

LOCAL ITEMS.

Order Peart's coal.
Buy a Hine piano.
Sour pickles in bulk at Lyons'.
New goods at Perry's this week.
Wall paper at the Furniture Store.
Walter Colvin was in town yesterday.
J. H. Giles, of the Point, was in town yesterday.
Full stock of grass seeds at Knowlton's drug store.
Three papers of garden seeds for 10 cents at Knowlton's.
A half Jersey milch cow for sale. Inquire at this office.
The Emporium is closing out its stock of rope, nails, and saws.
Knowlton, the druggist, has a well-selected stock of valentines.
R. S. Knowlton keeps International Stock and Poultry Food.
Knowlton's writing tablets, pencil tablets and pencils are the very best.
Uncle John Hamblcock, of Prosper, was up to town on business on Friday.
The Homer is due at the bay today and is to sail for Portland tomorrow.
C. M. Skeels, our popular furniture man, had business at Bandon on Saturday.
FOR SALE:—A brand new buggy with tongue and shafts. Apply to J. B. Fox, Coquille.
Anyone wishing a good, cheap heavy wagon will do well to call at the Herald office.
BORN: In Coquille City, Jan. 31, 1903, to Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Varney, a daughter.
A nice line of white skirts and shirt waists will be closed out at cost at the Emporium.
W. H. Short, of Marshfield, agent for the Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine, was in town yesterday.
Chas. Mulkey is furnishing some fine wood. Leave your order with William Gallier, the hardware man.
FOR RENT:—A neat little place in the suburbs of Coquille. For particulars apply to H. T. Schwaers.
If you have a house or barn to move, call on or address W. A. Goodman, Coquille City.
FOR SALE:—One new heavy wagon—34— and two good horses. Inquire at the Herald office.
Anyone wishing carpets or rugs woven cheap, call on Mrs. K. Holverson, three miles west of Coquille on the McAdams place.
G. W. Weber, of Arago, was in town Friday night and rode one of Coquille's numerous goats. Our office was favored with a pleasant call.
HAMMERS— and all kinds of tools. Will make a specialty of carpenter's fine tools and hammer the price down to the lowest notch. Call—Kribs.
Cows county cattle are becoming in demand early this season, there being several buyers on the lookout for stock already, and are offering good prices.
The Chas. Grissen Music Co. has lately been established at Marshfield with Rev. R. C. Leese as Manager. All orders left at the Herald office will receive prompt attention.
James Dunlap was down from Norway yesterday. He says they are getting along nicely with their telephone line, and would have had it done only for the high water. It is completed to Norway.
A joint memorial to Congress asking to have the Oregon constitution amended so as to elect United States Senators by a direct vote of the people, was adopted by the Senate last week.
DeLaval cream separators—the world's standard—every style and size, hand and power, home and factory, 150 to 6,000 pound capacity, $50 to $800 in price.
S. M. NOSLER, Coquille, Ore.
The play "Mrs. Partington and her son Ike" is progressing nicely and promises to be the best ever produced by local talent in Coquille City. The new scenery is well under way and will be one of the pleasing features of the play.
Capt. George Leneve, of this city, went to the bay last week for the purpose of placing an order with the Coast Bay Iron Foundry for the cast of a new bronze propeller for his steamer, the Antelope, to take the place of the one recently broken by coming in contact with a snag.

