

LOCAL ITEMS.

Did it ever occur to you in buying property, where conditions are strange, that advice from an agent who has had fifteen years' experience in that locality—proven his reliability above misrepresentations of street-corner "wiseacres" who work for nothing and board themselves—would be of value to you? We constantly add new bargains to our list, and refuse those offered at fictitious values, thereby protecting the buyer's interest. We loan money on properties purchased at conservative value through us. Buildings to rent, rents collected and other agency business. R. D. SANFORD, Coquille, Oregon.

Bert Clinton, son of J. DeWitt Clinton, of the North Fork, had quite a runaway with a team and wagon, on Sunday morning, the wagon being literally demolished. This was about all the damage done, but it was a lucky come off that someone was not hurt, as there were others in the wagon.

The meat trust may hold up the price of meats, but we hold up the quality. We won't buy what is not first class. We insist on the best because our customers must have full value. Whatever you may want we'll supply to you and it shall be all that could be desired in the way of quality. Johnson Dean & Co.

A. G. Croy, a nephew of our townsman, Jacob Croy, arrived on Saturday with his uncle and cousin, Mrs. Harrington, as they were coming in from their trip to Portland, having caught up with them at Canas Valley. This young man was here some fifteen years ago but returned to his native state, Iowa, and has again concluded to try Coos for a while at least, and may conclude to remain.

Dr. S. L. Roberts, who a good many years ago was a practitioner in this county, located at Eagle Creek, has returned to that place to make his future home. The doctor formerly owned the falls on Beaver Creek, disposing of it about 11 years ago, from whence he went to Coos county, where he resided continuously. A few months ago he disposed of his property there, intending to move to California, but later decided to return to this county. He has purchased property at Eagle Creek and will reside there permanently, resuming the practice of his profession.—Oregon City Enterprise.

S. D. Butler, a brother of our Captain C. H. Butler, now on the tug Triumph, who resides at Santa Ana, California, came over from the bay by yesterday's train, he having spent about a month with his eldest son who lives near Marshfield, and whom he met with somewhat of a surprise, as he was under the impression his son was up on the sound. This will be the first meeting of the Captain and his brother for sixteen years. Mr. Butler was one of the early arrivals in Coos county, having come to Coos bay as early as Jan. 1, 1865, remaining nearly a year. Marshfield at that time, contained two houses—Reed's store on the flats, and Cap. Hamilton's log cabin on the hill. He returned in 1868 and remained for several years on a farm opposite Marshfield. The old gentleman comes up for a rest and to recuperate his health somewhat and visit his many relatives and friends who are exceedingly well pleased with his arrival. We acknowledge an exceedingly pleasant visit and interesting talk over early days in Coos county with this venerable old gentleman. He will probably remain the balance of the summer.

See notice of Latter Day Saints' reunion on our first page.
