

LOCAL ITEMS.

Did it ever occur to you in buying property, where conditions are strange, that advice from an agent who has had fifteen years' experience in that locality—proven his reliability above misrepresentations of street-corner "wise-acs"—who work for nothing and board themselves—would be of value to you? We constantly add new bargains to our list, and refuse those offered at fictitious values, thereby protecting the buyer's interest. We loan money on properties purchased at conservative value through us. Buildings to rent, rents collected and other agency business. R. D. SANFORD, Coquille, Oregon.

Best Potatoes at Perry's. Go to Long's for bargains.

New Millinery goods at Mrs. Moon's. Chopped feed in large or small quantities at M. H. Hersey's.

Johnson, Dean & Co., of the Pioneer Meat Market display nicely dressed chickens every Saturday.

Now is the time to get good goods at big bargains at F. Long & Sons; as they do not wish to move them away.

Julius Jacobson returned Saturday from the City where he has been in attendance at business college for several months.

Percy Schroeder was in town the last of the week, and carried one eye in a slug, having brought this delicate member in too close contact with a briar.

All goods of F. Long & Sons unsold on the 20th inst. will be packed and shipped away, so now is your chance, for in the meantime they will be sold at cost.

40 acres.—18 bottom, cleared; 22 beach, part cleared; fair buildings, young orchard, good well water and spring for stock. With crops and valuable personal property R. D. Sanford, Agent.

Z. F. Sighr, the Coquille Marshall field mail carrier, purchased on Saturday the two barns and the lots on which they stood of J. W. Krewson, opposite the residence lately purchased by Dr. Snook. Mr. Sanford negotiated the deal.

S. D. Rouse, superintendent of the Coquille Co's mine at Riverton, suffered a slight stroke of paralysis at noon on Sunday. He came up with Mrs. Rouse yesterday and is under the care of Dr. Olin. We hope his recovery may be complete and soon.

Dr. Cole, of Douglas county, spent several days looking over this county last week with a view to locating or making an extended visit at least. The doctor met an acquaintance of about 17 years standing in the person of our R. D. Sanford, with whom he was delighted to meet.

R. Quatermass, of San Diego and R. G. Wilson, of Eureka, Cal. spent a week or more lately looking about over this country, and possibly may see fit to invest in some real estate. They came up overland, the former with a rig, accompanied by his wife and the latter by wheel, who will return by steamer.

W. Hunt, the photographer, is back again. He has been in Humboldt county, California, making views of the redwoods. He says he came back for his wife's health, she being homesick for Coos county. She was well as soon as the Alliance landed. She is now enjoying a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Houghton, of Norway.

The M. E. church which is just being completed, has put on a decidedly different appearance of late, having received a new coat of paint, the roof and cornice finished up with a neat cresting on the roof, which gives it a neat appearance. This church is now very comfortably arranged and has, we believe, the largest seating capacity of any church in town, and is nearly out of debt. With the addition of a new bell, which will doubtless be looked after in the near future, the M. E. congregation will be well housed.

Sperry's Flour at Perry's store. Baseball supplies at Long & Sons. Vell paper at the Furniture Store. Everything at closing out prices at Long's. Glass and crockery-ware at cost at Galliers.

Give Perry's store a trial order for Groceries.

Chas. Holt, of Fishtrap, goes to California by the first steamer. He will take a look at some property in Tuolumne county with a view to purchasing.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Stingsley, of Myrtle Point, accompanied by Mrs. E. S. Dean, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Davenport, parents of the former, at this place last week.

W. E. Andrews, of Prosper, came up Saturday. He tells us that his brother, C. S. is now in the Walla Walla section where he will likely locate, for the time being, at least.

Rev. C. H. Allen, of the M. E. Church, South, at this place, went to Bandon Saturday, where he went at the instance of the W. C. T. U. to deliver a couple of temperance lectures.

Anyone having city property for sale, cheap for cash, with or without buildings, level and not too far out, will do well to call at the HERALD office or address S. H. Dieks at Coquille.

Tex Robinson was in town yesterday looking for friends from California—Wm. Cleghorn and family—who will make Mr. R's folks an extended visit, and may conclude to remain in Coos county.

Farmers! Those low iron wheels you see and hear so much about, and which are so convenient on farms as well as the road, and which you can get to fit your wagon can be obtained through E. A. Howey, of this city.

Mrs. J. C. Watson, of near town, who has been in the Lane hospital for several weeks, returned by the Arena last week, accompanied by Miss Watson, a cousin of her husband who has just arrived from Mr. Watson's old home in Pennsylvania, on an extended visit.

