

C. C. A. Notes.

School opened this week one-half better than last year. But for the stormy day it would have opened 100 per cent better.

Miss Thompson comes in to resume the Commercial work broken off last year by sickness. Miss Todd takes the place of first primary teacher. By the middle of the month we shall want another teacher for grades three to five.

Young Edwards from Johnson's mill and young Hughes from above the creamery were among the first to enroll. Everett Hatcher is in his place working hard as during last year. His sisters will be with him soon.

Young Holverstott, from Fairview, has entered on the first day. Miss Myers, from fifteen miles out, has entered. She is one of the teachers of Coos county. Two brothers will come later and the trio will rent rooms and keep houses.

Charlie Myers, son of our fellow townsman, entered the Commercial class and is ready to give his energies in that line. Others will join him as soon as supplies can be secured from the city.

Mr. Church, a teacher of Short Hand and Type Writing, wishes to organize a class in those branches. Any interested in those subjects will please report to the Superintendent.

All persons interested in a night school in Book Keeping and kindred subjects are requested to meet at the Academy building on Thursday evening. If a sufficient number report we shall take steps to organize an evening class to work from 7 to 9 o'clock. There will be a day class also. Mr. Church will be present at that meeting and explain the nature of his work and give you his terms for Short Hand and Typewriting.

Last week we announced that Miss Latourette would not be present at the opening, but we are happy to announce that for an unforeseen happening, she was able to get in on Saturday last. She is ready to confer with any interested in piano or organ instruction. She has rooms at Mrs. Clyde Gage's, where she will be pleased to meet any interested in her work.

Miss Sweet, an eighth grade graduate of Lampa Creek, entered the first day and will do ninth grade work. She has rooms, I believe, over Mr. Pierce's store.

Miss Tupper, daughter of our hotel man, who entered near the close last year, has reentered and with the exception of Arithmetic, will take 9th grade work. Two of Mr. Paxson's young people entered this week and others of the family will enter later.

Miss Viola White, from Port Orford, has entered and will do 8th grade work. She may have some classes in the 9th grade.

Some others, both old and new students, have entered and are already fairly in harness. We hope the school will fill up early so as to prevent the readjustment of classes. If all could be present the first week settled work could be begun on the second. Where the entrance is irregular or spasmodic irregularities must arise in the arrangement of classes. However, we must do the best we can under the circumstances. Good, worthy young men and women, excellent students, are compelled to enter late owing to home demands. These often make the most successful citizens.

Peter Axe, of Bridge, the Coos county sweet-potato grower, was down to this place Saturday and took orders for over a ton of his spuds. Mr. Axe has been successfully growing a nice article of sweetpotatoes for the past ten years and is doing a considerable business along that line. He left with us samples of his production which may be seen by calling at this office, and to prove their complete development and good keeping qualities, he left with us a last year's potato which is perfectly sound.

T. M. Hermann, brother of Congressman Hermann, has tendered his resignation as chief of the mailing division of the pension office at Washington, D. C. His interests in Oregon being such that it did not justify his staying at the capitol.

American farmers are reminded by the Department of Commerce that over $25,000,000 worth of goat skins were imported last year. The goat is not a very difficult animal to raise, so much of this money might be kept in the country.

General MacArthur is at a loss to explain why over thirteen hundred of our soldiers have deserted within the last year. It would be well to question the private of the army on this subject. They are probably better informed than the officers.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers
The famous little pills.

EDITOR COQUILLE HERALD: In our daily walks we find people and other people. We find some who know a thing, we find some who think they know; we find some who are consistent and some who are stubborn, others who are open for reasoning and arguments; the fact is, we find all sorts of people; and, if we do so, then it is wonder that some people hold the opinion that a man in public office must suit and satisfy every man, or if not, he is dishonest or incompetent for the office he holds.

Those ideas came into my head after reading the Sunday Oregonian of Sept. 27th, page 40, col. 6. It is a good article, the contents deal with truth and show sense, furthermore, the tendency places the responsibility upon the right shoulders and should be read by all true citizens. Nevertheless, should I send this communication to the Oregonian, it would simply wander into the wastebasket, out of the simple reason that it would prove this paper worse than unreliable, yes, malicious.

And what about the Oregon Journal? my, my! That would be carrying owls to Ather.

There is nothing left for a man to do than to try a local paper and see if he finds any sympathy.

Read the article in quest; the laws as they are interpreted by our good Secretary of the Interior Department, Hitchcock, are only for the wealthy, the rich; the common people have no rights whatever. The first class is the English don't you know, the latter class are too American.

