National Anthem at Last.

It will probably be news to most patriotic Americans that the United States has never had a national anthem, officially speaking, until Saturday last, when the Navy Department issued an order declaring "The Star-Spangled Banner" to be the national anthem, and directing that whenever that composition is played, all officers and men shall stand at attention, unless they are engaged in duty that will not permit them to do so. As to the good taste displayed in selecting "The Star-Spangled Banner" there will be a variety of opinions.

The Navy Department had quite a stock of so-called "national" tunes to choose from, but this did not make selection any easier, for the reason that some of them have only a local application, and most of the others are not "national." There is "America," for instance, a melody of English origin, already doing duty as an English national hymn, set to some rather commonplace lines by the Rev. Samuel T. Smith. There is "Yankee Doodle," of which both words and tune are guesswork so far as origin is concerned, though neither is American. There is "Hail Columbia," which comes the nearest of all to being a national anthem, as its melody is the President's march composed in 1789, and its words were written by Joseph Hopkinson in 1798, when war with France was expected. It is noteworthy that "Hail Columbia" has always been selected by foreign nations when they wish to salute this country. The melody, however, is thin and commonplace and was worn out long ago. There is "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," but that is English and is known over there as "Britannia, the Pride of the Ocean." There are others which only apply to a certain event or period, such as "Dixie," which is thoroughly American, "When Johnny Comes Marching Home," "John Brown's Body," "The Battle Cry of Freedom" (which has been made a national anthem by Japan), and "Marching Through Georgia."

All of these have been ruled out and "The Star-Spangled Banner" selected, though its melody is English and antecedents are most undignified. Its melody is that of a drinking song, "To Anacron in Heaven," and was a favorite with a bacchanalian crew which used to meet at the Crown and Anchor in London between 1770 and 1775. Then, set to other words, it did duty in Masonic lodges. Soon it traveled across the water, and its first patriotic setting was made by Robert Treat Paine in 1798 to words entitled "Adams and Liberty." We next find it illustrating another campaign song, "Jefferson and Liberty," and in 1814 Francis Scott Key set the present words to it on the eve of the bombardment of Fort McHenry. It is fortunate that the sailors of the navy are not obliged to sing it. It is much easier for the bands to play it. It was not difficult for rosters to catch its abrupt intervals or to execute its singular flights and closing outburst when under the influence of wine or spirits at the Crown and Anchor, but it is a serious business for a patriot to get through it with a serene face. That we should have to take this old drinking song for a National anthem illustrates the poverty of musical invention as compared with other nations. Better, however, a national anthem which is not national than none.—Chicago Tribune.

Leg Amputated.

News reached here last Monday of the accidental shooting and wounding of Lex Cope, son of W. V. Cope, of Floras Creek.

It seems that Lex and a couple of companions were out on the marsh hunting ducks, and that in crawling under some brush or through a thicket, in some manner the gun carried by young Thompson, one of his companions, was discharged, the load of shot taking effect in the forward part of young Cope's right leg, just below the knee.

Dr. Green, of Dairyville, was called to attend the wounded boy, and he in turn called Dr. Kime, of this place, to assist him. Both bones were shattered and the leg so badly torn that it was found necessary to amputate it. Amputation was made just above the knee, and the patient is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.—Recorder.

The Chico's outgoing passenger list last week was as follows: Mrs. H. A. Dooley, Allen Paterson, Albert Garfield and wife, Lillie Reddick, A. V. Golithon, Mrs. D. Snook, Miss Lucia Sperry, Miss C. White, Miss G. White, A. White and two small sisters, Capt. A. McNeve and two daughters, Miss Taylor, Miss Lile, Mrs. C. Y. Love and daughter, R. H. Ross, and Miss Gertrude Johnson.

General Summary of Oregon Crops.

The weather during the week was dry and warm and all that could be desired for the completion of fall work. There were a few frosty nights in the eastern portion of the state, but so far as known, they did no serious damage.

