

LOCAL ITEMS.

Did it ever occur to you in buying property, where conditions are strange, that advice from an agent who has had fifteen years' experience in that locality—proves his reliability above misrepresentations of street-corner "wiseacres" who work for nothing and board themselves—would be of value to you? We constantly add new bargains to our list, and refuse those offered at fictitious values, thereby protecting the buyer's interest. We loan money on properties purchased at conservative value through us. Buildings to rent, rents collected and other agency business. R. D. SANFORD, Coquille, Oregon.

Johnson Dean & Co.

L. L. Deitz, was up to town Wednesday. He tells us that he expects to start with his family for the Willamette valley next week for a change. They spent six years in that valley before coming here, and has spent that length of time here, and now goes back. The chances are that he will be back near the coast before long.

A. E. Simpson and family, Mrs. Simpson a sister of Mrs. G. W. White, of this city, arrived in town last week to have a visit with Mr. White's and having become so well pleased with the section, Mr. Simpson returned to his home in Oklahoma three or four days after his arrival here to close up his affairs preparatory to locating permanently.

A friend from the lower river who was in town last week, and who is comparatively a new comer, having spent not more than a year in the county, was telling us of how well he is pleased with the country, and among things was very emphatic in regard to the healthfulness of this section. Speaking of a letter which he had written to a friend recently he said he told him (putting it good and strong), that we only had one doctor in a very large scope of country here, and that he was very frequently arrested for vagrancy, having no visible means of support.

At the teachers' examination held in this city last week there were twenty applicants for certificate, one for state papers and nineteen for county certificates.
