively guaranteed to cure the most obstinate case, no matter how hard a drinker. Our records show the marvelous transformation of thousands of Drunkards into sober, industrious and upwright men.

Wives Cure Your Husbands! Children cure your fathers! This remedy is in no sense a nostrum but is a specific for this disease only, and is so skillfully devised and prepared that it is thoroughly soluble and pleasant to the taste, so that it can be given in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.
F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:
BALTIMORE, Md., March 30, 1901.

Gentlemen: — Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to sing, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.