Hop picking is practically completed and the crop has been secured in good condition. The yields continue below average, but the quality is satisfactory. Harvesting is nearly finished, and thrashing has progressed rapidly. Oats were slightly damaged by the rains of a week ago, but not sufficiently to affect the total yield in any great extent. Corn is ripening nicely, the ears are well filled, and the crop, on the whole, is doing well. Field onions have about all been pulled, and beans are nearly ready for harvesting. The third crops of clover and alfalfa are being cut. Potato blight continues in the coast counties, and the crop in that section will be below average. Digging has begun in some localities. Pasturage continues good, and stock is improving. There has been a slight shrinkage in the milk supply in the Willamette valley. The harvest of prunes is well under way and the dryers are now running on full time. The crop is an excellent one, both in quality and quantity. Pears and plums are yielding well. Apples continue fair to good.

Six Hundred Turks Killed.

Sofia, Sept. 24.—According to a telegram received here from Kostendil today, 34 miles from Sofia, 600 Turks were killed in a fight at Koteheni September 18. The Turkish force numbered 7000. After the fight the troops, enraged at their losses, pillaged and burned a number of Bulgarian villages.

MAKE WOMEN PRISONERS.

Sofia, Sept. 24.—Advices from Uskub say that five battalions of Turkish troops left Sovitch yesterday for Morozovs, from where a band of revolutionists had been threatening Perlepe. Three other battalions have proceeded to Nevaska, where insurgent bands have reappeared.

Turkish soldiers recently took 50 women from the village of Klissuri, and all attempts to recover them have been unavailing, the soldiers refusing to obey their officers.

M. E. Church Appointments.

Final session of the M. E. Church, South, was held in this city Monday morning. The work has grown to such an extent that the conference was divided into two districts with a presiding elder over each. Appointments for the coming year were announced by Bishop Morrison, as follows:

Willamette District—Presiding Elder, Henry Spiess, Corvallis. Corvallis charge, John Reeves. Albany, C. W. Pogue. Lewisville and Independence, T. P. Haynes.

Dallas, to be supplied. Oregon City, J. W. Craig. Tangent, W. A. Iden. Harrisburg, A. J. Starmer. Junction, P. D. Gardner. Lebanon, C. D. McFarland. Portland, C. A. Hyatt. Roseburg District—Presiding Elder, E. L. Fitch, Oakland. Oakland, E. L. Fitch. Roseburg, H. C. Allen. Myrtle Creek, J. C. Cook. Ashland, H. F. Brower. Medford, H. C. Brown. Grants Pass, W. T. Goulder. Klamath Falls, to be supplied. Myrtle Point, W. H. Wages. Coquille, R. A. Reagan. Glide, to be supplied by G. W. Householder.

Rev. J. T. Cotton will continue to reside at Myrtle Creek and will be in a supernumerary relation during the year.

The next annual session of the Columbia Conference will be held at Harrisburg.—Roseburg Review.

The presence of 10,000 people "chiefly Americans," at the formal opening of a new $50,000 building at Juarez, Mexico, near the Texan border, last Sunday, is a disgrace to the American name. To make this American holiday on Mexican soil, six bulls were tortured and slain and a number of horses were killed by the maddened creatures before they were finally dispatched. Truly, the instinct of savagery, the leading force of which is cruelty, lies close to the surface of civilization.—Oregonian.

The United States is not the only cosmopolitan country. Thirty percent of the population of Brazil is German. Incidentally it may be remarked that Brazil is about the most comfortable and prosperous of the South American republics.

Write your Farm Experience and Send

In 1902 the Southern Pacific Company published a pamphlet entitled "California Industries." It contained principally the personal testimonies of experienced cultivators, says the Pacific Homestead. A short description of the different sections was given and following this testimonies of fruit growers, dairymen, etc., etc., showing the number of acres cultivated to oranges, grapes, olives, alfalfa, etc.; the cost to cultivate the yield per acre and price the products were sold for. This was one of the most practical pieces of literature that could be put out. Mr. W. E. C. Man, G. P. A., of the Southern Pacific Company, has written the agents of that company in Oregon that it is the intention to get up a similar publication for Oregon and asks that all who are able to give the results from their farms, dairies, fruit orchards, berry patches, etc., in Oregon write the results for publication in this pamphlet. He says he wants only the actual results under favorable conditions—the same as can be accomplished by any intelligent grower under normal conditions; that is, he wants only honest representations. Any of our readers in Oregon who will take the time to give their experiences will be doing the company a courtesy and the state justice. You may send your statement to Mr. Coman, or to this paper and it will be forwarded to him.—Roseburg Plaindealer.

