WANTED. A good man with family to run a ranch and do contract work at making posts and fencing. R. E. L. Bedillion, the general hotel man of Bandon is in town and paid our office a pleasant call this morning. Mr. Thompson, the baker and restaurant man is preparing to construct a large brick oven for his bakery. RACINE FREE.—For Racine stocking feet, all sizes, black or white, call on Mrs. Lottie Davis, Coquille. Mrs. Harry Hensley, accompanied by her niece, Miss Florence Gillman, arrived from California by the last Alliance. Our young friends, I. M. Weekley and Don Miller, of the North Fork, made our office a pleasant call on Tuesday evening. Hundreds of satisfied patrons testify to the superior fitting of spectacles. Write. I will call. M. G. Pohl, the Myrtle Point Optician. Dave Collier arrived from his visit to Ashland Sunday but was not accompanied by that much talked of bride. It seems that that part of the program was all a joke. Wm. Ross, the ship builder who constructed the Anrelia at Prosper last season, arrived on the Chico Tuesday and is looking up the chances for building another this summer. Major Tower, of Empire City, went to Bandon the forepart of last week to make official survey of the hull of the new steamer, Nellie and Cressy, just completed by W. A. Bigman and Lyman Wolf at that place. Rev. W. B. Smith arrived here from Junction on Sunday morning with his family. Mr. Smith has given up preaching for a while and will live on a place of his on Fish-trap. Mrs. Smith is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Lamb at this place. Rev. C. D. Price having sold his small place at the mouth of Cunningham to W. B. Rober last week, has purchased the Banning place near Bancroft, and he and Mrs. Price has gone up there to set the place in order and the other members of the family will go up as soon as Grandpa Price's health is improved some. Bishop K. V. Millard, of the Church of Redeemed Israel, will be here on the arrival of the Alliance from Portland and will hold a series of meetings in this city. Since Brother Millard left here he has made a tour of the Holy Lands and has made a special study of them in connection with the Bible and its history. He also has stereoscopic views with which to illustrate his lectures or sermons. We congratulate our people on this opportunity to hear Mr. Millard.

Read the ad from the Bargain Store. Fresh fruits and cabbage at Mrs. Nosler's. Drane & Ray want a few dozen choice hens. Go to Drain & Ray for your grain and mill feed. BARGAINS IN MILLINERY.—Mrs. Elliott will proceed to close out the present stock of Millinery at Mrs. Sugg's as well as a lot of new goods which has just arrived. Big bargains. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Aker, late of Pierce county, Washington, arrived in this county with their son lately, and have concluded to locate in our city. We extend them a hearty welcome. Alex. Stauff, of Arago, went to Marshfield yesterday. He carried a gun, but there was no blood in his eye and we should judge that his mission was other than that of hunting scalps. Mrs. Lottie Davis is agent for the New Discovery, Golden Washing Compound. Try it and be convinced that it will save more labor, fuel, soap and clothes, than any other preparations, can be had at L. X. L. Store, Coquille, and Mrs. J. M. Perkins, Bandon. The Sharpless Tubular separator was by a majority of the students of the late about course of the Oregon Dairy school at Corvallis just closed, voted the best separator. There were four other makes of separators competing. W. M. Burgess, Agent for Coos County. Miss Rose Coffey, the music teacher, having arranged her affairs here, took her departure yesterday for her home near Drain where she was called on account of the illness of her mother. Miss Coffey formed many acquaintances while here among whom are some very dear friends who regret her departure very much. It is to be hoped that she will return in the future and instruct our young people in the art of music again.

