Ellingson was up from his lower river home yesterday and spent last night with his son Arthur, our furniture man. The Captain came in to see our steam printing plant in operation. George Martin, whom we mentioned last week as suffering from a badly bruised knee, was taken to Marshfield Wednesday, and from his wife who accompanied him and who returned Sunday, we learn he is doing well as could be expected under the circumstances. H. T. Scheers, of the north edge of town, last week sold his fine dairy farm to E. A. Williams, of Norway, receiving therefore the sum of $10,000. While we regret to see Mr. Scheers remove from the old homestead, we are glad to know that so desirable a citizen as Mr. Williams will take charge. Edwin Ellingson, brother of our townsman and furniture dealer, and who is building a steamer for Chas. Ashton, the raftsmen, was in town yesterday, looking for some necessary tools with which to do the caulking, having reached that stage with the boat. Mr. Ashton went to San Francisco by the last Chico for the machinery. This will be a tow boat to be used in connection with his booming and rafting operations.

Champion Mowers and Rakes and Quail Tedders are all Superior Machines and moderate in price. Before purchasing be sure to examine T. H. Mehl & Co's, fine line of these goods. Sunday's Ball games resulted: North Bend vs Coquille, at Coquille, 13 to 9 in favor of North Bend. Marshfield vs Bandon, at Bandon, 4 to 0 in favor of the home team. Thomas Butts, of Bridge, was in to see us on Saturday after noon, while down this way looking for cows he might trade for Mr. Butts is preparing to do a good dairy business next year. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Collins, of Sound Point, Idaho, spent several days in town lately looking at the country. They have their wheels and enjoy rides out to see the surrounding country. Frank Dutton, of Santa Cruz, California, arrived in town the last of the week, and is having a look at the country as well as visiting several acquaintances, among whom are W. E. Disher and T. J. Little, of this part. U. L. Gray, the expert painter and sign writer, who has been at Bandon for several months painting scenery for Kime's new hall, passed through town on Saturday on his way home at Myrtle Point. We enjoyed a pleasant call at our office. Post office Inspector Ed. Clements, of Portland, paid this valley on official visit last week, and while at this place enjoyed a short but pleasant visit with A. W. Kelly, a cousin, whom he had not seen for a number of years, having separated in boyhood in Minnesota. Our county court, consisting of Judge Harlocker and Commissioners McIntosh and Demert, are beginning another good roads program for this summer. This court has made many very substantial improvements in our road system since they have been in office, and if it should be continued right along, it will not be many years till we will have good roads in winter which will be a great thing for Coos county. There was some excitement created by what was supposed by some to be a wild man along the river last week, but proved to be an insane sailor by the name of Philip S. Wilson, who came over from the bay several days ago. He was first thought to be suffering from tremens when captured and brought to town by B. E. Hampton and A. J. Barger, of Norway. On being kept in jail a few days he was adjudged insane and Deputy Sheriff Ed. Gallier and H. S. Kaibs started for Salem with him this morning. H. E. Dena, an expert machinist, representing the Eagle Engine Co., of San Francisco, is in town doing a little work on the engine recently put in by them for the Cold Storage Co. This engine is one of the latest inventions, being an oil engine running on the explosive plan, but capable of burning a much lower grade and cheaper oil, and therefore doing away with the danger of accidents from accidental explosions from the gases from the more valuable oils. The machine is the acme of simplicity, having neither valves nor battery.