Only a short time ago, before the election of Hon. Binger Hermann for Oregon, I cannot forget the slurs and slanders used by the papers named above; down with a man who has risen by his own interests from the common people, he opposed the higher, or I should say the class of people which need no laws, their money is law under themselves and that is all the law they need and Hitchcock is their friend, perhaps something else, he above knows why. This salvation was the downfall of somebody else, therefore nothing but the worst was good enough to down the man, and lots of the voters who think they know they bleated "bah" because others of their character bleated "bah" before them. Others like the formal known before heard and expressed themselves very loud that the result of this election could be only a failure.

I know of only one being which answered a question before it was asked and that was the Holy Bible tells us, "Balaam's ass."

It is only a wonder to me that people will not stop such anaristic scrip business, they talk, they have all sorts of "I know's," they waste their time to stop such anaristic actions, but never call a halt loud enough so those in public office in Washington, D. C., will hear it.

Now is the time; a year hence we will be in the midst of a presidential campaign, and if I am not very much mistaken Mr. Roosevelt would not be adverse to save his own bacon by being open to conviction.

Bombard him with postal cards until the White House has not enough room to hold them; 10 postal cards from every common citizen, in 10 weeks, at the rate one cent a week, will do a great deal of good.

Man Lost Overboard

The Schooner Advance, J. Jorgenson, master, got in this morning, 15 days out from San Francisco. On her arrival we learned that she had lost a seaman James DeOrsay, of Eureka, on her way up. The accident occurred at 5:20, a.m. Sept. 21st, in latitude 38 degrees, 40 minutes, and longitude 138 degrees, 25 minutes. DeOrsay fell overboard while taking in the side-lights, carrying the green one with him.

A rope was thrown over to him, and two life buoys were thrown him, one of which struck him on the shoulder; he failed to take hold of either.

He caught hold of the log line, but he got that, and although the ship's boat was at the spot in three minutes he sank.

DeOrsay was unable to swim, and seems to have lost his power to reason or help himself when he fell into the water.—Recorder.

Nails! Nails! Nails!

The above heading on a poster at Myrtle Point followed by a request that boys and girls bring a nail to the revival at the Presbyterian church brought out a large audience of bright boys and girls to hear Evangelist's Holmes' address. Next Sunday, the idea is Strings! Strings! Strings!

A Perfect Painless Pill.

is the one that will cleanse the system, set the liver to action, remove the bile, clear the complexion, cure headache and leave a good taste in the mouth. The famous little pills for doing such work pleasantly and effectually are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Bob Moore of Lafayette, Ind., says: "All other pills I have used gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers are simply perfect." Sold by R. S. Knowlton.

Better Than Pills.

The question has been asked—In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? Our answer is—They are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so agreeable that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then they not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and aid the digestion. For sale at 35 cents per bottle by R. S. Knowlton.

F. C. Kinnicutt Suicides

Word reached this place yesterday of the attempt at suicide of Prof. F. C. Kinnicutt, one of Coos county's pioneer teachers, at the Halfway house on the Coos Bay Wagon road, which had occurred at 11 a. m. Mr. Kinnicutt has been a heavy drinker for many years, having given up his eastern home and came West 30-odd years ago on that account, and had been drinking the day before from which he had hardly recovered. At the time he committed this rash act he and a daughter were at home, he sitting in the front room reading a paper, when the young lady stepped out and soon after heard a pistol shot, to return and find her father lying on the floor with a bullet hole in his head. A physician was summoned by telegram, but death took place at 2:30 without his ever recovering consciousness.

Deceased leaves a wife, six daughters and one son to mourn his sad demise, who have the sympathy of the entire community.

Johnson's mill having had a little break down last week, Mr. Johnson has leased the mill at this place which was not running at present on account of a little business difficulty, and is getting out some rush orders.

C. L. Moon Missing

A week ago C. L. Moon, of this city, went to Bandon, and by some means has disappeared, not having been seen since Wednesday night at about ten o'clock. It seems that at the time referred to he was seen at Muncie's saloon. He left the place at that time, stating that he was going to one of the steamers to find a place to sleep, and not since having been seen, it is believed that he has fallen into the river and drowned.

W. M. Kay, of Riverton, had business in town today.

Mrs. W. J. Hammack, of Fishtrap made our sanctum a pleasant business call today.

Cause of Lockjaw.

Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exists plentifully in street dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air, but when carried beneath the skin as in the wounds caused by percussion caps or by rusty nails, and when the air excluded the germ is roused to activity and produces the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all dangers of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and causes cuts, bruises and like injuries to heal without maturation and in one third the time required by the usual treatment. It is for sale by R. S. Knowlton.