Canned pineapples at Lyons' Store.
Ladies' hats below cost at Mrs. Sugg's.
Mackintoshes and rubbers at the Emporium.
J. K. Scott was up to town from Prosper on Friday.
Writing tablets, pens, pencils, etc., at the New Drug Store.
If your scissors are dull, take them to McDonald, the barber.
Fine grade of Silver Prunes, 3 pounds for 10 cents at Kanematz.
Highest market price paid for chickens at Johnson Dean & Co.'s.
A new line of clothing at the Emporium. Call and price them.
For the best of fresh standard patent medicines go to the New Drug Store.
The prices will surprise you on men and boys clothing at the Emporium.
Earl Steele, of this city, has been under the weather for a day or so with the grip.
Remember the temperance meeting at the Christian church on Saturday evening.
Anyone wishing fine Blue Nile Pens, apply to W. H. Schroeder or Frank Sumner, Arago, Oregon.
Johnson, Dean & Co., of the Pioneer Meat Market display nicely dressed chickens every Saturday.
We will pay $3.00 and $3.50 per dozen for one hundred dozen chickens. JOHNSON DEAN & CO.
M. G. Pohl, the Myrtle Point oculist, made a very successful trip to Riverton the latter part of the week.
Mr. and Mrs. George Lorenz, of Bandon, visited friends and relatives in town several days last week.
Mrs. R. E. Buck, of this city, went to Bandon Friday, to visit for several days with her sister, Mrs. F. E. Dyer.
To make room for her spring stock of ladies' hats Mrs. Sugg will sell her present stock at prices below cost. See her bargains.
Uncle Jerry Haynes, of Myrtle Point, paid Bandon and the bay a visit last week, returning through this place homeward on Friday.
McDonald, the barber, has secured a newly patented device for sharpening scissors. Those needing scissors sharpened should call at once.
J. H. Smith, of Bancroft, was in town yesterday in search of a heavy logging. He tells us that there is six feet of snow at Lone Tree, only a short distance from his home.
FOR SALE:—One fine roan Durham Bull, year-old past, $20. Also two fresh cows, 3 and 4 years old, $60. Will trade for calves. Enquire of C. A. Pendleton, Riverton.
During the late storm a slide, principally slack or cinders from the mine, covered the track near the bunker, stopping the shipment of coal till the obstruction was removed.
Violins, banjos, guitars, mandolins from $5 upward; a fine line of the best pianos and organs at the Chas. Grissen Music Store, Marshfield, Ore., Odd Fellows' building.
The biggest trust on earth is the newspaper trust. It trusts everybody, gets cussed for trusting, mistrusted for cussing, and if it busts for trusting, gets cussed for busting.—Ex.
Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dungan, of the bay, were over to this place on a visit and returned by the means at hand, necessitated by the flood, which reminded them of traveling in Coos county in an early day.
Chas. Watson, of Cunningham, near town, having purchased the stock of fine thoroughbred Brown Leghorn chickens of R. D. Sanford, will be able to fill orders for eggs for hatching purposes at 50 cents per setting.
Blue prints maps of any Township in Roseburg, Oregon, Land District, showing all vacant lands for 50 cents each. If you want any information from the U. S. Land Office, address,
TITLE GUARANTEE & LOAN CO., Roseburg, Ore.
The Coquille City Creamery paid off at 28 cents per pound for December on the 15th. We wish to announce to the dairymen that we will pay 28 cents per pound for butter fat for January and February.
S. M. NOSLER, Prop.

