

Married.

Thompson-Ray. At the home of the brides parents, at two o'clock, June 24, 1903, John L. Thompson, and Jennie M. Ray were united in marriage.

Only a few guests were present, the bride's and groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ray of Myrtle Point, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ray of Marshfield, Mr. and Mrs. Burns and daughter Cora, of this city, and Rob and Dora Vermillion, cousins of the Rays from Alma, Neb., who came with Mrs. Jennie, when she came this spring.

The bride was a popular teacher of Norton county Kansas, and the groom is also from that place, where he had clerked for several years in one of the best stores in Norton.

At two o'clock, Miss Inez Thompson played the wedding march, and the couple came down stairs, preceded by Mr. Robert Vermillion and Miss Maud Ray, who acted as best man and bride's maid. They entered the parlor and there beneath a beautiful arch, covered with ferns, evergreens and roses. The minister used the beautiful ring ceremony, and thus two of our young people became one. After the congratulations all were invited to the tables spread with a sumptuous dinner.

The bride's dress was of white mousseline with shirings and silk medallions. She wore white roses in her hair and carried a large bouquet of the same flowers. The bride's maid was also dressed in white with pink roses. The groom wore the conventional black.

The groom is quite well known in the community, having come here last fall and is known as a young man of integrity, honor and industry. The bride has been here only a short time, having remained in Kansas to complete her term of school. Both are members of the church, and they enter upon the path of life with bright and beautiful prospects before them.

Riverton Pick Up's.

The public school closed last Friday for a vacation of two weeks, Mr. L. E. Brown, our teacher, will take a trip to Myrtle Point where he will—well never mind what until you see her.

Mr. James Vowell & family have moved into the E. B. Smith house.

Mr. A. Rose and daughter were visiting here last week.

Grant Harry, of Coquille city, made our town a call last Friday.

Mr. D. Myras, of the upper river is now here with his fine horse.

DONA ANNA.

The New Dispatch.

At the Parkersburg shipyard at a few minutes after 12 o'clock on Wednesday of last week the launching of the new river steamer built for Perkins, Moomaw & White took place. At a signal from Chief Builder Chas. Twigg she slid from the ways and as she took the water Mrs. Dave Perkins broke the bottle of champagne over her prow and christened her "New Dispatch."

After the launching an elegant lunch was served. The new boat is 130 pover all, and 25 feet beam.

East Fork Items.

Mr. and Mrs. Stemler are expecting their son, Dr. M. O. Stemler, of Lynd, Washington, to make them a visit in July.

Letta Cooper closed a successful term of school in district 32, last Friday, 26th inst. In the evening she and her pupils gave an enjoyable entertainment, consisting of recitations and songs, which was followed with refreshments and games, and those who were not there missed a treat of unadulterated fun.

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Swan, Mr. Felows and their pastor, Mr. Jackson, attended the U. B. Conference as delegates from the church at Gravel Ford.

A new girl baby at M. J. Krantz's. Frances Abernethy has returned home for vacation from Forest Grove where she has been attending school at the Tualatin Academy. She was accompanied by her cousins Jacob and Walter Kamm, of Portland.

The rains fall and the crops grow. Great is Coos for "smiling harvests."

Some of the Sitkum people attended the street fair at Roseburg.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Is everywhere recognized as the one remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant to take. It is especially valuable for summer diarrhoea in children and is undoubtedly the means of saving the lives of a great many children each year. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Resolutions.

Hall of Mamie Lodge, No. 20, I. O. O. F. Coquille, Or., June 25, 1903.

Whereas, The Supreme Ruler of the Universe in His infinite wisdom, has removed from our midst our beloved sister, Alice A. Olive, who died in San Pedro, California, June 21, 1903.

Whereas, In her demise Mamie Lodge, No. 20, loses one of her charter members, she has gone from us, but the memory of her true womanhood and unselfish life remain and ever shall remain in the memory of those with whom she has associated; her exemplary character in life commends itself to us being worthy of emulation.

Resolved, That in her death the lodge loses a faithful and conscientious member, loved and respected by all, and no words of eulogy spoken by us or shafts of marble erected by dear or loving friends can add to the womanly worth of the life she lived, or cause to shine with brighter luster, the deeds of love or words of benevolence she performed. These will live on loved and cherished by generous and grateful hearts that have been softened by the gentle influence of sympathy and charity.

Resolved, That Mamie Lodge condole most sincerely with the husband of our deceased sister. If sympathy of friends can be any consolation under the trying circumstances be assured that all who knew her, share in sorrow for her loss.