Turkey seems to regard it as a little hard to have to pay indemnity funds which are more than likely to be used to defray her own funeral expenses.

A New York girl recently married a man named Terrier. During the wedding service a former suitor in the back of the church was unkind enough to cry out "rats."

Beveridge has qualified for the Tillman class. He recently lost, not his pass but his pocketbook. But he promptly identified himself by the production of some fifty odd passes.

The President has selected Hon. Charles J. Bonaparte to investigate the Indian land scandals. He could not have selected a man in whom the public will place greater confidence.

Captain Wringe still hopes to steer the winner in an international yacht-race. He has declared his intention of becoming an American citizen and hopes to be chosen skipper of the next defender.

There is no doubt that Columbia possesses a political monopoly in the isthmus of Panama, but the Columbian statesmen are making a great mistake if they regard the United States as "an easy thing."

An epidemic of eye disease prevails to an alarming extent among the public school children of the poorer districts of Greater New York. A total of 100,000 cases have been examined by the physicians of the Board of Health, and a hospital for the exclusive treatment of victims of this disease will be established. Unsanitary conditions breed this disease, and being contagious, it bids fair to become universal among the children of the crowded tenement districts. Of all handicaps to endeavor, blindness is the heaviest, and a municipality the children of which are threatened by thousands with this calamity may well bestir itself to preventive as well as remedial measures looking to its control.—Oregonian.

All but four of the applicants for state medical certificates were successful at the recent examination before the state board. The successful ones are C. Bellington, William B. Campbell, C. T. Chamberlain, Alexander Corporan, R. B. Dempsey, Sederick R. Dorn, Wm. R. Holden, Charles Hosmer, Leon W. Hyde, W. E. Lewis, J. A. Merriman, J. H. Neagle, James L. Owen, E. Rawlings, C. E. Saunders, S. H. Sheldon, Alan W. Smith, J. G. Swenson, S. D. Taylor, and O. D. Webster. Many of these are graduates of Eastern medical schools and are old practitioners in other states. One among them is a colored man, a graduate of Rush Medical College of Chicago. They will locate at various places in the state for the practice of their profession.—Medical Sentinel.

Drafting a Treaty.

New York, Sept. 25.—Indifference was manifest in Congress, says a Herald dispatch from Bogota under date of September 21, toward the death of the Hay-Herran canal treaty. Although the period for the ratification of the treaty was to expire at midnight of the 22nd, the speeches delivered on the subject were mild, and referred more to the possibility of a new treaty than to the fate of the present one.

A commission was appointed by the Senate to prepare a new treaty, but it is not known when its report will be presented. A cablegram was sent by Governor Obaldia on the 19th inst., to President Marroquin, assuring him of his patriotism and loyalty, and stating that matters were quiet on the Isthmus. Governor Obaldia also informed the President that there were no indications of a revolution on the Isthmus. The cablegram was published on placards and posted in all the streets and on the corners of Bogota. It had a quieting effect on the people, who feared that there would be a revolt on the Isthmus if the canal treaty was finally rejected by Congress.

Both houses of Congress are now busy making selections for electoral judges for the next Presidential and Congressional elections.

General Sarrin, who had been appointed chief of the garrison of Panama, has decided to accept the position.

General Juan Yovar has been appointed Commander-in-Chief of the army of Panama on the Pacific and Atlantic coasts. He left Bogota yesterday for Panama.

Grafter in the Toils.

Portland, Or., Sept. 22.—Captain T. A. Wood, Grand Commander of the Indian War Veterans, was arrested here today by federal authorities, charged with pension frauds.

A Remarkable Record.

Chamberlin's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by R. S. KNOWLTON.

Dissolution Notice.

Notice is hereby given that by mutual consent the co-partnership existing between W. H. Young and Will Albee, is dissolved, and all persons knowing themselves to be indebted to the firm are requested to come forward and settle at once. The business manufacturing shingles will be continued by Mr. Albee.

His Life Saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"B. L. Ryer, a well known cooper of this town, says he believes Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved his life last summer. He had been sick for a month with something the doctors call bilious dysentery, and could get nothing to do him any good until he tried this remedy. It gave him immediate relief," says B. T. Little, merchant, Hancock, Md. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.