Snow Flake flour at Perry's.
The Fisher Co. next Monday night.
J. A. Radabaugh was in town yesterday.
Try the canned asparagus at Lyons' Store.
A farm to lease for 6 years. Apply at this office.
Duncan Urquhart was up from Riverton Friday.
H. L. Carl, of Norway, was down to town yesterday.
J. W. Field was up from Bandon the last of the week.
Perfumery—the finest imported—at the New Drug Store.
Just received at Knowlton's, a large stock of grass seeds.
The Emporium is headquarters for ladies and gets underwear.
Umbrellas, leggings and other winter goods at the Emporium.
For first-class hay, for horses or cattle, apply to John Fox, Jr., Coquille.
For Oregon cassinere clothing call at the Emporium and get prices.
Mr. Woodward, one of Arago's dairymen, had business in town Saturday.
J. E. Rose, of Myrtle Point, had business in town the latter part of last week.
For fine cigars go to the New Drug Store, Dr. G. A. Churchman, proprietor.
For fresh cookies, doughnuts, etc., call at Thompson's restaurant, Front street.
Geo. Flanagan, of Marshfield, had business on the river a day or so last week.
KNIVES—Cut friendship. But the ones you get from Kribs will make him your friend forever.
Ed Lorenz suffered from a severe attack of neuralgia last week but is about recovered now.
Anyone wishing a spanking driving team will do well to call on G. W. Wimer, of Arago.
T. B. Vandecar, Myrtle Point's young and popular jeweler, went to Bandon by Saturday's boat.
For fine seed barley, call on Ed Johnson, near the Ray school house, or address him at Coquille.
Pink and George Laird went to the bay yesterday to catch a steamer for San Francisco where they expect to enter school.
Coos county has been making another of its awkward stabs at giving us some genuine winter weather, and a great mixup it was.
New music and music books constantly received at the music store of Chas. Grissen Music Co., Odd Fellows' building, Marshfield, Ore.
J. B. Sweet, the dairymen of near Riverton, made us pleasant call yesterday and took advantage of our clubbing rates with the Young People's Weekly.
For International Stock and Poultry Food, the best preparation to keep your herds and flocks in fine condition, see R. S. Knowlton, the druggist.
McDonald, the barber, has just received a full stock of barbers' supplies of the finest quality which he sells at bottom price—as well as a big supply of Newbro's Herpicide.
Mrs. T. N. Johnson and son, Ira, of this place, who have been in California for several months visiting, returned by the last Arago, coming over from the bay yesterday.
E. C. Holland, of the Bulletin, had business at Marshfield and started out yesterday morning counting ties in that direction. However, he expected to catch a train at the junction or Cedar Point.
The Ladies' Aid Society will give a dime social at the home of Capt. Butler on Friday evening, Feb. 6th. A cordial invitation is extended to all. MRS. JAYES, Pres. MRS. SIMPSON, Sec'y.
J. L. Knight, the Myrtle Point stock buyer, passed through town the last of the week with a band of sheep bound for the bay. Owing to the fact that the cars are unable to run he experienced considerable difficulty in reaching his destination on account of high water, etc.
O. A. Kelly, of Riverton, who had a large log roll over him a few weeks ago, was up to town yesterday. He is still sore from his experience and only walks short distances and that with considerable difficulty. While Mr. Kelly came out as luckily as Pat who rolled down the hill with a log and managed to stay on top half the time, but he does not care to make a practice of playing skid.
There are a number of boys in this town who are killing robins by the dozens in strict violation of the laws of our state. This should be looked after by our officers and immediately stopped. These birds are our best friends and a boy who is so thoughtless as to wantonly destroy these birds for the fun he can get out of it, ought to be headed without gloves.

