Price, Coquille.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Donaldson, of Riverton, was up to this place shopping on Friday. A full supply of the leading varieties garden and flower seeds at Knowlton's Drug store. We enjoy a pleasant call by Editor J. A. Luse, of the Marshfield Sun, yesterday evening. Young Ladies—F. Long & Sons, keep the finest music rolls to be had anywhere—a great convenience. A Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs, late of Michigan, arrived by Martins stage last week, expecting to locate in this county. Gus. Hanscom returned on Friday from a sojourn of several months in the valley for the most part near Eugene. For sale or rent a very neat, new and roomy two-story residence close in and nicely located. A bargain for someone. R. D. Sanford, Agent. Spinners' Convention Saturday night. Reserved rates, 50 cents; general admission, 25 cents; children under 12, 15 cents. Don't miss it. J. F. Cox, the Sixes miner, returned from a trip to the bay on business Friday. He was accompanied by A. G. Aiken who was on his way to the mines. A. J. Sanford and family went to the Bay yesterday to take the steamer Alliance for Eureka where they expect to make their home for the present, at last. $500.00 will buy a house, barn and three lots with some bottom ground. Fruit trees. Call soon if you wish to secure it. R. D. Sanford, Agent. F. H. Moulton, one of San Francisco's popular commercial travelers, representing the Marvin Shoe Co., canvassed our merchants the latter part of the week. Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas brought eight acres off of R. D. Sanford's place near town including the balance of his prune orchard and drier. This is a choice piece of property of which she may justly feel proud. Johnny Moomaw has our thanks for a sample of oranges grown on his father's place near Lordsburg, California. It was certainly the most beautiful and delicious navel seedless orange we have ever seen. George Martain got in Wednesday from his trip to Roseburg with Deputy Sheriff Gallier and his prisoners. He had seven passengers beside Mr. Gallier and his aid F. E. Wilson. He found the roads pretty rough. Be sure and don't forget the ball game at this place Sunday May 18th, Coquille vs Bandon, the first League Game of the Season. Dr. J. Curtis Snook a graduate in dentistry from the university of Michigan and also from the Haskell Post graduate school of Prosthetic Dentistry, Chicago, is locating permanently in Coquille. Dr. Snook removed from Detroit Mich. to Roseburg two years ago, but thinks the development of this coast region will be more rapid. D. R. Toy, of Myrtle Point, returned from San Francisco Friday, whither he had gone to be present when Mrs. Toy underwent an operation. He informs us that she stood the ordeal in good shape, and that when he started for home, five days after the operation, she was doing well and feeling nicely. Her many friends well bed-lighted at this news. She expects to be able to come home in about five weeks.

For fresh bread call on Mrs. Simmons. The Mandalay is due tomorrow or next day. Everything in the harness line at F. Long & Sons. M. H. Hersey, our first street merchant, buys wool. Two good dairycows for sale apply to J. C. Watson. Large supply of fine Onion sets at Knowlton's Drug Store. Nice line of Samples to select Carpets from at the new furniture store. Editor J. A. Church, South, will be here and preach Saturday evening and Sunday. Quarterly conference at 3 p. m., Saturday. One of George Martins horses kicked him on Friday evening, inflicting a painful bruise on his left thumb. Dr. Roberts dressed the wound and he is getting along nicely. Warren Laird, head sawyer at Johnson's mill, broke the record for a big cut one day last week, by turning out 48, 393 feet of lumber. Mr. Johnson has a well organized crew and the mill is doing a fine business. A SNAP—Two acres of ground with good 6-room house, fruit trees, well and spring branch for stock or chickens, barn, etc. Walks to business part of city, one-quarter mile distant. R. D. Sanford, Agent. J. W. Field was over from Beaver Hill Sunday to see how his new shop was getting along, the foundation of which is laid and the work going along all right. The shop which will be 30x50 will doubtless be a first-class institution of its kind. M. H. Tyrrell, of Arago, who had the misfortune to cut his foot very badly several days ago came to town Friday and informed us that his foot is doing exceedingly well. Dr. Cullin removed the stitches and the foot will doubtless be all right in a short time. I have on hand several dairy farms, stock ranches and two general purpose farms, beside some large and small tracts of very cheap unimproved bottom land, which cannot fail to interest you if you are looking for this class of property. R. D. Sanford, Coquille, Oregon.

The Marshfield Minstrel Co. gave one of their comic and exceedingly enjoyable performances at the Masonic hall in this city on last Tuesday evening. The house was well filled with an enthusiastic and appreciative audience who will look forward to the date of their returning. Walter Drane, of Eden valley, came down last Thursday and is making his old friends a visit. Aunt Lizzie is well now, but had quite a sick spell in the winter. Mr. Drane tells us that they have a very nice little community of neighbors out there now. Mr. Helm, son-in-law of Rev. C. M. Bryan, and family, live in that valley now. Mr. Drane will start for home today or tomorrow. An excursion from the upper river was given by the steamer Echo on Saturday afternoon, the return being made Sunday afternoon, after enjoying the grand ball on Saturday evening and a match game of baseball Sunday afternoon between the Bandon and Myrtle Point teams, the result being 11 to 21 in favor of Bandon. The excursion was accompanied by the Crescent band of Myrtle Point, and all had an exceedingly enjoyable time.
