A recent letter from Weaverville, California, to Mr. Lorenz's folks from those of C. W. White, formerly of this city, Mr. White being foreman of the mill here for many years, conveys the sad intelligence of a serious accident in which Arthur, the oldest son, was very seriously if not mortally injured. It seems he was working in a mine in which occurred the premature or accidental explosion of a blast while Arthur was near and he suffered the loss of his right arm, it being literally torn from his body and one if not both eyes and one ear, beside the shock that would naturally attend such an accident. The many friends of the family in this section will sincerely regret to hear of severe an accident to their promising young friend, and feel the deepest sympathy for the family. It was also noticed by the Trinity Journal, printed at the same place that Miss Eva, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. White was married to a Mr. Wm. F. Webber, on the 14th inst.
Rochester, Feb. 26—The entire business section of this city threatened by a fire which broke out at 5 this morning. The loss will be over a million dollars.