W. H. Erdice, the Myrtle Point creamery man was in town yesterday.
At W. T. Barton's the Bicycle dealer, you will find all kinds of bargains in bicycles and bicycle sundries. Call and get prices.
There is to be a temperance meeting at the Christian church Saturday evening. All interested in the cause are urged to come out.
Going at a bargain, a good double-barrel breech-loading shot gun, a rare chance for any one wanting a shot gun, at W. T. Barton's.
Hundreds of satisfied patrons testify to the superior fitting of spectacles. Write. I will call. M. G. Pohl, the Myrtle Point Optician.
J. L. Randleman, of Norway, and daughter, little Miss Ruby, made our office a pleasant call on Saturday as they were on their way down the river on business.
Write to C. A. Snow & Co., opposite the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, D. C., for anything you want to know about patents, trade marks and copyrights.
Miss Dell Fox, the Daily Mail at Marshfield, who was storm bound at this city the first of last week, succeeded in reaching the place of abode the middle of the week.
R. S. Sutton, of Port Orford, son of Hon. Walter Sutton, former editor and proprietor of the Port Orford Tribune, was in town last week in the interest of that paper.
W. J. Moon, of Roseburg, representing the New York Life insurance company, has been in Coos county for several days while he visited relatives and friends as well as doing business for the company.
L. A. Lee, of Riverton, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. J. F. Lee, of the same place, were in town, making our office a pleasant call yesterday. Mrs. Lee is still in town and will spend the greater part of the week here.
Dave Holden and the stage passengers on the south beach had quite an experience yesterday, they were stuck in the quick sand at Ten-mile, and all hands were forced to do some lively work in order to save the team and wagon.—Gardiner Gazette.
U. L. Gray, the artist, painted the posters for the play, "Mrs. Partington and her son Ike," and they are beauties. Mr. Gray is an artist of no mean ability and his work must be seen to be appreciated. Anyone in need of work in his line should consult him while in town.
Bart McDuffee was up from his lower river ranch the last of the week to consult a physician in regard to a difficulty he is having with his throat. He swallowed some tacks last week while tacking on house lining, and one tack has stopped in his throat and refuses to go up or down. We sincerely hope that there will be no serious results.
William Hunt, the photographer late of Bandon, purchased the repair shop of J. M. Whetstone in this place, last week, and is moving to town to take charge of the business. Now that the wheeling season will soon be here, there is prospects for a goodly amount of work in this line, and Mr. Hunt will be ready and prepared to take care of all that comes his way.
Virgil Hixson, formerly of this county, and who is well and favorably known throughout the valley, and who returned recently from a sojourn of six years throughout the union, was in town Saturday. The last year he spent in Wyoming on the sheep ranges, with which he has become favorably impressed, and to which he expects to return and secure a flock of his own and follow sheep raising as a business.
U. L. Gray, of Myrtle Point, has just completed a new drop curtain for the stage in the Mascenic Hall, which gives a grand display of Mr. Gray's artistic skill. The center figure is a beautiful mountain and water scene most exquisitely designed and executed, encircled by display advertisements of leading business of the city, all done in a manner which reflects great credit upon the skill and ability of the artist.
At the annual meeting of the board of directors of the Coquille Valley Bank, held at the bank Wednesday were present: J. J. Lamb, president; L. Harlocker, vice-president; A. J. Sherwood, Isaiah Hooker and G. W. White comprising the full board. After an examination of the books and records of the bank a 20 per cent dividend was declared for 1902. The Coquille Valley Bank commenced business two years ago and has made a continuous growth, more than doubling its business the last year over the year previous. Its deposits now exceed $125,000, thus demonstrating the fact that a bank was needed in our little city. This marked growth of our banking business is a true evidence of the growth of all other kinds of business in this part of the county.

