H. A. Curran, for a long time connected with Hotel Coquille, was married to Miss Lillie Wilson, one of Coquille's fair daughters, on Saturday and departed the same day to Nevada where he goes to settle up some business matters connected with the estate left him by his parents. His wife will join him in San Francisco in a short time.

We have received a letter from our friend and former citizen M. Kroll at Oregon City, stating that all are well and very much pleased with their location. He also tells us that a friend of his has lost a horse which was taken from this section some time ago, and it is thought that the animal has drifted back to these parts. It was an 1100 pound bay horse, branded S on left hip, shod all around. As we do not know who sold the horse, we will take it as a favor from any one who will inform the HERALD if they find the animal's whereabouts.
