Topp and John Knoll, the former of Roseburg and the latter of Chicago, arrived in town Saturday and expect to locate. The gentlemen are painters by trade and will be ready to answer a call for services in their line, at any time. J. W. Strong, of Arago, returned last week from a visit to Grants Pass. He informs us that the weather is exceedingly hot and dry. However the fruit crop is large and fine and promises to be the source of a large income this fall. A short time ago bathelets were the butt of the world but fat men seem to have taken their place. Sweden and some other nations are proposing an extra tax for fat men and Chicago tailors have announced that fat men must pay more for their clothes. Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Hall, of Polk county, who have been visiting for several days with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Walker, of this place started for their home yesterday morning. Mr. Hall has sold out in Polk, and is thinking some of returning here for residence. Louis Sell, of Riverton, was brought to town Sunday to have a B. B. shot removed from one of his eyes, having been so unfortunate as to get shot in the eye by an airgun. Dr. Russell removed the shot, and from him we learn that the sight of the member is not necessarily destroyed. W. H. Mitchell, of Seattle, who has the contract for the laying of the water pipe for our new water system accompanied by Chas. Mickson, of the same place, who will look after the pipe part of the contract, arrived in town yesterday, and it is expected that lively work will be doing right away. J. W. Chase, of the Bandon Woolen Mills, passed through town Wednesday on his return from a trip to Portland and Oregon City. While in conversation with the old gentleman he was informed that this had been an exceedingly unprofitable trip for him looking at it one way. He explained that it had cost him some money, goods and chattels, besides a daughter worth—Well, at least a million. However, before he was through telling us about it he explained that he had gained a son-in-law worth an enormous pile, and we were quite unable to figure out just what a balance would look like.

Millionaire Jas. R. Keene says that he is not particularly inconvenienced by the loss of $1,500,000. But he feels "annoyed." That is not unreasonable. Even editors might be annoyed by losses like that. C. F. Hazelton, of near Bandon, one of our new comers, has bought a place and located with us. He was up this way yesterday and purchased a good team and is getting himself in shape for business. We acknowledge a pleasant call at our office. Instead of shooting the girl who jilted him and spoiling her shirt waist a philosophical California youth treated her to soda water and then she capitulated. Fortly effervescence wins in this world where the strenuous explosive fails to soothe discontent. S. L. Curry went down to Port Orford last week and got his cow, and their household goods will be up by the Arcata, while the family are visiting with Mrs. Curry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ashton, of Parkersburg. Upon the arrival of the goods they will move into their home near the Academy. J. W. Fairbank, a new comer from the Willamette valley, looked on town over for a suitable place in which to install a washing machine factory, but failing in this he is locating at Bandon. He manufactures the Fairbank Washer, which is giving universal satisfaction wherever given a fair trial. He will soon have machines on the market for trial. The entertainment recently announced and which took place at the Roy school house a week ago Saturday night was a grand success. The program was carried out in a manner much to the credit of the children and especially so to the teacher, Miss Gulovson, for the great pains taken in their training. After the program a bonfire was by which the baskets were sold and a grand social time was enjoyed. She sum rated for seats the school house, etc., was $42. Miss Sadie Ford has been appointed assistant in instrumental music to Mr. Arthur Louis Frazer, instructor in the School of Music University of Oregon. Miss Ford is a resident of Eugene and but 19 years of age. She is fully capable of holding the position to which she has been appointed, as she is accomplished in the knowledge of music. She is especially expert in technique, and plays the difficult compositions of the masters with the ease of a professional for the past two years. She is a daughter of Rev. T. B. Ford, presiding elder of the Methodist Episcopal churches in this district.
