Dr. S. L. Roberds Passes Away.

Dr. S. L. Roberds, recently of Myrtle Point and later of this city, whose demise we have just heard lived a life that ments more than simply a passing, brief notice of his death. At the time of his death, he was a member in good standing of Arago Chapter R. A. M. at Marshfield, Ore. also of Myrtle Lodge A. F. & A. M. Myrtle Point, Ore, and of Elgin Chapter O. E. S. and recently transferred his membership from the G. A. R. at Myrtle Point, where he resided several years previous to his return to his old home at Eagle Creek, to Gen. Meade Post of Oregon City. In nearly all of these organizations he has at various times occupied official positions of prominence and trust, and his integrity and faithfulness no man could question. He was among the first to enlist in Co. H. 1st Ind. Heavy Artillery, and nutil the close of the war he proved himself a brave and efficient soldier. His worth was ap presiated by his comrades. Twice he gave up preferment that should by right have been his, to others because they were his seniors in years and because he loved their friendship more than thehonor of advancement. Al- though but a Sergent, he was frequently placed in positions of trust and at one time was left in charge of Fort Games for several weeks. The happiest hours in his closing years were those spent in com-