Sy Goodman came up from Bandon on a spin Saturday, having arrived there from Crescent City, California, with a six-horse team, the first ever driven over that road, bringing Jack Yale, the commercial man and his outfit. Sy had a little visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Goodman, while in town.

George Moulton's fine retriever, "Teddy" was run over by the train Saturday up at the creamery and so mangled that in mercy to the poor brute he was shot to put him out of his misery. This was a spotted dog, and George will feel his loss heavily when the duck shooting season comes, beside he was a fine pet and exceedingly companionable.

Had the Healer, with his company of entertainers, concluded their free show at this place on Saturday evening, and opened up at Bandon yesterday evening. While this entertainment is free, yet it is as good as the average troupe that passes through this section charging admission. Dandy, the high-diving dog, is quite an interesting feature. Their sale of medicines was good.

Tom Annand baritone singer with the company of H. L. the Healer went out one day the latter part of the week for a little hunt and came back full of all kinds of stories as to how he got his first deer, bringing in the head and hind quarters of a fine one as an evidence, but the boys say he bought those of George Collier. Well, that's all right. The boy must have something on which to base his stories of the wild and woolly west upon, and beside that, the boys should keep still about it.

I. N. DeLong, of Bandon, was in town the first of the week.

C. F. Bingham, of South Coquille had business in town on Friday. Latest belts 25 ct at Mrs. Moon's Choice hams and bacon at Perry's store.

Mr. and Mrs. Feely Shroeder, of Norway, were in town shopping on Saturday.

Don't forget the sale of Long & Son's harness, saddles etc., which is being made at cost.

Bad Holland of the Bulletin returned from his trip to San Francisco by the Mendocino.

80 acres.—Dairy farm, largely bottom, fairly improved and choice location. Cheap enough at $5,500. R. D. Sanford.

Some bargains in new and second hand pianos and Organs. Call on or phone Chas. Grissen, wholesale representative at Hotel Coquille.

C. F. Bonvier, a relative of E. F. Sæwringen, of Cedar Point, came in on the Albano, and will locate here. We welcome him among us.

30 acres.—Improved, near town, half choice creek bottom cleared, springs and creek. Nice home. $1,800 if sold quick. R. D. Sanford.

All goods at F. Long & Son's at cost from now till the 20th, when all unsold goods will be packed and shipped away.

Before you order that tent for your camping outfit, call and consult Long's the Saddlers.

Harness at cost. Saddles at your own price. Tents for a song. E. Long & Son's entire stock.

W. F. Kennedy, of this city returned Sunday from a trip in the mountains, prospecting. He was in the Eden Valley section, and brings encouraging news from all who are working in that part of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Lyons, Miss Irene Lamb and the Misses White, Clarice and Georgia, were taken by R. J. Dean to a choice camping place on the Middle Fork last week where they will enjoy an outing for several days.

The meat trust may hold up the price of meats, but we hold up the quality. We won't buy what is not first class. We insist on the best because our customers must have full value. Whatever you may want we'll supply to you and it shall be all that could be desired in the way of quality.

Johnson Dean & Co.

Frank Long & Sons formerly in the harness and saddlery business in Coquille City, will establish themselves in a similar business in Roseburg. They will be located in the Hildebrand block, next door to Rapp's drug store. It is their intention to have their stock here and be ready for business by Aug. 1st.—Roseburg Review.

As we go to press C. H. Bunch informs us of a sad misfortune happening to our friend, Ed Fahy, on the lower river. It seems that while hauling hay he was driving down an incline when the brake refused to hold the wagon which rushed onto the horses and dislodging Ed from his seat, throwing him to the ground and passing over one leg, smashing it badly.

R. J. Coker and family come over on yesterday's train on their way to the North Fork country for an outing of ten days. They were met by Hiram Bottey, Mrs. Coker's father, who took them out with a rig. Dick brought over with a fine Berkshire pig that was but two months old which weighed 97 pounds which he got from the ranch of Judge D. L. Watson, at Coos City. The pig will be put on the farms of Mr. Coker and Capt. Wilcox, near McKinley for breeding purposes.

Dedication of M. E. Church.

Rev. Dr. Ford, presiding elder for this district of the Methodist Episcopal church, arrived here Friday in company with the Rev. Samuel Snyder, of Lebanon, this state, an evangelist, who has been carrying on a revival meeting since his arrival with marked interest on the part of our people, and on Sunday evening Dr. Ford conducted dedicatory ceremony in and exceedingly impressive manner in the presence of a large congregation.
