A WOMAN'S HONOR. To be Presented by the Myrtle Point Dramatic Club. On next Thursday evening our many theater-goers will have an opportunity to witness the beautiful play entitled "A Woman's Honor." The various participants of this grand melodrama are well and favorably known to us all and come exceptionally well recommended. On their last appearance in our sister city they were greeted with an overflowing house and their fellow townsmen were more than enthusiastic in their praise for the entire company. Not only is the plot of the play a beautiful one, but one long to be remembered by the audience. The scenery will be staged to suit the occasion and no pains will be spared to make the entire affair one to be appreciated. During the intermissions the audience will be entertained by the members of the company. These specialties are alone worth the price of admission. The juvenile artists, Miss Mabel Green and James Thom, are truly great. Ed Green in his monologue sketch will make you forget your cares and woes. Last but not least our own Miss Lola Tupper will make her first appearance on the theatrical stage and will please the audience with her unmatched voice. Don't forget the date. Below is the cast of characters. Gen. Mark Lester, a hero of the Cuban ten-year war... L. W. Traver. Pedro Mendez, his half brother... B. T. Van DeCar. Dr. Garcia, surgeon of the Madeline... C. T. Bender. Gilbert Hall, M. D., in love with Olive... Chas. Marcy. Robt. Glenn, a Wall Street broker... C. L. Bender. Gregory Grimes, Lester's private secretary... R. B. Deyoe. Christian Church Notes. Although the minister will be at Bridge next Sunday, the church invites all to be present at the hour of the evening service. The evening will be in charge of the ladies and upon the program are Mrs. Handsaker, Mrs. Thompson, Miss Gertrude Hungate, Miss Nellie Fairman and Miss Rose Mulkey. The evening will be both interesting and profitable. Next Sunday closes the contest between Coquille and Myrtle Point schools. The ladies will give a dime social at the church Friday evening. A social evening interspersed with an interesting program, including refreshments—in short a social is the idea. The Aid Society with characteristic foresight is already planning a bazaar to be held in the next holiday season. Fancy articles, useful ones, too, will be made and birthday and Christmas gift orders placed with the ladies will receive prompt and satisfying attention. The new officers are Mrs. Hangate, Pres.; Mrs. Patterson, Vice; Mrs. Handsaker, Secy; Mrs. O. D. Nosler, Treasurer. If there ever was a time when Coquille people could not secure as dainty valentines as they wished the time will not be this year. Mrs. O. D. Nosler is supervising the work of the Berean club girls and a display will shortly be made of both expensive and inexpensive messages of love.

Resolutions of Respect. We, the committee appointed by Evening Tide Circle, Women of Woodcraft, upon the death of J. C. Laird he being the father of Neighbor's Mrs. Anna E. Von Peger and James W. Laird, members of this Circle, submit the following: WHEREAS, In view of the loss this community has sustained by the decease of this worthy Citizen, and the still heavier loss sustained by those who were nearest and dearest to him; therefore be it Resolved, That it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say that in regretting his removal from our midst we mourn for one who was in every way, worthy of our respect and regard. Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased on the dispensation with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict them, and commend them for consolation to Him who orders all things for the best, and whose chastisements are meant in mercy. Resolved, That this heartfelt testimonial of our sympathy and sorrow be forwarded to the family of deceased as well as spread upon the records of this Circle, and a copy sent to the HERALD and Bulletin for publication.
