

LOCAL ITEMS.

Did it ever occur to you in buying property, where conditions are strange, that advice from an agent who has had fifteen years' experience in that locality—proven his reliability above misrepresentations of street-corner "wiseacres" who work for nothing and board themselves—would be of value to you? We constantly add new bargains to our list, and refuse those offered at fictitious values, thereby protecting the buyer's interest. We loan money on properties purchased at conservative value through us. Buildings to rent, tents collected and other agency business. R. D. SANFORD, Coquille, Oregon.

Johnson Dean & Co. Coquille again wins out over the Bandon team in a league baseball game played at Bandon on Sunday in a score which stood six to seven in favor of the Coquille team. Up to the 7th inning it looked as though the Bandon boys were going to have a walkover, but about that time things took a turn. It happened that there were two men on the base when Jimmy Shay gave the ball one of his roted swipes. Well, the two men came off the base and Jimmy made a home run and the score was soon reversed. This put Coquille well in the lead.

B. B. Teters is one among the many Fairview people who are hauling lumber for substantial buildings on their farms. That beautiful and prosperous section of our county is beginning to loom up with an air that would do credit to a city suburb. With a good road to reach the railroad and the river at this point at all seasons of the year and those people will be all right. There has been some planking and substantial work done of late, at the worst places, and there is no doubt but that community will keep up or in the lead in this line.

Mrs. J. W. Strange and Dale Strange will return to their old home at Roseburg about Sept. 1st, and Dr. J. W. Strange will remain at Myrtle Point in charge of his dental office.