The Lyons Mill Changes Hands. A deal was closed the latter part of last week between the Lyons Estate and the Pacific Furniture and Lumber Co. by which the latter firm became the owners and operators of the sawmill at this city. Three members of the firm were here during the week, two, however, closing the deal, Messrs. R. D. Jones, of Los Angeles, and W. T. Kerr, of Port Orford, E. W. Babcock, also of Los Angeles, arriving after the deal was closed and the other parties had taken their departure. The mill will be run to furnish lumber for the large turniture factories operated by this firm in California. Drain & Ray have hay to sell. Onion sets and garden seeds at Knowlton's. A farm to lease for 6 years. Apply at this office. Shoes stays down at the old prices at Skeels. Millinery at closing out price at Miss Joie Lyons. Grandpa Hayes, who has been under the weather for some time, is in town. J. M. Upton, of Bannock's attorneys, had business in the county seat yesterday. For the American Cream Separator, the best and most up-to-date machine, go to J. A. Lamb & Co. Mrs. George Quigley, a sister of Mrs. George Leneve of this city, died on the bay last week of paralysis. Johnson's Mill has been undergoing extensive repairs lately. They will be starting up again in a day or so. W. Sinclair, of this city, went to Curry county last week to look after mining interests he has on Sixes river. J. B. Davis, father of Mrs. Will Kietner, of this city, and the Norway creamery man, G. S. Davis, arrived from Humboldt by last Alliance. For International Stock and Poultry Food, the best preparation to keep your herds and flocks in fine condition, see R. S. Knowlton, the druggist. The cotton mills in the southern states spun last year 334,415 bales of cotton, very nearly as much as was spun by the New England spinners. Captain Ross, who built the vessel at Prosper last year arrived on the Chico, last Monday. We understand that he is here with a view to building another vessel this season. Bert Dean has sold his home near the Moulton street bridge to our new market man, R. B. Ray, and has bought the livery team of Mr. Ray and is ready for business in that line. The teaming business of this city underwent several changes last week, but has settled down almost as it originally was. W. H. Mansell now drives the big blacks and Harry Flaunders sorrel and white, and the latter now delivers the mill wood. J. G. Fish, our new furniture man has his new and larger engine set and running order and has begun work in good earnest. He is filling several orders for butter boxes and cubes for which there is a growing demand. He will be able to fill all orders promptly. Messrs. Romander and Leneve have their creamery in good running order and are beginning to do a good business, and John Foster, an expert machinist from Cyclop's, iron foundry, of San Francisco, arrived, last week and is putting in the freezing and cold storage apparatus. They will be turning out ice in about a week. T. H. Mehl and Co. have bought out the hardware business of H. S. Kribs and will conduct the business in the future. Tommy, the chief tinner and clerk needs no introduction to our people, he having been raised in this city. We are sorry to lose Mr. Kribs and family who are thinking some of going to South America. The family of Allen M. Dodge, arrived at Myrtle Point last week from Kansas. Mr. Dodge is a brother of Orvil the well-known pioneer of this county and he has been stopping in this valley during the last year and having noted the grand opportunities presented here conducted to send for his family. Mr. Dodge will soon purchase property and make this country his future home.

