Governor Guts $63,000 From Appropriations.
A Veto for House Bill 363.

Salem, Ore., Feb. 26.—Governor Chamberlain has vetoed 14 bills passed by the Legislature. It is declared by those who are familiar with legislation in Oregon that he has surpassed the records of his predecessors in that regard. Late this afternoon he did what many a Governor has wanted to do, and threatened to do, when he vetoed a special appropriation bill. Some valid and meritorious claims have gone with the unmeritorious, but a precedent has been established for the disapproval of special appropriation bills which contain unsatisfactory items.

Under the constitution of Oregon no single item of an appropriation bill can be vetoed, and the bill had to stand or fall as a whole. The Governor concluded, after several days' deliberation, that it would be better that the bill should fall. This bill carries the $14,000 appropriation for the executive mansion, the claims, aggregating $1,000 for the pursuit of Tracy and Merrill; $10,000 for improvements at the fair grounds, $34,000 for payment of claims of counties under the seal bounty act, and claims of W.A. Storey, O'Day and Tarpley, Alex. Orme, H. G. McCarthy, H. S. Moody, Hofer Bros., C. S. Moore, M. C. Starr, and P. W. Dillard, for various amounts. The total amount was something over $62,000.

While the vote is placed upon the constitutional ground that the bill does not include but one subject, and that the subjects are not expressed in the title, yet in its principal effect it is a protest against the practice of grouping a number of unrelated appropriations in a single bill so that improper ones must be approved if any at all. Every governor has been confronted with the same sort of bills, but heretofore they have been signed rather than let the valid claims wait two years for payment.

Carl Bros., of Norway, the proprietors of the combine butter and cheese factory, have enlarged their plant one-half of its former capacity. They received some new machinery a few days ago including a new boiler. They will have it in operation by March 10th, and when their factory is complete it will be one of the most up-to-date plants in the county. They have been running their creamery on the co-operative plan and will continue the same this season, as it has given excellent satisfaction. On Saturday, March 14th, at 10 a. m., they will have a creamery meeting for the purpose of re-electing directors, and so that the dairymen may see the plan the creamery is running on. The steamer Welcome will leave Coquille at the usual time, taking all who wish to attend the meeting the round trip fare. Carl Bros. purchased the steamer Welcome of Capt. Willard last year for the purpose of carrying milk to the Star creamery, and to do their own freighting. It has been reported that they were going to shut down their creamery, also that the steamer Welcome would lay off until April 1st, but this is a mistake as they will both continue the same as they have been.

Mr. D. E. Newcomb, agent of the Humane Society at La Jara, Col., recently sold 114 head of horses for an average price of 75 cents. He had found the horses starving, took them up and fed them and was allowed to sell them to reimburse the Society for the expense of caring for them.

The London Grain Elevator Company has just completed a giant "grasshopper" elevator for the unloading of grain from American vessels. It will draw 150 tons an hour from the hold of a vessel by means of an endless belt provided with a continuous succession of buckets.

It is not generally known that in the United States Senate chamber there are two snuff boxes served to the wall and kept constantly replenished for the use of Senators. Five pounds of Copenhagen snuff, costing $3.75, were consumed by the Senators last session.

The striking of artisan water in eastern Oregon is creating considerable excitement. The flow from this well is estimated to be sufficient to irrigate one thousand acres. Many claims on oil lands and desert lands are being staked out.

Scientists estimate that the amount of water within the earth's crust would, if placed on the surface, flood the entire surface to a depth of from 3,000 to 3,500.

Sudden Death of C. B. Self.

It is again our duty to record the death of another pioneer and respected citizen of this community in the person of Green B. Self, of near this city, who passed away Sunday, March 1st. Mr. Self was born in Tennessee, March 24, 1835, and was therefore 67 years, 11 months and 7 days of age at the time of his death. At the early age of two years his march in life was started in a westerly direction, making his first halt in Arkansas. In the early '60s he came to the coast, spending several years in California and Nevada, and then came to Coos county where he had since remained. He leaves two sons, Arthur and Charles, and one daughter, Miss Emma, to mourn his death, his wife having preceded him across the dark river several years. Arthur, the eldest son, has been absent several years, spending a great portion of the time at sea, while Charles and Miss Emma live here. They have the heartfelt sympathy of a large circle of friends.

