After June the 1st, the steamer Welcome will leave Coquille City at 7 o'clock sharp a. m. every day. This change is made on account of the Boat having so much milk to carry that she can't get to the creamery in proper time to leave any later than the time above mentioned.

C. Timmins, the Astoria cannery man, arrived in town yesterday. He informs us that the Alaska fish cannery combine has about destroyed the cannery business at other points on the coast, and that he is canvassing the idea of turning his attention to the canning of fruits and vegetables, and might make this valley his location, which we surely hope he may. There is no question but this would be a good place to carry on a business of that kind.

The following is order of services at the Methodist Episcopal Church, Sunday June 12th. Sunday-School at 10 o'clock A. M. Preaching at 11 o'clock A. M. I. R. Helm, of Eden Valley, came down to the seat yesterday and met many old acquaintances. His trip down was for the purpose of filing on his homestead, which, however, he was successful in doing, but many parties in that section, have been refused filings on account of the forest reserve, which generally regarded as a nuisance and a fraud by the settlers in this part, as we have no fears of Coos county drying up right away. During our interview with Mr. Helm he showed us a "mad stone" of which he became a possessor last season by taking it from the stomach of a deer which he had killed. He also informed us that they had just enjoyed a pleasant visit from Rev. C. M. Brynn, Mrs. Helem's father, with whom she returned to his home at Cottage Grove.