Resolved, That the charter of this lodge be draped in mourning for thirty days, a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this lodge, a copy be forwarded to the husband, and also to the Coquille City Herald and Bulletin.

ANNE LAWRENCE, ANNE KNOWLTON, LUCY BECK, Committee on Resolutions.

The Ribbon State Fair.

The premium list of Oregon's "Blue Ribbon" state fair is now out and being distributed throughout the state. The premiums offered aggregate $12,000 in cash, and are for everything grown on the farm, including live stock, poultry, dairy products, agricultural and horticultural products, domestic and liberal arts, etc. Everyone is invited to bring something to the fair this year, and help advertise the state's resources. If you have not received one of the premium lists yet, write M. D. Wisdom, secretary, Portland, Ore., for one.

Fairview Birthday Party.

Sunday morning June 21, 1903, at 11 o'clock we met at the grove near Fairview school house where we had preaching Mr. R. G. Sumnerlin conducted the services. There was a large crowd present.

After services were over a crowd of young folks met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hatcher in memory of Ada and Archa Hatcher's birthday, after which we wended our way to a grove near by where a table was prepared and laden with the luscious fruits of this earth, where all enjoyed themselves with a hearty meal. After dinner was over we went down to Mr. S. K. Hatcher's where they all enjoyed themselves nicely with music and singing for a short time.

After singing was over we went to the croquet ground where we all enjoyed ourselves until a late hour. Those present were: Bethel Duncan, Mae and Blanche Chandler, Birdie Barker, Bertha and Lulu Hatcher, Clara Hatcher, Nancy and Myrtle Benham, Millie Hatcher, Lela Barker, Everett Hatcher, Homer Holverstott, Henry Hervey, Charlie Bennett, Elmer Holverstott, Dock Barker, Harry Holverstott, Andrew Hatcher, Vernie Hatcher, Mr. and Mrs. V. N. Barker, Mrs. J. A. Hatcher, Mrs. S. K. Hatcher, Mrs. J. L. Barker. L. H.

T. C. Norris returned this week from Klamath county where he helped Ed Sherwood take a drove of cattle. Mr. Norris will soon move to Klamath county with his family where they expect to remain for awhile.

Mrs. C. L. Lockwood and children returned to this place Thursday from California where they have been for some time. The many friends of the family will be glad to know that they will be residents of Myrtle Point again.

P. S. Phelan, Fred McLean and W. E. Pike, have purchased the Rackleff saw mill below town. The mill has a capacity of about 17000 feet per day and is located on one of the best sites on the river. The gentlemen who have purchased it will no doubt increase the capacity of the mill. It will be operated regularly and the new management will ship a larger amount of lumber. With the operation of the mill a number of men will be employed, and it will be a good thing for the town.

Painful Accident.

While playing a practice game of baseball at North Bend yesterday, L. J. Simpson was struck on the elbow by the ball, and the arm was seriously bruised if not broken.

Dr. Horsfall was called and examined the injured member, but did not think any bones were fractured. Mr. Simpson is an enthusiast on baseball and while this is more than he bargained for, it will probably not dampen his ardor.—COAST MAIL.

A Trip to Portland.

Once more we are back among the green hills of old Coos. Once more we will try the patience of the HERALD's Devil, and the sympathizing readers of the HERALD.

We left Coos county on the 6th of June, having taken passage a board the steamer Alliance. Our party were all duly initiated into all the beauties and pleasures of sea sickness. None of us were able to eat a meal until we were upon the waters of the Columbia. By the way we found the Columbia river nothing but a deluge tide water, with both of its banks inundated. Miss Nora Magher, the young lady who accompanied us to Portland will spend one year in the Portland high school, then she will enter the Portland Business College, there to take up the study of stenography and telegraphy. We predict for her a splendid future. We met Charles Frederick in Portland where he is employed as engineer under the Chamber of Commerce building. He and his family now reside on the East side. We met our old friend W. T. Gardner of the Boys and Girls Aid Society. We also made the acquaintance of detective Hawley of the same institution whom we found to be a perfect gentleman, with a "big heart" for the suffering waifs, whom circumstances have placed under his care. In undergoing a series of dental treatment, we were subjected to the use of a quantity of Cocaine, which brought on our old heart complaint, that forced us to relinquish our trip to Washington and return home as soon as possible. We arrived home on Friday June 19th. Thoroughly satisfied with Coos county.