The deceased was an honorable and upright man, honest and generous, and commanded the respect of all who knew him. The funeral took place at 11 o'clock today at the M. E. church South, conducted by Rev. Allen assisted by Rev. Starmer, of Myrtle Point, and the interment at the Masonic cemetery where the remains were laid to rest in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing friends. Peace to his ashes.

A Musical.

Last Friday evening, at the home of Mrs. Frank Morse, Miss Coffey gave a very successful recital, in which she was assisted by her pupils and Mrs. E. D. Sperry.

As this was Miss Coffey's first recital here it was attended with unusual interest, and all felt gratified at the marked progress her pupils have made.

The selection of the program showed excellent musical taste, and the groups of songs by Miss Coffey were very well rendered.

In substitution for the "Spring Song" trio Mrs. Sperry played Gottschalk's "Last Hope" and Wollenhaupt's "Last Smile," in a most artistic manner.

At the close of the program Miss Mulkey and Miss Emma Sherwood were prevailed upon to recite. Miss Mulkey's portrayal of the mad Bessie in "Sister and I" was particularly fine. A social hour followed.

Coquille Council, the local organization of the Fraternal Aid Association at this place, is among the leading in popularity of our beneficiary orders. Each meeting witnesses the initiation of several new members. On Thursday evening ten victims were led into the mysteries of the order, and about twenty are on the docket for the next meeting if their papers reach here in time. In this men and women join the same lodge and are both eligible to all branches and receive the same benefits on equal footing. Social members are admitted for a nominal sum which adds a pleasing social feature.

Wakeful Children.

For a long time the two year old child of Mr. P. L. McPherson, 59 N. Tenth St., Harrisburg, Pa., would sleep but two or three hours in the early part of the night, which made it very hard for her parents. Her mother concluded the child had stomach trouble, and gave her half of one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which quieted her stomach and she slept the whole night through. Two boxes of these tablets have effected a permanent cure and she is now well and strong. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Sad Death of Cuthbert C. Dye.

It is with sincere regret that we chronicle the sad death of our little friend, Cuthbert C. Dye, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Dye, of this city. He was a bright and cheerful youth who will be greatly missed by his loving parents, two brothers and two sisters, as well as a large circle of friends and schoolmates. The cause of his untimely taking off is supposed to be an injury he received while playing at school. On Friday, a week before his death, he was playing with some of the boys, and in attempting to run across a walk near the school building he tripped and fell, striking the walk with considerable force, while his playmate ran over him. On Saturday and Sunday he walked with considerable trouble, and on Monday took to his bed and grew worse till the end came. He did not seem to blame anyone as being guilty of hurting him on purpose, but regarded it as purely an accident.

Dr. Horsfall, of Marshfield, was called in consultation with Dr. Churchman, and they decided that he was suffering from complications other than the injury, which refused to respond to medical skill.

The deceased was 13 years, 11 months and 19 days of age at the time of his death. The funeral was conducted by Rev. H. C. Allen at the M. E. church South, on Sunday, and was largely attended. The burial took place in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

We are informed that Mrs. Kinneff will return here in a few days.

Miss Lizzie Foster and Miss Alice Price went down the river last Sunday to visit friends a few days.

The Ching took all the coal from the bunkers here. It is doubtful whether she will carry coal again.

Wm. Oddy, of Canas Valley, called here last week.

R. W. Airey canvassed our town last week for a book called, "Christ's Object Lessons."

Joseph Perry has petitioned the postal authorities to appoint him postmaster. Mrs. Rohm refused to qualify.

The Riverton Lumber Co. are building a concrete foundation on which to place their new engine. Mr. Price estimates an output of 30,000 feet per day as soon as the new machinery is in place.

Several of our people have commenced planting their gardens.

A subscription paper is being circulating in our town and vicinity to raise money and labor for constructing a new dock in front of the town. We cannot have it any too soon.

The mines are shut down again awaiting order from San Francisco.

E. M. Peterson and C. O. Price are both sick and confined to their beds. Dr. Coffin was called in and visited both parties.

We suggest the building of a hospital here for accommodating the sick and lame.

DONA ANNA.

Colds are Dangerous.

How do you hear it remarked: "It's only a cold," and a few days later learn that the man is on his back with pneumonia. This is of such common occurrence that a cold, however slight, should not be disregarded. Chamberlain's cough remedy counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. It always cures and is pleasant to take. Sold by R. S. Knowlton.