George Benham, of Fairview, is in town today.
J. O. Stemler, of Dore, was in town Thursday.
Carl Walker is back at his old place on the railroad.
Sheriff Gallier had business at Myrtle Point on Thursday.
R. S. Tyrrell, the creamery man of near Arago, had business in town yesterday.
Mrs. Harrington is quite ill at the home of her father, Jacob Croy, in this city.
Rev. Mulkey will preach at Myrtle Point next Saturday night and also Sunday morning and evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Cox, of Bandon, were in town Sunday and yesterday, having business before the county clerk.
On account of the rise in lumber, the mills are putting forth extra efforts. The Lyons mill at this place, is running day and night.
S. J. Tuttle of this place, who has been very ill of late is somewhat improved the past few days being able to sit up some the last day or so.
A new cook stove, just used six weeks, going at a bargain, also utensils, wash tub, wash board, etc., at Barton's the Furniture and Bicycle dealer.
Mrs. G. H. Guerin, of Hotel Guerin, at Myrtle Point, passed through town Thursday on her way to San Francisco, where she will visit friends for some time.
J. B. Moomaw, of Arago, was in town today. Mr. Moomaw sold 50 head of fine porkers to Holmes, the Marshfield butcher, last week and they were brought through town Sunday.
Gus Mael, of this city, who went to Marshfield last week to consult physicians, underwent an operation for appendicitis and is getting along nicely. The operation was performed by Drs. Horsfall and Gross.
On last Tuesday evening a number of the members of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Rev. Adolph Haberly and spent several hours very pleasantly playing games and in social converse, after which refreshments were served.
(Myrtle Point Enterprise.)
At a special meeting of the city council, Tuesday evening, it was voted to rescind the order heretofore made levying a 7 mill tax for city purposes.
A. A. Braden, who has been visiting relatives in this place for several weeks, left on his return to Council, Idaho, Tuesday.
BORN: In this city Jan. 27, 1903, to the wife of R. L. Wagner, a daughter.
E. N. Smith and wife left Thursday on a trip to California and Arizona. They will be gone about two months.
Bandon Recorder.
Mrs. J. H. Cecil has been suffering severely from rheumatism for the past month, but is improving.
J. W. Fields is preparing to start a blacksmith shop here. He intends to build near Thomas Anderson's meat market on the north side of First street.
W. H. Logan and his force of workers are engaged in building a railroad track from the Parker wharf above town, on the north side of the river to the north jetty. This track will be used in hauling material used in jetty construction. This track was made necessary because of the shoaling of the water at the wharf used two years ago.
Marshfield Sun.
Captain Jones' dredger was taken to North Bend, yesterday, where she will receive the finishing touches.
George Terry and Miss Frankie Gould were married at Alleghany last evening, Rev. Crooks, officiating.
Manager Wanted.
Trustworthy, either sex, by wholesale merchandise company of solid financial standing, to manage local representatives who will organize clubs among consumers. 40 per cent saved for our customers. Business no experiment but a proven success. Salary $18 per week, expenses advanced. Experience unnecessary. Address D. B. Clarkson, Mgr., 334 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill.
The crowned heads of every nation, The rich men, poor men and misers, All join in paying tribute to Dewitt's Little Early Risers.
H. Williams, San Antonio, Tex., writes: Little Early Riser Pills are the best I ever used in my family. I unhesitatingly recommend them to everybody. R. S. Knowlton.

Fine Watches, Jewelry, Clocks, Silverware, Musical Instruments, Optical Goods.

Fine Watch and Jewelry Repairing.

Wilson Jewelry Co.

NOTICE!

THE Prize Baking Powder at Hawkins' Store. Excellent Green Coffee 8 lbs, for $1. Victor Roast Coffee 5 lbs for $1. Try a package of Union Oats and get a Dish---FREE.

O. C. SANFORD

—DEALER IN—

REAL ESTATE.

COQUILLE CITY, OREGON.

Rents Houses and Farms, Does General Agency Business. Office—Up-stairs near Postoffice.

New Drug Store,

GEO. A. CHURCHMAN, PROP

GENERAL LINE OF CHEMICALS, DRUGS, PATENT MEDICINES, DRUGGISTS' SUPPLIES TOILET ARTICLES, ETC.

Prescriptions A Specialty.

Having had many years of experience in this line we are prepared to give all the best of satisfaction.

Golden Building - - - Coquille, Oregon.

Ready for Business

I have opened a stock of Hardware, Stoves, Agricultural Implements, Paints, Etc. I want your business and will guarantee you satisfaction both in quality and price. Will do Plumbing and Tinning.

H. S. KRIBS, Coquille, Or.

Canned Fruits!

We have on hand a large and well selected stock which we are offering at the following prices:

Our Pie Fruits consists of Apricots, gallon tins; Peaches, " " Cherries, " " Pears, " " Our Table Fruits consists of Peaches, Apricots, Pears, Cherries.

We also carry Haywe can and the celebrated 2 for 25 cents. We guarantee every can of represented.

Buff Plymouth Rock Poultry Farm, J. R. Stillwell, Prop ARAGO, OREGON. Throughbred cockerels from $1 up, and eggs $1 per setting. Also Scotch-Collicies pups of the very finest strain on sale.

honestly made Levi Strauss & Co's Copper-riveted Overalls