Do not conclude for a moment that because I am not describing property in these columns every week that I have none in stock. Call or write me for what you want. I have a great variety and getting more each week, and some real bargains, too. R. D. SANFORD.

Mrs. D. R. Toy, of Myrtle Point, arrived from San Francisco by the last Areata, and was met at the bay Friday by her husband, and they returned by this place Saturday afternoon with Levi Heisner, one of Marshfield's popular livery men. Mrs. Toy seems in the very best of spirit, the operations and treatment she had received at the hospital proving highly satisfactory. Her many friends will be delighted to see her restored to health again.

In our mention of the burning of the shinglenill on Hall's creek last week we were in error as to the proprietorship of the mill. After the former fire the mill way rebuilt by Fred Mitzel & Son, assisted somewhat by W. H. Schroeder. The situation has been grasped by some of our enterprising people and substantial assistance is being rendered in putting the Messrs. Metzels on their feet again. It will be but a short time till the mill will be going again, and it is to be hoped that these burnings will cease.
