LOCAL ITEMS.

Golden Crown at Perry's store. Henry Clemens, of Parkersburg, had business in town Wednesday. R. F. Garrett, of Myrtle Point, went to the bay on Wednesday and returned Friday. Rev. Thomas Barklow, of Myrtle Point, dropped into our office on Friday while in town.

Miss Nellie Crenshaw, of Coalco, made our office a very pleasant call on Wednesday. The Lyons mill now has a full set of electric lights and is now able to run till six o'clock. For a good opportunity for a homesteader who wishes to raise stock, inquire of the HERALD.

Jack Grimes and Dan Grow of the bay side passed through town Friday on their way to Curry county. The schooner Ocean Spray is again at the Riverton mill loading lumber for San Francisco. She will be loaded in a day or so. Hundreds of satisfied patrons testify to the superior fitting of spectacles. Write, I will call, M. G. Pohl, the Myrtle Point Optician.

Capt. Larsen, of the schooner Onward, took a run up to town Thursday while his vessel was receiving her cargo at Parkersburg. She will be ready for sea in a day or so. Thomas Krowson who had the misfortune to get one of his hands severely sawed while working in factory recently, is getting along nicely.

E. J. Price, of the Riverton saw mill, went to the bay Wednesday for the purpose of having a new spool cast for the donkey engine which is being used in his camp, and which gave way one day last week. J. S. Jayes, late of Humboldt county, California, having leased the McQuigg place near town with the privilege of buying, moved up with his family last week. We are glad to see these good people come in and locate among us.

Eruption still going.

Washington, Oct. 30.—The State Department today received a telegram from Counsel McMillan, at Guatemala, stating that the eruptions of Mt. Santa Maria continue. The city of Quetzaltenango is covered with a layer of six inches of volcanic matter. Rich coffee plantations on the coast side are buried under 7 feet of sand and ashes. Detonations are heard continuously in the capital and earthquakes are frequent.

There arrived a little stranger at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cox, of Dairyville, last Friday night, and now papa and mamma rejoice in the possession of a son to gladden their home. Mr. G. G. Kennedy received word last Saturday of the death of his wife, Lottie, who died the preceding night at the asylum at Salem. It will be remembered that she was sent to the asylum about 18 months ago. Mr. Kennedy is left with four children to mourn a wife and mother taken away.

Little Harry, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Reed, died at their home near Myrtle Point on Friday morning of typhoid fever. These people have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad affliction.

The attention of our readers is directed to the announcement in this issue of special clubbing rates with YOUNG PEOPLE'S WEEKLY, the best paper of its class published in America. Our arrangements are exclusive, and on terms that enable us to offer that paper and the HERALD for the price of single subscription to this paper alone.

This is the season when the woman who knows the best remedies for croup is in demand in every neighborhood. One of the most terrible things in the world is to be awakened in the middle of the night by a whoop from one of the children. The croup remedies are almost as sure to be lost, in case of croup, as a revolver is sure to be lost in case of burglars.

Mexico Seeking Gold.

New York, Oct. 29.—Reports are in circulation in financial circles here that plans have been discussed for the establishment of the Mexican currency on a gold basis. Some of the large banking houses are said to have been sounded, with a view to procuring enough gold to rehabilitate the system. Those said to be interested in the matter refuse to discuss it.

Stepped Against A Hot Stove.

A child of Mrs. Geo. T. Benson, when getting his usual Saturday night bath, stepped back against a hot stove which burned him severely. The child was in great agony and his mother could do nothing to pacify him. Remembering that she had a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the house, she thought she would try it. In less than half an hour after applying it the child was quiet and asleep, and in less than two weeks was well. Mrs. Benson is a well known resident of Keller, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment and especially valuable for burns, cuts, bruises and sprains. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

The Commoner.

(MR. BRYAN'S PAPER) The Commoner has attained within six months from date of the first issue a circulation of 100,000 copies, a record probably never equaled in the history of American periodical literature. The unparalleled growth of this paper demonstrates that there is room in the newspaper field for a national paper devoted to the discussion of political, economic, and social problems. To the columns of The Commoner Mr. Bryan contributes his best efforts; and his review of political events as they arise from time to time can not fail to interest those who study public questions. The Commoner's regular subscription price is $1 per year. We have arranged with Mr. Bryan whereby we can furnish his paper and the HERALD together for one year for $2. The regular subscription price of the two papers when subscribed for separately is $2.50.
