R. T. Twombly, of the Daily Coast Mail, has been in this section for several days working in the interest of that paper with very satisfactory results. The people here appreciate the little daily very much as it brings us a considerable of the latest telegraphic news two days earlier than we could get the same from any other source. Stand by the Daily! it will be larger and better in due course of time.

Mrs. Strang Passes Away.

Mrs. Emily M. Strang, wife of our townsman, D. P. Strang, Sr., departed this life at Marshfield, March 14, where she had been receiving medical treatment. Deceased was born in Rutland Vermont, in 1842. In later years the family removed to Minnesota, where in 1858 she was married to the loving husband who survives. In 1871 they removed to Oregon, landing in Coquille in the later part of December of that year, and have lived in this county ever since. She has been a true and consistent member of the Seventh Day Adventist church for 22 years.

She leaves a husband and three sons to mourn her untimely demise. The sons are D. P. Jr., of Riverton, Z. C., of Coquille, City and F. E. of eastern Oregon. These good people have the heart-felt sympathy of a large circle of friends.
