Epicures claim that of all the different kinds of chickens for table use that a cross between the Buff Plymouth Rock and Buff Leghorn take the lead. Raisers of chickens for the markets should make a note of this. It is just as easy to raise a good and saleable fowl as a scrub. These are quick growers and possess that ideal yellow legged flavor and will sell when others would not.

Chief Engineer Barrows, of the steamer Liberty, and wife, who live at Bandon, certainly have the congratulations of "Ted" Roosevelt, as they became the happy parents of twin boys on Thursday morning. And while the tension of Mr. Barrows' nerves never was considerable, it is a noticeable fact that he did not have his head iron bound, or that the engine room did not have to be enlarged, and that the steamer's whistle was not blown clear off. Judging from these facts we think there are some hopes for Frank. The boys are doing fine.

They harvested over 500 wagon loads of feed of different kinds for their dairy cows. The two silos were filled which required 220 loads of fodder averaging a ton to the load.

We wish you, Mr. Editor, to publish these few lines for us, that we may thank the people along this river with whom we have been associated, for their kindness and cooperation with us. May the good work go on that has begun in the different places. There is a promising work at Riverton and it is our desire that laborers in the Vineyard may do all they can to strengthen and help them in the Christian life. We go this week to Amity, Oregon, for work, and will probably be in the valley for the winter. We may return in the spring for further work here. Yours in Jesus' love,
EVANGELIST C. O. BRANSON & WIFE.

The affairs of the Pacific Furniture & Lumber Co., are gradually assuming shape and the prospects now are that all business of the Company at this place will be settled up in a few days and the saw mill put in operation as soon as logs can be procured. The general business of this Company has been hung up on account of lack of ready money, and we are glad to state that the prospects are good for a revival of its interests all along the line.
