SEASON.

Let's Wade Right into the Subject.

The 1903 season will be the greatest bicycle season ever known. The finest equipped and most up-to-date wheels that Coquille riders ever laid their eyes on will be kept in stock at right prices, and if you want one say so.

We want your trade, and we are entitled to it, because we have good goods, right prices, and can serve you well. You don't expect any more, but you want that much, don't you.

To be brief, try us and our goods, and our way of treating you, and if you like us try us again. We want your business. Enough said.

END OF THE "GREAT DEBATE."

It was now Solomon Shiftless, Jr.'s time to take the floor, and curiosity was on tip toe. "Sol" was not troubled with diffidence, but how a wild untutored youth would do on his feet before an audience, we had yet to learn. When his name was called, he arose and looked around in a scared sort of way, and then he began to talk.

Mr. Chairman: I wish I wear outen this fite. I doon't no what I be here fer, cause I can't speak fer sou apples, ner shucks. But I kin hunt an' huntin's grate fun, folks. Hit's th' biggest kind o' fun an' them as calls it 'work' is as much mistakun as th' dorg, hoo tho' a porkypine waz a coon.
(laughter) I doon't work at huntin'. I play at it, an' somtimes hit's mighty good, wat yoose call
'jim-nasty-ti-cum,' er 'ticks' er sunthen er uth'er uv at sort as makes folks lively. Yoonses seed them bear skins in dad's barn. I kill them fellers. I hunted one uv um an' one uv um, hunted Sol. (laughter) But I got away from um an'
kill em in th' eend. I hit in in th' left eye, plum center, (laughter) an' Mr. Bear jus lay down an' giv' uv th' chase. Sol jus tho' he waz a goover ther trip shore, an' them legs o' mine did sum tall climin' out, yoo bet. 'Sport?' Not much when
th' bear hunts yoo, (laughter) but it issent offen, an' th' general 'sport' o' huntin' beats fishin' out o' sight, shore pop. Them's my sentiments anyhow. Deer huntin's th' pan cake. At th' 'sport' an' a hull passed in a bill. (laughter) Yoo git on a trail an' set an' watch out.
Yoo no th' deer's comin'. Yoo feel hit from your scalp ter yer toes, all a tinglin' like alextricity, an' at's
'sport'. Yer feel hit ter yer finger tips, an' at's 'sport'. Yer hear a step in th' woods an' onles yoo be a ole hunter, yoor hart gets a thumpin'. (laughter) and yoor eyes a blinkin' an' ef yoo doant git a chance ter shoot pretty quick, the chances is, yoo coulden't hit th' side of a barn. (applause) An'
'at aint so much 'sport' (applause from the negative benches) Goe whilkink! Yooore all redly to tern luse onto th' game, an' yoo heer th' brush a crackin' an' yoor gun is in posish, and yoose a squintin along th' sights 'ith th' muzzle pintin' down 'ih trail, an' then yoo almos' shoot sumbody's ole cow 'at cums browsin long, (laughter) an' 'at aint so much 'sport' (applause from the negative bench) Now Mr.
Chairman if yoo'll excuse me, I reckon I'll set down. I doon't see how's I made fer ter say outhen, an'
I haint. This sort o' thing givs me in' shakes mor'n th' buck-fever which yoo no is wot catches th' hunter th' first time he gets a crack at a deer, an' shors I coudn't a said half as much if it hadn't bin fer yer laffin' an' 'plause. (applause) This eres a 'Tip Top' club, an' I'm obliged ter yoon's all, awfully.
Huntin' is grate 'sport', an' that's all."

o' mine did sum tall climin' out,
th' bear hunts yoo, (laughter) but
o' huntin' beats fishin' out o' sight,
on a trail an' set an' watch out.
a tinglin' like alextricity, an' at's
step in th' woods an' onles yoo be a
chance ter shoot pretty quick, the
chances is, yoo coulden't hit th'
side of a barn. (applause) An'
posish, and yoose a squintin along
down 'ih trail, an' then yoo almos'
shoot sumbody's ole cow 'at cums browsin long, (laughter) an' 'at
from the negative bench) Now Mr.
Chairman if yoo'll excuse me, I reckon I'll set down. I doon't see
how's I made fer ter say outhen, an'
me in' shakes mor'n th' buck-fever
which yoo no is wot catches th'
at a deer, an' shors I coudn't a said
yer laffin' an' 'plause. (applause)
obliged ter yoon's all, awfully.
all."

Mr. Chairman: I wish I wear
I be here fer, cause I can't speak
fer sou apples, ner shucks. But I
kin hunt an' huntin's grate fun,
tho' a porkypine waz a coon.
(laughter) I doon't work at hunt-
hit's mighty good, wat yoose call
'jim-nasty-ti-cum,' er 'ticks' er sun-
an' one uv um, hunted Sol. (laughter) But I got away from um an'
o' mine did sum tall climin' out,