Robert Whitted Instantly Killed. A telephone message was received by Mrs. N. W. Leneve on Saturday signed by S. R. Dart, superintendent of the lumbering business at Corbin City, stating that her brother, Robert had been instantly killed by a falling limb that morning. The deceased was in his fortieth year and was a quiet, industrious young man, and leaves one brother, Chas. Whitted, now living in California, and one sister, Mrs. N. W. Leneve, of this city, to mourn his sad and sudden demise, his parents both having preceded him several years. Deceased was a son of the late well-known pioneer, Thos. C. Whitted, who was one of the framers of Oregon's constitution, being a member of the legislature from Douglas county. We have the Coffee that brings you back to the Bargain Store. Mrs. Nannie Fellows of Marshfield, is over visiting friends. Mrs. C. H. Filicraft, of North Bend is over to this city on a visit with her sister, Mrs. C. H. Fry and other relatives and friends. Thoms Ashton, of near Parkersburg, was severely hurt today by being horned by an angry bull. We hope his injuries may not prove serious. Woman's Club Musicals. The Woman's Study Club gave its first musicale last Friday evening at the residence of Mrs. E. D. Sperry, the invitations necessarily being limited to club members and their escorts. The rooms were artistically decorated with ferns and Oregon grape, and the ladies with dainty gowns. As the Club is studying American history and related literature this year, American composers predominate in the following program, which was excellently rendered: Part I. Overture "Zampa" (piano duet) Harold, —Mmes. Sperry and Cullin. Sketch, Music in America, Mrs. Snook. "Lady Bird," (trio without accompaniment) Cowan, Mmes. Sperry and Snook and Miss Coffey. "Violets" Ellen Wright. b. "Spring's Awakening," Dudley Buck, —Miss Coffey. "The Rose," (vocal quartet.) Geo. Nevin, —Mmes. Hazard, Sperry, Cullin and Snook. "The Venetian Boat-Song," adapted from Blumenthal, —Mmes. Sperry and Snook. Part II. "Last Hope," (piano solo) Gottschalk, —Mrs. Sperry. "At My Window," Parker, Miss Lukea. "The Bluebell," Mrs. H. H. A. Beach, —Mmes. Sperry, Hazard, Cullin and Snook. a. "In the Chimney Corner," Cowan, b. "So Robin Sang" Lane, Miss Coffey. a. "Spring Song," Weil-Lynes, b. "Gute Nacht," (without accompaniment) Brahms-Lynes, Mmes. Sperry and Snook and Miss Coffey. After partaking bountifully of refreshments, the company enjoyed a charming little farce, "Gossip over the Chocolate," with the following cast of characters: Miss Von Luidon (German), Miss Atkinson; Miss Lee (Southerner), Miss Lyons; Miss Green (New Englander), Mrs. Morse; Miss Beacon (Bostonian), Miss Coffey; Miss Van Kortlandt (New Yorker), Mrs. Hawkins; Miss Durand (French), Mrs. Snook. A delightful social hour ensued, during which Miss Wise, Miss Atkinson and Judge Sperry gave recitations impromptu. The only note of sadness during the evening was the knowledge that it was Miss Coffey's last appearance here this season. Perhaps the four solos she so generously sang were more keenly appreciated on that account, but the two beautiful songs, "Spring's Awakening" and "In the Chimney Corner," were so artistically rendered that they deserve special mention. Miss Coffey's departure is a serious loss, not only to the Club, but also to the community. Mrs. Sperry was fresh laurels as a pianist, and as a charming hostess, and was ably assisted by the various committees. All present felt that they had spent a profitable and enjoyable evening long to be remembered.

Onion sets at Kanematz's. Attention, farmers? Take your bacon and lard to Drane & Ray and get the cash. O. L. Ingles arrived by the last Alliance to be at the trial of Dr. Ingles who it will be remembered is awaiting trial for a shooting affair in which he engaged some time ago in Marshfield. Mr. Ingles brought E. B. Sealbrook, a prominent attorney of California who will defend the case. 1903 SEASON. Let us Wade Right into the Subject. The 1903 season will be the greatest bicycle season ever known. The finest equipped and most up-to-date wheels that Coquille riders ever laid their eyes on will be kept in stock at right prices, and if you want one say so. We want your trade, and we are entitled to it, because we have good goods, right prices, and can serve you well. You don't expect any more, but you want that much, don't you. To be brief, try us and our goods, and our way of treating you, and if you like us try us again. We want your business. Enough said. Leep & Fish. NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION. United States Land Office, Roseburg, Or., April 14, 1903. Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 9, 1902, WILLIAM J. WHITE, Of Marshfield, county of Coos, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 4942, for the purchase of the E. 1/4 of W. 1/4 of section No. 20, in township No. 27, S., range 11 W., and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before W. U. Douglas, U. S. Commissioner for Oregon, at Marshfield, Or., on Saturday, the 27th day of June, 1903. He names as witnesses: George Beale and James Smith, of Marshfield, and Hiram Betts and Albert Betts, of Fairview, Or. Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 27th day of June, 1903. J. T. BRIDGES, Register.
