Carl Bros., of the Norway creamery, paid off on the 10th inst for April, paying 22 1/2 per pound for butter-fat. This is a good showing for this new institution, and there is no question but these young men are assured of the unequalled success they so richly deserve.

J. B. Moomaw, the farmer, of near Arago, was in town Thursday and ordered one of these Osborne hay tedders of J. A. Lamb & Co. to assist in taking care of his heavy crop of hay, being unable to cure the hay on the ground without some means of string it up.

We have just received a letter from our friend, J. W. Lawrence, posted at Bourne, this state informs us that he is located there for the present, where he wants the Herald. We predict that Jack will get his share of the products of those rich mines in that section.

A letter from Will E. Steward, of Riyerton, written from Roslyn Washington, informs us that he is at that place at present, employed in the mines at good wages, etc. He tells of buying met several Coquille boys there, and that William Copley is in that neighborhood, but he has not met him yet. He sends best regards to all.

Resolutions of Condolence.

Whereas, It has pleased the Almighty Father of the Universe to remove by death Mr. J. N. Drane, beloved father of our esteemed neighbors, Mrs. Mattie McGuffin and Miss Ethel Lowther, Therefore, be it resolved, That we, officers and members of Evening Tide Circle No. 214, Women of Woodcraft, tender the sincere sympathy of our hearts, in this their sad bereavement, Be it further resolved, That these resolutions be spread on records of our Circle, that a copy be furnished the Coquille HERALD and Bulletin for publication. MRS. M. E. FAIRMAN, MRS. U. M. SGOB, ANNE J. ROBINSON.

Ready to Yield.

"I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve for piles and found it a certain cure," says S. R. Meredith, Willow Grove, Del. Operations unnecessary to cure piles. They always yield to De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Cure's skin diseases, all kinds of wounds. Accept no counterfeits. R. S. Knowlton.

There has been quite a serious time out on Elk River during the week. Miss Bossen, the teacher, fell, striking her neck across a pail, and it is asserted actually dislocated her neck. The dislocation could be plainly seen, and for a time she was thought to be dead. Then, suddenly making a struggle her neck was thrown in place with a thud that was plainly heard, and she slowly recovered, but has since suffered severely from the effects. Mike Limpach had the misfortune to get his finger cut off by a saw while working in the mill. Al. Marsh was seriously ill for a time, but is recovering. Miss Kate McKenzie met with a slight accident while visiting at Coonville, but it can be deemed. Mrs. Kellar had a very serious spell of heart failure; the doctor was sent for, but being absent Mr. Leneva started out to render what assistance he could. He was going as fast as the horse could carry him when his saddle turned and he was thrown violently to the ground, receiving severe cuts and bruises about the head. We learn that Mrs. Lane is also quite sick.—Port Orford Tribune.

Dangerous if Neglected.

Burns, cuts, and other wounds often fail to heal properly if neglected and become troublesome sores. DeWitt's Which Hazel Salve prevents such consequences. Even where delay has aggravated the injury DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve effects a cure. "I had a running sore on my leg thirty years," says H. C. Hart, Yankee town, Ind. "After using many remedies, I tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes healed the sore." Cures all skin diseases. Piles yield to it at once. Beware of counterfeits. R. S. Knowlton.
