It has been fully decided by the people of Coquille City to celebrate the Fourth of July in fitting manner becoming a true and patriotic American city, and we cordially invite all who wish to take part and assist in doing this grand glorious day ample justice.

A telegram received yesterday from James Keene notifies his friends here that he will not be here on this trip of the Alliance, as intended, but will come later. It is surmised that his theatrical scenery was not completed in time by the contractors.—Mail.

We are sorry to state that our friend, A. A. Simon, is lying very low at his home at Conledo. The last reports are that there is little chance for his recovery.—Later. At going to press we hear that Mr. Simon has passed away.—Funeral services tomorrow (Wednesday) at two P. M. from the hall of the A. O. U. W.

W. H. Button and Elbert Dyer returned by the last Chico from San Francisco with the necessary machinery to proceed with the oil well proper, further prospecting being deemed unnecessary. This is certainly encouraging, and we have good reasons to hope to see a real gusher flowing there in the very near future, which will certainly mean a great deal to Coos County. These gentlemen surely deserve great credit for the persistent courage and industry displayed in their prosecution of the work thus far.

Our Ice, Cold Storage and Creamery is doing a rushing business.

They now manufacture the products of about 9000 pounds of milk daily, and for several days past have been unable to supply the demands for ice. A number of the dairymen's calves having become large enough to spare the milk, will be supplied instead of cream and the cheese department will soon be in full blast.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Edwards, late arrivals from Arkansas, who have located at Johnson's mill, made our office a pleasant call on Saturday. These people seem very well pleased with our section, and find a great contrast between our mild climate and that of their old home which is now being storm swept and crops suffering heavy loss.

They are expecting their eldest son and family in a few days and other acquaintances and friends are expected to follow in the near future.
